THE Presidential boom for ex-Governor Russell, of Massachusetts is said to be really no Presidential boom at all, but instead a vice-Presidential om. The scheme it is claimed is to capture the delegation from Massausetts and from all New England if possible to Chicago for Russell and then use this force in favor of the nomination of Carlisle for President ou condition that Russell is given the second place on the ticket. Emissa-

In this address was bleuded together Godliness, patriotism and stirring truths. We would be glad to say more, but what can we say more than we have already said. Comrade Mercin, Commander of Eli Berlin Post, was next put to the front. He was visibly affected over a recitation relative to that old hero, Phil. Kearney, at the battle of Fair Oaks. Commander Mervin served under Kearney and he dearly loved the old one armed hero. Comrades Albaugh, Witherell, Siggins and Johnson came forward in the order named adding to the interest of the occasion. Prof. Stroup being present responded in answer to the call by a lew well chosen remarks. Prof. Whitmore closed the exercises in a brief appropriate address to us all and an affectionate farewell to the
