

THE FOREST REPUBLICAN.

J. E. WENK, EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 24, 1895

REPUBLICAN TICKET.

STATE.

State Treasurer, BENJ. J. HAYWOOD, Mercer. Judges of the Superior Court, CHARLES E. RICE, Luzerne. JAMES A. BEAVER, Centre. E. N. WILLARD, Lackawanna. GEORGE B. ORLADY, Huntington. HOWARD J. REEDER, Northampton. JOHN J. WICKHAM, Beaver.

COUNTY.

Treasurer, JAMES H. FONES. Associate Judge, JACK McCRAY.

Vote for the six Republican Superior Court Judges, and you will make no mistake. They are all able, honorable and brainy men.

There is no time left now to argue the case. The duty of every Republican in Forest County is plain. Go to the polls next Tuesday and take with you your Republican neighbor. Vote the ticket straight. This is what you would expect the Republicans to do for you if your case was directly involved. Keep this thought in mind. A half-hearted support of your own ticket, or a complimentary vote for the opposition is not the way to keep up a party. So vote the straight ticket, and urge your neighbor to do the same thing.

Vote for Benjamin J. Haywood for State Treasurer. A competent and ever faithful State official, he has always discharged his every duty with fidelity and with credit to himself and his party.

Vote the straight Republican ticket. No excuse to cut a single candidate this year. Our ticket is composed of excellent men, whose loyalty to the party has never been questioned and who have always contributed their full share to the party's success. Keep this in mind when you cast your ballot. One mark in the circle is sufficient. Put it there and you will feel the better for it when the election is over.

Vote for A. J. McCray for Associate Judge, a man whose Republicanism is of the staunchest type, and who deserves the support of every Republican in the county.

Get out early on next Tuesday morning, Republicans, and give at least a portion of your time to the success of the whole ticket. You ought to feel it not only your duty but your pleasure to do so. Let there be no stay-at-homes on election day.

State Chairman Quay is leaving nothing undone to get out the full vote next Tuesday. He does not believe in "off years," neither should any good Republican. Urging should be entirely unnecessary to get any loyal Republican to the polls. Let us all get out and hold up the hands of the Chairman, who is doing his utmost for the success of the party. Don't stay at home. And above all vote your ticket straight.

Vote for James H. Fones for County Treasurer, a sound Republican, an honest man, and in every way worthy the support of his fellow men.

Let nothing hinder you from attending the election next Tuesday. And while there, put in some good work for the Republican ticket. Let nothing interfere with your depositing a straight Republican ballot. There is no excuse for any Republican to scratch a single candidate on the ticket this fall.

Don't get in your mind that this is an "off year" and that whether you go to the polls or not the ticket will be elected. That sort of apathy is what kills. Every Republican should feel that his individual vote is necessary to carry the party to success, and then make haste to deposit it. What if your name was on the ticket, or that of a very near friend? Would you not feel that the Republicans ought all to come out and vote for you or him, as the case might be? The candidates that have been nominated by the party this year are just feeling that way now. Think of this. Put yourself their place. Don't stay at home and don't split your ticket. It isn't fair, and you will not feel as well over it after you have done so.

When you go to the polls next Tuesday make one cross in the circle at the head of the Republican column do the business. Your conscience will be easier after having done so, and you will be in position to smile when the vote is counted. If you don't do this you will not enjoy the result no matter how it turns out, and your conscience will condemn you.

Urging ought not to be necessary to get out the Republican vote this year. Certainly no urging should be necessary to keep them from splitting their ticket.

No one taking the risk of spoiling your whole ticket by attempting to split up. One cross in the circle at the head of the first column of your ballot is sufficient. Put it there.

State Chairman Quay confidently expects a good sized majority for the Republican ticket. Because it is an "off year" he is not leaving anything undone to get out the vote. Every Republican should go to the polls on election day. He should feel that this is his duty. Urging should be unnecessary. And beware of a Democratic trick that will be attempted. Republicans will be asked to give complimentary votes for Democratic candidates. "Your party will win anyway," these tricksters will say. Don't be fooled. Don't throw your vote away on Democratic candidates. If you do it is just possible that your vote will help elect Democrats to office. Of course, that is what Democrats are after when they ask you for a complimentary vote. Every Republican should put his cross mark in the circle on the left hand side of the ticket at the head of the Republican column.

DO YOUR DUTY.

Republicans of the Various Counties Should Not be Apathetic.

Republicans of the several districts of the county should be preparing to poll a large vote as possible. Over confidence is the danger in this campaign. It is only a question of majority in Pennsylvania. The Republican tide is strong, and the people are anxiously awaiting Republican success both this year and next. But in order to emphasize this fact it is necessary for those who believe in Republican principles and policies to go to the polls and express their sentiments. It must be remembered that this is an off year. Ordinarily we would have but a state treasurer to elect, and in only a few counties are there county tickets to elect.

This year the importance of the state election is increased by the fact that we have to elect seven judges who shall constitute our superior court. It is seldom the people have an opportunity of exercising so much power at one time as in the coming election. On Nov. 7, they will choose an entire appellate judicial tribunal which shall exercise jurisdiction in a very large class of important cases. The legal ability of the gentlemen composing the Republican ticket has never been questioned. They are men of high standing in the several communities in which they reside, and will honor the party and the state in the administration of the judicial office.—Butler Eagle.

Don't fail to vote this year.

A HEAVY REDUCTION IN THE REPUBLICAN MAJORITY IN PENNSYLVANIA, FOLLOWING UPON THE RESULT IN INDIANAPOLIS, WOULD BE HERALDED BROADCAST AS AN EVIDENCE OF REPUBLICAN WEAKNESS AND DISINTEGRATION.

A DEFICIT PARTY. Holding Back Expenditures to Mislead the Public.

As was to have been expected, the administration is beginning to hold back expenditures in the closing days of September. In order to be able to send out to the country a false and misleading report of the government's financial operations for the first quarter of the fiscal year. Democratic organs are commencing their regular monthly tactics of proclaiming that "at least" the income of the treasury under the Wilson-Gorman tariff is equaling the outgo. By the first of October we will see a concerted attempt on the part of apologists of incompetency to persuade the people that there is really no need of tariff revision. This effort will be based, if the past record of the Cleveland administration counts for anything, on dishonest treasury statistics which will be "doctored" for the purpose of showing a surplus of two or three millions for September. The president and his advisers realize the danger of allowing their party to go before the country in November as the creature of a tariff that is piling up a deficit at the rate of more than $50,000,000 a year. But, however loudly the administration defenders may shout, it will be perfectly easy for Republican journals to convict them of falsehood by publishing detailed accounts of the revenue and expenditure for the whole period since July 1.—New York Commercial Advertiser.

Don't fail to vote this year.

THE TOTAL REPUBLICAN VOTE IN PENNSYLVANIA IN OFF YEARS HAS USUALLY SHRUNK 30 PER CENT. THIS SHOULD NOT BE PERMITTED THIS YEAR. IT WILL NOT OCCUR IF EVERY REPUBLICAN DOES HIS DUTY.

PROTECTION'S POLICY.

Establish Home Industries and Increase Foreign Exports.

Protectionists desire earnestly an expansion of our export trade. Their policy is to establish firmly home industries and let American ingenuity and enterprise do the rest. Thus the manufacture of watches at Waltham, Mass., Elgin, Ill., and elsewhere has been followed by the export of American watches to Europe, Mexico, South America and Australia. This export trade is due primarily to the success attained at home under protection.

If we did not make good watches at Waltham, and elsewhere, we could not have encountered Swiss competition abroad. What is true of the watch industry is true of many others. It would apply to a great many more industries if they had received in the past years the encouragement to which they are entitled. This country ought, for instance, to be exporting tin plate in large quantities, instead of buying it from Great Britain. The flippant writers who clamor for the development of our export trade by opening the gates to foreign products of all kinds do not know how American manufacturers have with difficulty acquired a footing abroad and retained it. Protection enabled them to do it.

A HEAVY REDUCTION IN THE REPUBLICAN MAJORITY IN PENNSYLVANIA, FOLLOWING UPON THE RESULT IN INDIANAPOLIS, WOULD BE HERALDED BROADCAST AS AN EVIDENCE OF REPUBLICAN WEAKNESS AND DISINTEGRATION.

One member of the Democratic state committee, it is announced, has "started on a campaign of education" by mailing "a large amount of political literature to every city, town and hamlet in this state." The object of this "campaign of education," judging from the character of the political literature sent out, is to teach voters to believe statements which terribly pervert political facts. The masses, in the recent past, manifested a decided repugnance to such an "education."
