

THE FOREST REPUBLICAN.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 4, 1896

BOROUGH OFFICERS.

Burgess.—R. M. Herman. Councilmen.—Joseph Clark, J. R. Os...

FOREST COUNTY OFFICERS.

Member of Congress.—Wm. C. Arnold. Member of Senate.—Wm. H. Hyde.

REGULAR TERMS OF COURT.

Fourth Monday of February. Third Monday of May.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY.

TIONESTA LODGE, No. 309, I. O. O. F. Meets every Tuesday evening in Odd Fellows' Hall.

FOREST LODGE, No. 184, A. O. U. W. Meets every Friday evening in A. O. U. W. Hall.

WASHINGTON CAMP, No. 420, P. O. S. of A. Meets every Saturday evening in A. O. U. W. Hall.

CAPT. GEORGE STOW POST, No. 274 G. A. R. Meets 1st and 3d Wednesday evening in each month.

CAPT. GEORGE STOW CORPS, No. 137, W. R. C. Meets first and third Wednesday evening of each month.

TIONESTA TENT, No. 164, K. O. T. Meets 2nd and 4th Wednesday evening in each month.

P. M. CLARK, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, and DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

T. F. RITCHEY, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, Tionesta, Pa.

J. B. SIGGINS, M. D., Physician, Surgeon & Druggist.

J. W. MORROW, M. D., Physician, Surgeon & Dentist.

L. D. BOWMAN, M. D., Physician & Surgeon.

HOTEL AGNEW, Proprietor. This hotel, formerly the Lawrence House, has undergone a complete change.

CENTRAL HOUSE, C. F. WEAVER, Proprietor. Tionesta, Pa.

FOREST HOTEL, West Hickory, Pa. Jacob Bender, Proprietor.

MAY, PARK & CO., BANKERS. Corner of Elm & Walnut Sts.

PHIL. EMERT, FANCY BOOT & SHOEMAKER.

J. F. ZAHNINGER, PRACTICAL WATCH-MAKER.

L. ORENZO FULTON, Manufacturer of and Dealer in HARNESS, COLLARS, BRIDLES.

Fred. Grettenberger GENERAL BLACKSMITH & MACHINIST.

S. H. HASBET & SONS, GENERAL MERCHANTS, Furniture Dealers, UNDERTAKERS.

JAS. T. BRENNAN,

Real Estate Agent and Conveyancer.

FIRE, LIFE AND ACCIDENT INSURANCE.

FARMS, WILD LANDS, HOUSES AND LOTS FOR SALE OR EXCHANGE.

C. M. ARNER, CONVEYANCER, REAL ESTATE BROKER AND COLLECTOR.

Deeds, Bonds, Mortgages, Leases, Wills, Powers of Attorney, Articles of Agreement, and all other legal instruments of writing.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Oil market $1.30. What about that local telephone line?

Mrs. T. E. Armstrong was in Oil City yesterday.

Mrs. John T. Carson was in Oil City yesterday.

Miss Kate Hood spent Sunday with friends in Siverlyville.

Miss Jennie Snyder of Fagundes is a guest of Mrs. Geo. Hood.

Mrs. J. R. Chadwick has been quite ill for the past two weeks.

C. M. Whitman is having a new floor laid in the rear of his store.

Nothing very lamb-like about the coming in of March this year.

Miles & Armstrong still have lots of bargains. See their ad.

Mrs. W. A. Maines of Irvineton is the guest of Miss Louisa Killmer.

Miss Maude Brennan is the guest of Mrs. W. H. Wood of Titusville.

Rev. J. E. Hillard was down from East Hickory yesterday on business.

J. B. Hagerty, who has a drilling contract at Raymlton, was at home over Sunday.

An exchange remarks that it is necessary for a candidate to treat his constituents "well and often."

J. R. Thompson returned Friday from a week's visit with friends and relatives in Brockwayville.

W. J. Jenkins of Warren, revenue collector for this district, was in town on official business Monday.

Thos. Lewis and wife were the guests of their grandmother, Mrs. Rachel Noble, the first of the week.

Miss Artie Robinson departed Monday for a few weeks' visit with friends in Reynoldsville and Pittsburgh.

It is the man who has to live on corn bread at home who finds the most fault with the pie when he travels.—Ez.

Governor Hastings has issued a proclamation designating Friday, April 10, and Friday, April 24, as arbor days.

On account of cold weather Miles & Armstrong will make still better prices on anything in winter goods. See them.

C. M. Arner last Saturday sold the house and lot occupied by Solomon Fitzgerald, on May street, to Mrs. Jane Overlander of West Tionesta.

Reports from the lumber camps of this county are to the effect that the recent snows were sufficient to enable the lumbermen to get their logs all to the mills.

Brookville has a case of small-pox on hands. The disease made its appearance in the family of a man by the name of Taylor. There are seven of the family.

Remember that the best place to buy oysters, fruit and vegetables, is where you can always get them fresh, and at the lowest possible prices. That is at Amser's.

The following household articles are for sale by Mrs. G. W. Kerr: One oak stove, one heating stove, one mattress with springs, one set dining room chairs, one couch, one lawn mower, a number of tables and carpets; also one top buggy, which can be seen at Scowden & Clark's wagon factory.

These articles are all comparatively new and can be had at very reasonable prices. tf.

Court Notes.

In the case of H. L. Hepler vs. W. H. Eggey, the jury disagreed.

In the case of the Commonwealth vs. Chas Russell the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty.

The Court last Wednesday appointed T. D. Collins, C. A. Hill and T. J. Bowman, viewers, to view and report at the next term concerning the new road up the Allegheny river, from the Borough line to the Hickory township line.

As will be seen by a glance at our announcement column, A. W. Cook of Barnett township is announced for Congress.

The Democratic county committee, at its meeting last week, named Saturday, May 9th, as the date for holding the Democratic primaries in this county.

The new borough council organized Monday night by electing F. R. Lanson, president; J. R. Thompson, treasurer, and T. F. Ritchey, clerk.

The Derriek's monthly oil report for February states that but for the big strike on the Weekly farm, in Tyler county, West Virginia, February would have made a poor showing in the item of new production.

February's summary shows 555 wells completed in the field of producing Pennsylvania oil, with 150 of them destitute of oil in paying quantities.

The grain house of Robert McCloskey of Farmington township, was burned with all its contents last Sunday.

Rialto, (formerly Stowtown), Pa., is making such good progress in keeping up with the times that we think it worthy of a little attention from the outside world.

Rialto is keeping pace with other places in the line of morality. The Rialto Christian Endeavor society was organized Jan. 24, 1896.

The social committee sent out invitations to different clergymen to come and preach for the people here week day evenings.

Mr. Geo. W. Warden, General Supt. for Wheeler & Dusenbury, is now in California looking after his orange and lemon grove near Ontario.

John Dutton and wife are visiting relatives in Centre county.

Twins were born at the residence of John Watson on last Thursday. The little ones—a boy and girl—have both died and were buried at Whig Hill.

West Hickory.

Vall & Porter have gone out of the meat business.

F. E. Stulley has severed his connection with Turner Bros. and Will Porter is working in his place.

James Bensley has just returned from six weeks' visit among friends in Warren and Crawford counties.

Mr. Earnest Stulley is very sick with inflammation of the bowels.

Quarterly meeting last Saturday and Sunday was very largely attended.

Mrs. Joseph Mullin, so we are informed, has purchased the W. C. Allen property of house and lot.

Mrs. Keltlinger of Titusville is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hughes.

W. S. Widrig traded horses with a Tionesta party last week.

Foxburg, Howe Township. "All's quiet along the Tionesta."

Sleigh bells silent and laid away until snow falls again; yet the school children are happy to know they had a nice ride before the sleighing was gone.

Mr. Henry Peterson's house—the house he was living in at Lynch—was burned to the ground Monday morning with all the household furniture, clothing, etc.

Pat Lynch did a humane act the other day, when he took two of his old horses—fat and in good spirits, but almost past work—out to the woods and shot them, instead of selling them for a mere trifle, to be battered and worked to death.

Mr. Henry Peterson's house—the house he was living in at Lynch—was burned to the ground Monday morning with all the household furniture, clothing, etc.

Two of the girls were away and a little boy at school. Before Mrs. P. started, she turned down the gas.

The house of Isaac Lewis, at the Patterson mill in Triumph township, caught fire from the chimney last Saturday and was completely destroyed with all its contents.

Ground has been broken for the contagious disease annex to the Oil City hospital. It will be 28x32 feet, two stories high, the two porches to be enclosed in glass, and the two floors entirely separated.

The dead body of a man was found on the Lake Shore railroad tracks a mile west of Franklin, Friday night.

It was ascertained Saturday that the deceased was William Curby, of Alliance, O., who has been residing with his wife and two children at Polk for some time, working at fitting and plumbing on the state building there.

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

Fazrudus and Fleming Hill.

Mrs. E. J. Scott's dwelling house and post office was burned to the ground Wednesday evening at 11 o'clock.

Mr. John Hinkson is around with a paper soliciting aid for Mrs. Scott.

Quite a number of our young people attended a charitable oyster supper and dance at the old Fank House at Pineville, on Friday night.

Some sneak thief entered the Trunkeyville store and depot and stole a good quantity of tobacco and cigars from Loyd Bloomfield one night last week.

Fleming Hill is beginning to look like an oil town. Black & Co. have completed the rig on the Weikal farm and will be ready to drill the middle of the week.

Proper Bros. began drilling on the Head Farm Friday morning. We saw three Pleasantville teams stuck in the mud in the fields and other teams in the road stuck in the snow drifts.

James Mooney's child is improving nicely under the care of Dr. A. C. Magill of Tidoute.

Miss Nellie Cannon is lying very sick at the home of her parents, with Dr. Magill in attendance.

The road commissioners of this place have H. K. Vall and Plummer Hill removing the snow from the roads with a shovel plow.

George Parker is building a nice little house on his farm between here and Hickory.

Mr. Uria Parker has moved onto the Bender farm to do the farming for Mr. Bender.

A number of our young people have received invitations to a mush and milk supper to be held under the auspices of the E. A. U. in the E. A. U. hall on Friday night.

Little BoPep. NEWSY NOTES.

The Ohio legislature has passed a bill increasing the tax on saloons from $250 to $350.

Governor Hastings has endorsed the candidacy of Senator Quay for the Presidency, notwithstanding the bitter fight waged between them in State politics one year ago.

The Warron Electric Street Railway Company has withdrawn its application to the Council for the privilege of extending the line to the West End and other points in Warren Borough.

Mrs. Mary Francis, of Butler county, had her leg broken by being thrown out of a buggy at a defective bridge in Franklin township. A jury this week awarded her $2,300 damages against the township.

H. W. Grigsby, a member of the last Pennsylvania Legislature, has brought suit against the New Castle Conant for $20,000 damages for libel. The paper published a statement that Mr. Grigsby had accepted bribes as a legislator.

The Erie Councils are about to grant a franchise of the streets to the Home Heating Company, which is to supply heat to dwellings by means of hot water. The ordinance provides that after three years the company shall pay three per cent. of its gross earnings into the city treasury.

A fire in Corry on Saturday morning destroyed the Starbird & Hammond block. Loss on building $25,000, partly covered by insurance. Loss to tenants, about $25,000, mostly insured. There was an insufficiency of water to fight the fire, and there is talk of a suit against the city or the water company.

The house of Isaac Lewis, at the Patterson mill in Triumph township, caught fire from the chimney last Saturday and was completely destroyed with all its contents.

Mr. Lewis was in Tidoute and his wife was at a neighbor's when the fire was discovered and all attempts to save anything was futile. The family simply have the clothing they were wearing at the time left.—Tidoute News.

Ground has been broken for the contagious disease annex to the Oil City hospital. It will be 28x32 feet, two stories high, the two porches to be enclosed in glass, and the two floors entirely separated.

The dead body of a man was found on the Lake Shore railroad tracks a mile west of Franklin, Friday night.

It was ascertained Saturday that the deceased was William Curby, of Alliance, O., who has been residing with his wife and two children at Polk for some time, working at fitting and plumbing on the state building there.

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

There is no more reliable authority than "they say." Before a story is reported unfavorably on some person, a better foundation should be required than the common and meaningless expression "they say."

Married.

Penstermaker-Wilson.—At Tionesta, Pa., Thursday, Feb. 27, 1896, by S. J. Selby, J. E. R. David Penstermaker, of Tionesta township, Forest Co., and Miss Lou S. Wilson, of President township, Venango Co., Pa.

Twins were born at the residence of John Watson on last Thursday. The little ones—a boy and girl—have both died and were buried at Whig Hill.

John Dutton and wife are visiting relatives in Centre county.

Mr. Geo. W. Warden, General Supt. for Wheeler & Dusenbury, is now in California looking after his orange and lemon grove near Ontario.

John Dutton and wife are visiting relatives in Centre county.

Twins were born at the residence of John Watson on last Thursday. The little ones—a boy and girl—have both died and were buried at Whig Hill.

John Dutton and wife are visiting relatives in Centre county.

Mr. Geo. W. Warden, General Supt. for Wheeler & Dusenbury, is now in California looking after his orange and lemon grove near Ontario.

John Dutton and wife are visiting relatives in Centre county.

Twins were born at the residence of John Watson on last Thursday. The little ones—a boy and girl—have both died and were buried at Whig Hill.

John Dutton and wife are visiting relatives in Centre county.

Mr. Geo. W. Warden, General Supt. for Wheeler & Dusenbury, is now in California looking after his orange and lemon grove near Ontario.

John Dutton and wife are visiting relatives in Centre county.

Twins were born at the residence of John Watson on last Thursday. The little ones—a boy and girl—have both died and were buried at Whig Hill.

John Dutton and wife are visiting relatives in Centre county.

Mr. Geo. W. Warden, General Supt. for Wheeler & Dusenbury, is now in California looking after his orange and lemon grove near Ontario.

John Dutton and wife are visiting relatives in Centre county.

Twins were born at the residence of John Watson on last Thursday. The little ones—a boy and girl—have both died and were buried at Whig Hill.

John Dutton and wife are visiting relatives in Centre county.

Mr. Geo. W. Warden, General Supt. for Wheeler & Dusenbury, is now in California looking after his orange and lemon grove near Ontario.

John Dutton and wife are visiting relatives in Centre county.

Twins were born at the residence of John Watson on last Thursday. The little ones—a boy and girl—have both died and were buried at Whig Hill.

John Dutton and wife are visiting relatives in Centre county.

Mr. Geo. W. Warden, General Supt. for Wheeler & Dusenbury, is now in California looking after his orange and lemon grove near Ontario.

John Dutton and wife are visiting relatives in Centre county.

Twins were born at the residence of John Watson on last Thursday. The little ones—a boy and girl—have both died and were buried at Whig Hill.

John Dutton and wife are visiting relatives in Centre county.

Mr. Geo. W. Warden, General Supt. for Wheeler & Dusenbury, is now in California looking after his orange and lemon grove near Ontario.