

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

STATE. State Treasurer, BENJ. J. HAYWOOD, Mercer. Judges of the Superior Court, CHARLES E. RICE, Luzerne.

OCTOBER 5th is the last day to pay taxes to secure a vote.

THE great trouble with the Democratic party is that it is obliged to be on the wrong side of all important questions in order to be against the Republican party.

SENATOR QUAY has called a meeting of the State Central Committee to-day, at 2 o'clock in Philadelphia.

WHY not see at once that your taxes are paid so you can vote.

It is the big five now—Reed, McKinley, Allison, Harrison and Morton! There is a chance that some other name or names may be presented in the Convention, but these are enough to lengthen the contest out to five or six ballots, and to make the result decidedly uncertain.

A PAPER in the State of Washington declares that geographical considerations render necessary a new state, to be formed by the adjacent regions of Washington and Idaho, which are walled in together by great mountain ranges.

THE Woman's relief Corps, according to the report made at the late encampment at Louisville, has increased in membership in the past year 35,696. The total number of corps is given as 4,141, a gain of 37 during the year.

GO AT once and pay your taxes. Republicans. Saturday is your last day of grace.

THE Republican State Committee, under the leadership of Senator Quay, has begun hustling for the approaching election, which is about five weeks off, and from this on there should be no let-up on the work of getting out the vote and rolling up a big majority for the ticket.

THERE is a strong sentiment growing among the people of the United States in favor of the patriots of Cuba who are struggling for freedom from Spain. What the course of the administration will be, is one of those things which no fellow can find out, but that the government should recognize the patriots as belligerents of war seems to be the general opinion, and that this course cannot be taken too soon seems furthermore to be quite manifest.

PAY your taxes.

EMBASSADOR BAYARD will address the Edinburgh Philosophical Society next month on "Individual Liberty, the Germ of National Prosperity and Permanence."

AS YEARS run by privates in the civil war are hard to find in some parts of the country, but it seems that Gov. McKinley, of Ohio, occupied that honorable position for more than a year in President Hayes' regiment.

What McKinley Thinks About It.

Governor McKinley, in a recent speech in Ohio, said: "It is loudly proclaimed through the Democratic press that prosperity has come. I sincerely hope that it has. Whatever prosperity we have has been a long time coming, and after nearly three years of business depression, a ruinous panic, and painful and widespread suffering among the people, I pray that we may be at the dawn of better times and of enduring prosperity."

Why Gold is Leaving Us

The fall in the Treasury gold reserve below the $100,000,000 mark has stirred up the band of prattlers who control the department to talk about another bond issue. Some of their gossip about issuing one hundred million or two hundred million dollars of bonds in exchange for greenbacks savors of madness.

As has been pointed out before the cause of the steady exports of gold and the depletion of the Treasury reserve is the large purchases of foreign goods abroad. To pay for them importers remit gold obtained from the Treasury upon the presentation of greenbacks for redemption.

Table with 3 columns: Year (1895, 1894), Category (Manufactures of cotton, etc.), and Value ($2,738,996, etc.).

In August last year the McKinley high tariff law was in operation; in August this year the Wilson low tariff law is in operation.

increased nearly 100 per cent. under the Wilson bill. For every working day $400,000 more of foreign merchandise is coming into the country, in these eight schedules alone, more than came in under the McKinley bill.

Issuing new bonds will not change this situation. We must pay for goods we import and if foreigners will not take our wheat and cotton we must send our gold.
