Sunday morning about eight o'clock the inhabitants of Newmansville were surprised at seeing a man with a load of grain drive into town and stop at the store. It was very evident that he ex-pected to walk right in, by the force with which he brought up against the door, after lifting the latch. Surprised at the fresh oysters, fruits and vegetables in season, confectionery, cigars and tobacco is where you can get the best goods at the best prices. That is at Amsler's. if.

He inquired why the store was not open and said that he was on his way to Fryburg to the grist mill and had stopped at the store to get a pipe and have a smoke. They told him Mr. Long did not keep his store open on Sunday. After considerable trouble they succeeded in convincing him that it was Sunday. They fornished hum a pipe and the gentleman

The people of Lynchburg who depend on gas for fuel, have experienced great inconvenience lately-especially on very cold mornings-from the gas going off, and the housewives have to be on the lookout to save an explosion. Within two weeks, two houses there have been burned to the ground. The first with all its contents, and the latter, which belonged to John Daly, but one machine and a few chairs were taken. On last Friday morning, while Mrs. Daley was on an errand to a neighbors, the gas came on in such force as to set the house on fire. A little boy, three years old, who had been left in the house, managed to get a door open and give the alarm. Soon all was in flames. The house to the
