It is rumored that Andrew Carnegie intends to purchase the old iron works at Brady's Bend, Armstrong county, and put the same in operation.

The man who goes fishing and sits in a cramped position on a narrow thwart from early morn 'till dewy eve and calls it fun is the same chap that never goes to church because the pew ain't comfortable.

A somnolent philosopher once said: "He that thinks innocent pastime foolish has either to grow wise, or is past the ability to do so; and I have always counted it an impudent fiction that playfulness is inconsistent with greatness." Many men and women have died of dignity."

An apocryphal story of the funeral of George Brougher of York by his son-in-law, Oscar Blazzer. The latter insisted that he could not be happy until he had shot a few bullets into the corpse. Quiet remonstrances were of no avail, and when Blazzer brandished his weapon and declared he would shoot the dead man, the excitement among the people present became intense.

Friday of last week John Adams, of near Greendale, shot his son-in-law, Peter Cravener, in the leg. A warrant has been sworn out and Mr. Adams is now in jail awaiting trial at the coming term of court. It appears that Cravener and his wife had some difficulty and the latter had left him and went to her father's. Cravener went to Adams' and asked for his wife, and she not being there began to abuse old man Adams, who in order to protect himself, shot his son-in-law, but claims that he took care not to wound him in any of the vital parts. Cravener is lying at his father-in-law's house, and it is not thought that his injuries will prove fatal.—Kittanning Press.

Teachers' examinations for 1896 will be held as follows: Brookston July 7. Marienville July 9. Clarington July 10. Tionesta July 13. Neiltown July 15. Hickory July 16. Kelletville July 17. Nebraska July 18.

Special examination, Tionesta, Aug. 25. Upon entering the class the applicant will hand to the superintendent a stamped self-addressed envelope, containing a specimen of penmanship.

All written work must be done with fountain pen and ink, 8x10 letter paper preferred. Work will begin promptly at 9 o'clock. All friends of education, and especially directors, are invited to attend.

E. E. STITZINGER, Co. Supt.

The steady decline in the market price of crude oil is not a pleasant feature for producers. Several reasons for the slump are assigned. One of these is, the pipe line receipts have for some time exceeded the deliveries by an average of over 10,000 barrels a day.

The Derrick of last Wednesday thus speaks of the Morgan-Gayetty wedding, the groom being a former Tionesta boy: "A beautiful home wedding took place at the home of Captain J. M. Gayetty, of Hone avenue, at 8 o'clock, Tuesday night, when his only daughter, Miss Maude I. Gayetty, and Charles C. Morgan, a popular young printer, were united in marriage.

At the close of our report last week the trial of David Mintz, charged with forgery by O. R. McClellan, was on. The jury retired at the close of the trial and in a short time brought in a verdict of "not guilty and county to pay the costs." The civil list was then taken up, and the case of H. L. Hopper vs. W. H. Eggy tried, resulting in a verdict for the defendant.

NEWSY NOTES.

MEMORIAL DAY EXERCISES.

Memorial day was never more appropriately honored in Tionesta than on last Saturday. In the morning a goodly number of the comrades of Stow Post drove to the three cemeteries on German Hill to pay the tribute of love to deceased comrades there buried, holding a short service at Mt. Zion church-yard, where they were addressed briefly by Amos F. Ledebur, and returning at noon in time to partake of the elegant lunch provided by the ladies of the Relief Corps.
