Miss Winnie Randall is a guest of Miss Inez Brownell, at Ludlow, Pa., for a few days.

Sam'l Allen Esq., one of Warren's rising young attorneys, spent a few hours in town Monday.

Miss Mae Watson of Golizna, is the guest of her friend, Miss Lizzie Randall, at the Rural House.

The Economy mill of Wheeler & Dusenbury started up Thursday for the season—Tidoute News.

There was quite a heavy frost in this section last Thursday morning, but no material damage was done that we have heard of.

F. B. and J. V. Cassatt of Barnett township were visitors to town last Saturday and gave the REPUBLICAN a pleasant call while here.

The play entitled "My Awful Aunt," will be given at Grange Hall, Cropp Hill, on the evening of May 8th, by home talent. All invited.

Bruce Clark has gone to Wolf Run, N. Y., where he will work as night operator for a short time. Lew Arner is working in Bruce's place at the depot here.

Another large invoice of shoes at Lawrence & Smearbaugh's. Shoes will be our specialty this summer, and we propose to sell at bottom figures. Come and see.

Mrs. M. Andrews, of Kellettville, who was the guest of Mrs. C. M. Whitman of the West Side, over Sunday, left on Monday for a week's visit with Buffalo friends.

Some of our exchanges have begun to talk about a Fourth of July celebration. Good thing. Nothing like getting into the game early and getting up a good celebration.

Ask those that use it and see if they don't say that flour called the "F. S." is the best they ever had in the house. For sale at Lanson's, $1.05 per sack.

Geo. W. Mong, of Tionesta township, accompanied by his wife, departed for Wingston, Ohio, yesterday, where he will be engaged in the oil field of that section. Good luck to you, George.

It does not seem to be generally known that New Castle has the largest tin plate mill in the world, yet that is the fact. It has 22 mills. The nearest one to it is Swansea, Wales, which has 18 mills.

When you see a fellow with a button on his coat label now-a-days, it is hard to guess whether it indicates his choice for President, the secret society he belongs to, or is a bicycle advertisement.—Franklin News.

Friends here of Miss Frances Brockway have received invitations to the commencement exercises of the Spartansburg High School, which take place to-morrow. Miss Brockway is a member of the graduating class.

Rev. C. C. Rumberger of East Brady, and Dr. O. C. Clark of Worthington, Pa., came up on the afternoon train Monday and went up to Golizna for a few days' angling and to visit Miss Mary Rumberger, the teacher of the school at that place.

The Bradford Medical Chewing Gum Co. are seeking a new location, and are ready to locate in any town which will guarantee to take $12,000 worth of the company's stock. Here's a chance for the new woman to assert her rights. Subscribe for this stock and get an industry of your own, says the Kane Republican.

An interesting letter descriptive of a lumber peddling trip on the Ohio river, came too late for this issue, but will be given in our next.

Rev. J. V. McAninch is in Indiana county assisting his friend Rev. Mr. Bell in a series of meetings. His pulpit here will be filled next Sabbath by Rev. Wm. Richards.

Miles & Armstrong have moved into the large corner store-room of Kepler block, where they are handsomely fixed for waiting on their customers. Drop in and see them.

Don't you need a new hat? If so, buy where you can buy a good hat at just a little over half the price of other dealers, at Lanson's, of course.

The Free Methodists will hold quarterly meeting services at Newmansville, Pa., beginning May 8th, 1896, and continuing over the Sabbath. Rev. D. B. Tobey, D. E., will have charge of the meeting. A cordial invitation to all. F. E. Glass, P. C.

Spring gardening has started in for sure and "green stuff" can already be seen sprouting through the ground in quite a number of gardens. If "Jack Frost" will only keep his hands off, there is no doubt but that we will have abundant and early crops.

Mrs. Annabel M. Holvey, State superintendent of press work, will lecture in the M. E. church, Friday evening, May 1st, at eight o'clock. It is to be hoped there will be a large attendance to hear this most gifted speaker, who comes under the auspices of the W. C. T. U.

"Old Glory" will be raised over the Fleming Hill, Harmony twp., school house, next Friday, May 1st. An interesting program has been arranged, and good speakers are expected to be present. A cordial invitation is extended to everyone to attend and see the grand old flag go up.

Word reaches here that the Hardeburg & Erb well, located on the top of the river hill about half a mile below Trunkville station, is showing up for a 25-barrel producer. Glad to know the pluck of these gentlemen has been thus nicely rewarded, for they deserve every success.

Saturday afternoon the body of an unknown man was found floating in the river, a short distance above East Brady. He was a man six feet tall and would weigh 190 pounds; black mustache, and was well dressed. A copy of a Pittsburg paper of March 17th was found in his pocket.

Frank Amaler is going to move this week into the store room that is to be vacated by Miles & Armstrong, but that will not prevent him from waiting on his customers, very long, so just bear in mind that in addition to the best stock of confectionery, cigars and tobacco in town he has just received a stock of fresh maple sugar and syrup.

The parlor social given by the ladies of the W. C. T. U., at the home of Mrs. A. B. Kelly, on Wednesday evening last, was a decided success in every particular. The attendance was large, the entertainment fine, and the discussion of the "woman suffrage" question very interesting indeed. All present enjoyed the evening's pleasure to the fullest extent.

The directors of Forest county will meet in convention at the court house next Tuesday afternoon to elect a County Superintendent of schools.

Up to the present time the carcass has been quiet and nothing seems to indicate that the convention will not as quietly settle the question finally. There are about eight aspirants for the place, all of whom are looked upon as entirely competent to fill it to the satisfaction of the people.

Fruit trees of all sorts are fast blooming, and appearances would indicate a good crop this season; but we had all the evidence last year, when the "frost king" played havoc with all calculations. However, the swallows and whippoorwills are already on hand, more than two weeks ahead of schedule time, and when they come there is little danger of much cold weather. So we live in hopes of a favorable season, not only for fruit, but other crops.

Considerable animation has sprung up among the residents of the north ward and a number of improvements to properties are being made, among which is the handsome new steel picket fence in front of the residence of Prothonotary Arner, and the new sidewalk in front of L. J. Hopkins' residence. The residents along Vine and May streets have nearly all connected their houses with the new sewer that was laid last summer and the town is now pretty well fixed for sewers.

That's what we said, and that's what we mean. Clothing just as nice and just as good as about two-thirds the price of other dealers, at Lanson's, of course.

The borough schools close to-day and the youngsters are happy accordingly. The term has been a very successful one in all respects, the advancements in each room having been quite marked, and the present corps of teachers has given excellent satisfaction, if we are to judge from an almost entire absence of complaint from any quarter. The directors have in contemplation the addition of another room which seems an almost absolute necessity for the next year.

The May term of court has been changed from the third to the fourth Monday, owing to the fact that the third Monday conflicts with the sitting of the Supreme Court in Erie on that date. We believe the change is intended to be a permanent one. Jurors drawn for the third Monday have been set aside, and a new list impaneled for the fourth Monday, which list appears in this issue. An argument court has been fixed for next Monday, May 4th. Those interested should take note of these changes and govern themselves accordingly.

The Military drama, "Enlisted for the War, or the Home Guard," was greeted by a very large audience, and judging from the applause, the entertainment was hugely enjoyed by all. The play was presented by home talent, and considerable time had been spent in rehearsals and every participant seemed to be thoroughly acquainted with his part, and it was probably the most successful effort ever made by our home players. No special praise can be given, for all did wonderfully well, and those who did not attend certainly missed a treat. It is a pity we have no opera house, for with a good stage and scenery, we have the talent to produce some very good entertainments. There is talk of reproducing the play at Hickory in the near future.

F. A. Beatty, passenger agent for the N. Y., P. & O. railroad at Oil City, and who for several years has been located here, never lost the opportunity to make a friend for his road or himself, or lost the friend after having made him, has had his talents and ability signally recognized by promotion to the responsible position of traveling passenger agent for the Erie, with headquarters in Youngstown, O. With hearty congratulations of the entire community upon his rapid rise in his profession, there is mingled the regret that this promotion will cause Mr. Beatty and his family to remove permanently from Oil City.—Derriek.

Very many friends in this section, who have had occasion to do business with the Erie through Mr. Beatty, will join in the general regret at his departure, and will extend best wishes for his future success and continued promotion.

Geo. Raab offers his neat residence, on Vine St. for sale at a reasonable figure; nice garden lot and everything comfortably for a pleasant home. Also his very desirable business stand, at the corner of Bridge and Elm Sts. This is one of the best business locations in town, and those who have occupied it have all ways enjoyed a large public patronage on account of the location. For prices and terms address Geo. Raab, Oil City, Pa.

County Newslets.

Joe Wuerzga, on Whig Hill, who has been sick for a long time, is very low at present.

A son of Warren Jones, living at Newtown Mills, on Saturday morning last caught the large trout of the season, in Tionesta creek below the dam there. It was 44 inches long, and its weight was put at 14 pounds, but of course there are people who will discount the latter figure mostly because they didn't catch it.

Mrs. Burns of East Hickory was taken to Buffalo on Monday for medical treatment there.

The scholars and teacher of the Fleming Hill school, assisted by the citizens and a detachment of Ell Berlin Post, and aided by speakers, among whom are the Catholic minister of Tidoute and the Methodist minister of the Hickory charge, will, on Friday, this week, at 12 o'clock, haul up to its proper place on a pole already raised, and fling to the breeze, an American flag.

The Ministerial and Layman's annual meeting of the Franklin District of the M. E. Church met at West Hickory on Monday evening and continued over Tuesday, closing Tuesday evening. The following program was carried out with slight modifications: A. C. Ellis, of Oil City, Trinity M. E. Church, preached on Monday evening, Rev. Frampton not being able to be present. The following ministers were present: C. O. Mead, P. E., J. C. McDonald of So. Oil City; W. W. Dale, Bonesta; David Taylor, Tidoute; W. J. Barin, Polk; H. A. Tebb, Rouse; W. L. S. Torrey, East Clair; J. H. Miller, Franklin; C. W. Miner, Titusville; J. E. Hillard, East Hickory; A. E. Bishop, Randolph, N. Y.

After preaching service Monday evening the Communion of the Lord's Supper was administered. Some laymen and other visitors were present.

The meeting is so near the northern limit of the district this year that it was difficult for many of the preachers to attend. Some, too, are arranging to attend the General Conference at Cleveland next month and could not attend in consequence.

Rev. McDonald's wife and son accompanied him to the meeting. Rev. Dale's wife was present with him.

The questions discussed were live and important ones, and discussions were animated.

Mr. G. W. Warlen attended the Clarion Presbytery last week.

Herbert Taft, whose ankle was fractured some time ago, is getting along nicely.

Arthur Lynch is the happy possessor of a new Crescent bicycle.

Prayer meetings at Endeavor Hall every Tuesday evening are well attended.

The topic, "Faith, Hope and Charity," for the last three meetings, have been very interesting.

Several of our young ladies returning on a speaker from the west side Sunday ran into an open sewer, causing a panic for a short time, but they soon recovered and returned in safety.

Mrs. S. J. Lynch's school closed last week.

Anna, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stacey Rostler, died Monday, April 29, 1896, after a short illness, aged about 19 years. Funeral services were held the 21st, conducted by Rev. Mr. Marks, of Tidoute, assisted by Rev. J. E. Hillard, of East Hickory.

She will not return, but to her thou shalt go. When days are numbered and finished below.

And it may be thy angel child be given First to meet and to welcome her parents And then reunited to part never more. One song shall ye sing and one Savior adore.

Double Tragedy in Crawford County.

Meadville and Crawford county are shuddering over the horror of a murder and suicide. About 11:15 o'clock Thursday afternoon Edward Karleskind, aged 40 years, killed his wife, aged 25, by shooting her three times in the head with a revolver, and then killed himself by cutting his throat with a razor.

The tragedy occurred in their neat and pretty home in Vermont tp., two miles west of Meadville. Karleskind and his wife were market gardeners, and both were good managers and thrifty. Her maiden name was Katie Iloha. She was Karleskind's third wife. He had three children by his second marriage and two by the woman whom he killed. These two little ones, a boy aged six and girl aged three, were witnesses to the awful deeds which orphaned them.

The neighbors say the husband and wife did not get along well together. Twice she left him and went to her father's, but was coaxed back. Yesterday she put on her best clothes, probably intending to return to her father. The little boy says: "Papa didn't want her to go, and kept saying 'you must stay at home.'" Karleskind, although regarded as a good citizen, was subject to violent outbursts of temper. It is supposed that, seeing his wife determined on leaving, he followed her into the bedroom and killed her. He then went to a cupboard, got a razor, came back and knelted by the side of his victim, and killed himself.

NEWSY NOTES.

The Cochran Times likens the wild-catter to the fellow who is drawing to a 4-flush—you always expect to get it the next time.

A warning to the rope jumpers is found in the sad case of Gertrude Crowley, of Clarendon, who lies in a critical condition, her brain having been affected by excessive jumping.

Judge Beaver, of the Superior Court, handed down an opinion on Tuesday, deciding the width of a road should be fixed by the Quarter Sessions Court, and not by the viewers.

The Raftman's Journal says: "A Clearfield girl wrote and sent the usual quarter to find out how to whitener her hands, and the answer came back: 'Soak them in dish water.' It tickled her mother more than if she had gotten a new bicycle."

All the peach-growing States report a favorable outlook for the crop, the trees coming out of the winter in good condition and loaded with buds. Below are expected the largest peach harvest since 1875, and Georgia is confident that it will have an immense crop to market.

Twenty farmers took the tails of 9,771 ground squirrels to the commissioners of the State of Pennsylvania, one day recently to collect the bounty of one cent per tail. One man had 1,334 squirrel tails, and another 1,028. All the squirrels were killed in one district, when they are so thick as to almost make the farmers despair of making any profit by their crops.

Western papers have recently been publishing astonishing accounts of a mineral spring discovered in Colorado. Every woman who drinks of the pink water, that flows from the spring, is said to become dumb for a period of time extending from three to six months. Wives who may be importuned by their husbands to take a trip to Colorado should make a note of this, and act accordingly.—Bizzaz.

A BOOK TO BUY.—WEBSTER'S INTERNATIONAL DICTIONARY. This new book is the authentic, copyrighted "Unabridged" thoroughly revised and enlarged upon the compilation of Noah Porter, D. D., LL. D., of Yale University. Editorial work on the revision has been in active progress for over ten years, and more than a hundred paid literary workers have been engaged upon it. The sum expended in its preparation before the first copy was printed exceeded $500,000. This work will well repay its cost, and will be of more value to the members thereof than many times its cost laid up in money.

It was shown in our dispatches yesterday, that, after all the opposition to admitting the general sentiment as to no longer existing from their counsels a class of members who make up much more than half the membership, and who also do not believe in the working and paying.—Franklin News.

Fred Raab, the German youth who attempted to murder and rob Mrs. Pierce, an Indian woman living at Wolf Run, on the river bridge of the W. N. Y. & P. railway, on Friday night, is still at large. Raab, who is about 19 years old, broke into the house; Mrs. Pierce was in bed and almost dead from her cruel treatment. She screamed and Raab grabbed her tongue, trying apparently to tear it from the roots. He then choked her into insensibility, and while she was in this condition he snatched her mouth full of rags. He then pounded her about the head with his fists. Her assailant was frightened away by neighbors, who found her and took her to a nearby house. She is now recovering from her cruel treatment, and the positively identified Raab as her assailant yesterday, and gave the further information that he ran away before she was able to secure any money. Her hearing was to induce her to reveal the hiding place of money she was supposed to have in the house.—Derriek.
