the choicest of wild flowers is in full bloom.

—The flour that beats the world is called "F. S." $1.05 per sack at Lanson's. 1t.

—Miss Maude Campbell is visiting her sister, Mrs. H. G. McKnight at Oil City. 1t.

—A splendid line of ladies' underwear just received at Lawrence & Smearbaugh's. 1t

—Mrs. A. Carson returned yesterday from a week's visit with her sister in Oil City. 1t

—Miss Emily Woodburn of Franklin, is the guest of her cousin, Miss Artie Robinson. 1t

—Miss Clara Gorman, of Oil City, is visiting her grandmother, Mrs.
Peters, at the Forest Hotel. 1t —The price at Lanson's is just about two-thirds the price of the rest of the clothiers and carpet men. 1t —Chas. S. Leech was down from Marienville Monday on business, and gave the REPUBLICAN a call while here. 1t

—Harry McIntosh has gone to New Castle to work for the telephone company which is putting the line into this place. 1t

—The finest materials for shirt waists to be had in town. Don't forget and come in and see. Lawrence & Smearbaugh. 1t

—Now we think we can fit most any kind of a foot, from a Dawson Run oil producer to the Red Brush tie buyer. Lanson's. 1t.

—The Ridgway Democrat is now publishing an evening daily, which is neat and newsy. Success to the enterprising publishers. 1t —The descendants of the late David Bowman will hold a family re-union at the old homestead near Tylers-burg, on July 4th next. 1t

—S. D. Irwin, artist, and S. H.
Haelot and Chas. Clark, viewers, are engaged this week in laying out two new roads in Jenks township. 1t —That's so. Cotton goods have taken a tumble. Indigo blues and golden red prints are the same old chestnut—5 cents a yard at Lanson's. 1t the Prohibition State Committee, will lecture on temperance at the court house, Tionesta, on Tuesday evening, May 19th, next. 1t

—Memorial Day, May 30th, occurs on Saturday this year. The different Posts of the county are making ample preparations to fittingly observe the day. 1t —Geo. King's meat market at West Hickory was broken into last Thursday night, but nothing of value was taken. It is evident that it was the work of tramps. 1t

—The hard-shell potato bug is early on hand ready for business as soon as the tubers begin to sprout. There is nothing slow about the potato bug but the decline of his race. 1t —The Derrick of Friday says: During a family row at Dunn's Eddy, near Warren on Thursday, Henry Barber shot his brother Worth in the leg with a charge of shot. 1t —Scowden & Clark have a number of second hand buggies and wagons, newly refitted, which they offer at bargains to those who may be looking for something of the kind. Call and see. 2t

—The finest line of shoes to be seen in this market is at Lawrence & Smearbaugh's. We're making a specialty of shoes, and we've got them marked down to the lowest figure. 1t —Landlord Agnew offers his livery, consisting of a number of good horses and excellent "turnouts," for sale at a bargain. Call on him and see what he has to offer. Hotel Agnew, Tionesta, Pa. 1t

—The Saturday Review is a new paper published at Titusville, by Joseph L. Barbeau, the first number of which is before us. It is a neatly printed sheet and appears as though it might be a stayer. 1t

—C. M. Shawkey has gone to Cincinnati, and his family will follow soon. Many friends in this section will wish "Cor't" good luck in his new home.—Warren Mail. Ditto down to the registration charge of $50.

This ruling has just been made by the State Medical Council.—Ez.

—Jenks Lodge J. O. O. F. has had a life size picture of Col. John F.
Gaul hung in the large room. Past Grand Gaul was the oldest member of Jenks Lodge, and also the first member to die.—Marienville Express.

—Dr. Will G. Morrow, who graduated with conspicuous honors from the Baltimore Medical college recently, is home and expects to locate in Tionesta, associating himself with his father in the practice of his profession.

—Compliments of the season to Editor Shick of the Marienville Express, Democratic nominee for Assembly. Good men are in demand these times, and must be had even if necessary to invade the editorial sanctum-sanctorum to get them. Shake up.—

—Stow Post, G. A. R., will carry a handsome new flag in the memorial day ceremonies this year, having purchased a beautiful new silk regulation flag a short time ago. The Post has also a new hunting flag which will be out on that day for the first time.

—Prof. R. B. Teitrick, a former Forest county teacher, was elected Supt. of Schools of Jefferson county, years engaged in the oil fields of Indiana, has returned to Tionesta with his family, and will have charge of his father's lease, the McNutt farm, in Harmony township, which is doing very nicely since Mr. Canfield purchased it.

—We had a very pleasant call from our old friend Uncle John Kinnear of Trunkville, on Monday of this week. He holds his age remarkably well, and for one who cast his first vote for "Tippecanoe" Harrison, he is a very active man both in mind and body.

—Twenty-two cans of pike, each containing 2,500 fish, arrived in the city this morning from the State Hatchery at Corry. Eight cans were taken to Rockwood and fourteen to Henry's bend, at which points the midgets were deposited in the Allegheny river.—Bizzard.

—The Prohibition State convention met in Philadelphia last week and placed in nomination for Congress at-large J. S. Kent of Delaware county, and A. A. Baker of Cambria county.
Rev. J. T. Brennan of Tionesta was made a delegate from this district to the National convention, to be held in Pittsburgh.

—A. F. Tuttle's big 25-cent Olympic shows will exhibit in Tionesta next Saturday, May 16, afternoon and evening. This show carries a large tent and is capable of accommodating all its patrons with good seats. Price of admission 25 cents, reserved seats 35c., children 15c.
Don't forget the date, rain or shine.

—Very serious forest fires have been raging in Clearfield, Elk, Jefferson and McKean counties during the past few days, destroying much standing timber, manufactured lumber, and several extensive lumber plants, besides doing immense damage to oil property. We have heard of no serious fires in this county thus far, and it is hoped a few days more will so start the vendure as to prevent fires this year.

—D. W. Clark was home over Sunday from Portville, N. Y., where he is superintending the construction of an extensive system of water works. He took with him on his return Monday, Patrick Joyce and his young son Joe, who will be engaged in laying the tiling for the supply line, the water being run to the reservoir by gravity. With Web and Pat in charge the job will be a complete one.

—The managers of the Tionesta school library have arranged with Miss Minnie Mae Wann for and elocutionary recital, at School Hall, next Friday evening, May 15.
The proceeds to be devoted to the library fund. Miss Wann is no stranger to Tionesta audiences, having entertained our people at the last teachers' institute held here, when she acquitted herself to the delight of all. A good turnout is hoped for. Admission 15 and 20 cents.

—The petition for a Presbyterian church at Stowtown was granted by the Clarion Presbytery, which met at Falls Creek last month, and a committee consisting of Revs. S. A. Cornelius of Oil City, and J. V. McAn-line of Tionesta, and elders George Parker of Oil City, and A. B. Kelly of Tionesta, was appointed to affect the organization. The committee has arranged to go to Stowtown on next Tuesday evening, May 19, and organize the church. The sermon will be preached by Rev. Cornelius.

—The Clarion Rep.-Gazette of last week gives a list of all the students
