Mr. Strickenberg Withdraws.

ED. REPUBLICAN: On account of business connections which I have engaged in and that will require all of my time, making it impossible for me to give proper attention to the campaign, I withdraw my name from the list of candidates for Prothonotary, &c. In doing so I wish to very heartily thank those who have assured me of their cordial support. Very truly,

R. A. STRICKENBERG.

March 10, 1896.

JUDGING from Mr. Harity's talk, the Chicago convention will be a regular love feast. Oh yes, of course, and the straddle will be so arranged as to carry Cleveland and Altgeld.

It is evident in reading between the lines that Spain protests too much about the support it will receive from Europe. It is merely whistling to keep up its courage while in a tight place.

SPAIN'S approaching and inevitable default on the external national debt will undoubtedly be preceded by many rumors and proposals as to aid from other nations, such as is now reported from France. These will come to little. Spain is bankrupt. No aid can help that. The country is ripe for a Revolutionary Receiver.

HON. S. A. DAVENPORT, of Erie, is being boomed for Congress-at-Large, to take the place of Geo. F. Huff, who is said to have given up his notion of again being a candidate.

Mr. Davenport has many friends throughout the northwest who would be pleased to hear of his nomination, and who believe he would very creditably represent the great Commonwealth of Pennsylvania at Washington.

If there is to be a war, says the Phila. Times, why not let the Princes students and the Madrid students fight it out between them? Both sides seem equally bellicose, and would no doubt be reinforced from other universities of their respective countries. It is possible that the Spaniards might be more ardent, but the Americans would certainly show the better discipline. Judging from the practice during the foot-ball season the faculties would suspend lectures during the conflict.

Our Public Schools.

The annual report of the Superintendent of Public Instruction shows that last year in this State there was a total of $10,506.40 paid to institute lecturers; $4,205.40 paid for hall rental for institute purposes; $3,262.35 for printing and $9,262.45 for miscellaneous items; the total institute expenditures were $54,307.50 and there is a State deficit of $407.34 in certain counties, while the other counties hold a balance of $7,924.89 as an institute surplus.

There were in the State last year 96 teachers who had no previous experience; 2,563 who had taught five or more schools; 1,041 who held provisional certificates; 1,347 who held permanent certificates; 795 who had graduated at some normal school of this State; 296 undergraduates of State normal schools; 2,715 who were educated entirely in the Pennsylvania public schools; 526 educated in seminaries or academies; 147 who were college graduates. Four thousand two hundred and eighty schools were instituted by the State Superintendent; 69 only he was unable to inspect; the total number of school visits made by the State Superintendent was 43,558; 4,273 schools were inspected by directors; 22,470 children were enrolled, 138 between the ages of 6 and 16; there are 15 colleges in the State, 199 academies and seminaries and 29,054 pupils enrolled in the latter. There are 25,348 school houses in the State, with a seating capacity of 214,474.

For Better Roads.

ED. REPUBLICAN: The necessity for a better system on which to make and repair our public roads, is arresting the minds of the people of our Commonwealth. This is as it should be. Some seven years ago we wrote on this subject. Our school system has been fostered and improved by legislative enactments wonderfully during the past forty years, we feel proud to be able to state it as a fact, but in the matter of public roads we find ourselves drifting along in about the same old channel pursued by our grandfathers. The people of this state have proven themselves a progressive people in every other department resulting in the general welfare of mankind more than in the matter of good roads. This state of affairs is not the fault of the taxpayer, the full amount allowable is levied from year to year and by our road masters, who perhaps widely differ in opinion with other as to the proper course to pursue, the money is expended with but little improvement from year to year, and at the same time the expenditure of money is in perfect harmony with the present law. To remedy this a radical change is greatly needed, not necessarily the increasing knowledge of expenditure, made effective by legislative enactment, etc. We might say a great many things relative to this matter but for the present we will only say by way of conclusion that in our humble opinion we believe that the proper course to pursue is to hold County institutes or conventions for the purpose of getting together on what is needed in order that we may act as one man in the matter, and if further legislative enactments are needed to help on the good work we will be in a shape or condition to walk wisely and understandingly. "Old Glory" Unfurled to the Breeze at Whig Hill.

ED. REPUBLICAN: Friday the 6th dawned with omens of coming storm, but we were not daunted even amid falling rain. Ell Berlin Post was invited to participate in raising "Old Glory" over the school house at Whig Hill and no amount of rain could hardly prevail on us to stay at home. Our staunch old friend, Ell Berlin, of Whig Hill, took us in about noon and fed us and our beast, preparatory to the gathering at the school house.

At 1 o'clock, loaded wagons and lighter vehicles in great numbers soon began to appear along the different roads leading to the school house in the beautiful grove. After a few moments delay the flagstaff, already on the ground, was raised in fine style. The pole or staff was nicely dressed and stands fifty-three feet and four inches out of the ground. After being firmly secured, the ropes were promptly removed, the beautiful new flag was fastened to the circular rope which ran through an iron pulley at top of pole and amid the cheers of the assembled host Prof. W. J. Bloomfield ran up "Old Glory" to the breeze. "How beautifully it floats," was said by many.

All that could do so then retreated into the school house to witness the perfect execution of an interesting program by the school, under the supervision of their able teacher, Mr. Bloomfield. But to give anything like a full account of the patriotic display, the appropriate recitations and the earnestness with which both teacher and pupils went through the work is simply impossible. The least we can say is that the whole affair was nicely carried to a successful end, reflecting the highest honors on both teacher and scholars. We all highly enjoyed the two hours, listening to the singing and recitations.

The Post martial band, of Stowtown, was on hand and acquitted themselves nobly, as they always do.

Members of Ell Berlin Post also came in and endeavored to help in the patriotic work by a song by W. A. Burns and short addresses by Messrs. Albaugh, Wilmore, Mervin, Miller and Ward. It was nearly 5 o'clock when a possible adjournment was reached. Space will not permit us to say all we feel justifiable in saying of the events of that day.

Long live Whig Hill school and all connected. May all to their God and colors prove true, and stand by the red, white and blue.

Not to be Trifled With. (From Cincinnati Gazette.) Will people never learn that a "cold" is an accident to be dreaded, and that when it occurs treatment should be promptly applied? There is no knowing where the trouble will end, while recovery is the rule, the exceptions are terribly frequent, and thousands upon thousands of fatal illnesses occur every year ushered in by a little invidious exposure and seemingly trifling symptoms.

Beyond this, there are to-day countless invalids who can trace their complaints to "colds," which, at the time, were given no concern, and were therefore neglected.—When troubled with a cold use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is prompt and effective. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Heath & Killmer.

Quick in effect, heals and leaves no scar. Burning, itching, sore throat, quickly cured by DeWitt's Witch Hazel salve. Applied to burns, scalds, old sores. It is magical in effect. Always cures piles. Heath & Killmer.

"Give me a liver regulator and I can regulate the world," said a genius. The druggist handed him a bottle of DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. Heath & Killmer.

FOR SALE OR WILL EXCHANGE FOR LUMBER.—A good stationary saw mill, recently re-pitched throughout, 50 H. P. boiler and engine, log turner, gang edger, fractional blocks rope feed, saw frame, inserted tooth saws, cut off, bull wheel, lathe mill, belts, lumber trucks; in short, a fully equipped mill that will be sold at a reasonable price. Have also a 30 H. P. Blandy, that will sell for cash or exchange for lumber.

McCLELLAN & MELL, Kane, Pa.

All last winter Mr. Geo. A. Mills, of Lebanon, Conn., was badly afflicted with Rheumatism, and times when he was so bad that he could not stand up straight, but was drawn over on one side. "I tried different remedies without receiving relief," he said, "until I bought six months ago I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. After using it for three days my rheumatism was gone and has not returned since. For sale by Heath & Killmer.

A high liver with a torpid liver will not be a long liver. Correct the liver with DeWitt's Little Early Risers, little pills that cure dyspepsia and constipation. Heath & Killmer.

Wanted. To trade 6 end-spring top buggies, 3 two-horse wagons, 4 spring wagons, 4 road-wagons, for almost any kind of lumber. Write me as kind of lumber you have. Will trade the lot or as many as you may want.

A. REYNOLDS, Franklin, Pa.

Soothing, healing, cleansing, DeWitt's Witch Hazel salve is the enemy to sores, wounds and piles, which it never fails to cure. Stops itching and burning. Cures chapped lips and chafes in two or three hours. Heath & Killmer.

One Minute Cough Cure touches the right spot. It also touches at the right time if you take it when you have a cough or cold. See the point? Then don't cough. Heath & Killmer.

—Any person desiring first-class dental work done will do well to bear in mind that I will be in Tionesta for the week commencing on the first Monday of each month.

R. H. STILLSON.

It not only is so, it must be so, One Minute Cough Cure acts quickly, and that's what makes it go. Heath & Killmer.
