

THE FOREST REPUBLICAN.

J. E. WENK, EDITOR & PROPRIETOR.

WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 5, 1896

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

NATIONAL DELEGATE.

The friends of J. C. Campbell, of Jenks Township, present his name as a candidate for delegate to the Republican National Convention, subject to the decision of the Republican primary election in Forest County, and the action of the District Convention.

We are authorized to announce J. B. AGNEW, of Tionesta, Pa., as a candidate for Delegate to the National Republican Convention, subject to the decision of the District Conference.

STATE DELEGATE.

We are authorized to announce Geo. L. King, of West Hickory, Harmony Township, as a candidate for Delegate to the Republican State Convention, at Harrisburg, April 23, 1896.

The Democratic nomination for Governor of Missouri this year is one of the things that no shrewd politician will permit himself to accept.

"It is our duty to give the Sultan time," says Lord Salisbury; but meanwhile what about the Armenians, to whom time signifies the probability of extermination?

The Republican candidates for the Presidency are all capable, worthy and available, and so the nomination of any one of them is certain to be heartily ratified by the party.

ACCORDING to all reports, the successor of Campos proposes to make another Armenia of Cuba; but the United States will hardly stand still and let such a policy be enforced.

But one sugar plantation in Cuba is said to be left standing. As rations are scarce in Havana, it would be well to put tax gatherers on the retitled list and send them back to Spain.

COL. BILL MORRISON is not what is known as a magnetic man, but he has many good qualities, and is particularly adapted to his party's present emergency by his habit of taking defeat philosophically.

The South American republics are not all that they should be. But they are far better than if they were kingdoms or colonial provinces. They deserve sympathy and encouragement from Americans, not supercilious criticism.

The revenue bill which passed the House of Representatives a month ago provides for an increase in the present tariff duties, sufficient to pay the expenses of the government. A tariff on wool is provided for in the bill, but President Cleveland it is reported, will veto any bill protecting the wool growers of the United States, and there is little hope of any relief for them this year.

The Red Cross Society is an army of peace and mercy, but possesses a moral power that gives it weight among the organizations of the world. Its mission to relieve the sick and wounded in time of war has been recognized by forty-four nations, and in some countries it also acts in seasons of flood, storms or other public calamity. A ruler who repels it will find it difficult to show that his policy is entitled to respect.

EX-PRESIDENT HARRISON, in a letter to Capt. Gowdy, chairman of the Indiana State committee, dated the 3d inst., kindly, yet firmly, declines to allow his name to go before the St. Louis convention as a candidate for the Republican Presidential nomination. The letter concludes with this paragraph, which would seem to effectually stop further talk of General Harrison's candidacy: "I cannot consent that my name be presented or used in the St. Louis convention and must kindly ask my friends to accept this as a final expression on the subject."

The sub-committee on Legislation of the Republican State Committee are working on the legislation to carry out the platform promulgated by Senator Quay. When the Executive Committee of the State Committee meets in Philadelphia next April five eminent lawyers will present a complete report. That portion of the Quay platform which refers to civil service reform has been assigned to Silas W. Pettit. William B. Rodgers Esq., of Allegheny City, has been assigned work pertaining to the letting of public contracts and the use of money in politics and for promoting councilmanic legislation. Lyman D. Gilbert, Esq., of Harrisburg, will prepare legislation remedying the evils of inequitable taxation and the control of councils and city office holders by corporations. D. D. Bruce, Esq., of Pittsburg, will build a structure which will do away with the present charter of that city. Hon. John Russell Young will confer with the others on the report.

HON. W. O. SMITH is a candidate for re-election to the Assembly over in Jefferson county. As a writer Bro. Smith has a national reputation, and as a law-maker he is second to none in the State. Friends by the score would gladly see him returned to the House where he has been of so much use, in past sessions, to his constituency. It was his careful and energetic work in the House that made Jefferson a separate judicial district, while Senator Mitchell looked after the work of passing the bill through the Senate. It was largely Mr. Smith's personal popularity, that gained for the charitable institutions of his county such nice appropriations in a year when this class of legislation was shamed down to the last notch. If the people want to merely compliment some of their citizens by sending them to the legislature most any one will do, but if they would have a representative who can get for them about anything he asks for they will return the genial William O.
