Eli Berlin Post starts out in its second year with excellent prospects before it. It has prospered during the past year, its percent of attendance having reached a fraction over 91. This record is unsurpassed by any Post in the Department, we think, while a majority of the comrades most travel from two to six miles in order to reach the Post Hall. Comrades who attend Post meetings but occasionally or not at all fail to see where the benefit is, simply because their hearts are not warmed by the presence of their comrades and by a disposition to do their duty. God bless our comrades of their comrades and by a disposition to do their duty. God bless our comrades of the G. A. R. and our friends, throughout the year 1896.
