that the long drouth this spring has about ruined the hay crop, and it will not be as large as last year, which was unusually light.

men's suffrage question.

The Brookville Republican, one among the staunchest of the country

Hardenburg & Erb's latest well day of this week.

The following item from the Em-with sadness by the many friends of the lady mentioned: Mrs. George Weller, who has been sick from consumption for several weeks past is slowly growing weaker being now unable to leave her bed.

This is from an exchange: An optician man heard a noise at his office door, and thinking that it was some one peeping through the keyhole he injected a little pepper sauce into it. When he went home his wife told him she had been cutting wood, the price is going up.

Dr. Will G. Morrow is in Harrington this week attending the examinations of the State Board of Medical Examiners. That he will pass the difficult ordeal goes without saying, since he got fourth honorable mention in a class of 135 graduates at the Baltimore Medical College only a few weeks ago.

Children's Day was very pleasingly observed at the Presbyterian church last Sabbath morning. The attendance was large, and the exercises by the young folks, under the direction of Mr. T. F. Ritchey, were very pretty indeed. The great profusion of flowers was one of the pleasing features of the occasion.

At the recent meeting held here office building on his newly acquired corner lot, on Elm and Bridge streets.

It is to be 16x38 feet, with three well furnished rooms, and will be very desirably located for business offices, one of which Mr. Brennan will oc-guests of Judge Hill's family during the past week. They lived here 26 years ago, when Rev. Keeler was Pastor of the Tionesta M. E. Church, and this was their first visit to old friends since that time. Naturally they found many changes had taken place.

The second annual reunion of the Siggins family, mention of which has already been made in these columns, takes place at Brokenstraw island park, Irvineton, one week from today, 24th. It is believed that upward of 500 representatives of the family will be present, coming from all sections of the Union, Canada and Mexico. If the day is fair it will doubtless be a great occasion.

The REPUBLICAN acknowledges a pleasant call from Lewis J. Kirk Esq., and Hon. Milton Heidelbaugh, of Lancaster county, last Thursday, and the editor is sorry that necessity compelled him to go out bustling for trout the day previous and he failed to meet these friends. Mr. Kirk is one of our oldest subscribers and has many friends in Forest county, who are always pleased to meet him. Mr.
Heidelbaugh was one of the conservative, level-headed members of the last session of the legislature, and we are pleased to note the good sense of his constituents in placing him in nomination again this year. Both gentlemen have landed interests in this county and were here looking after the same.

The many friends and business acquaintances in this section of Mr.
H. J. Hopkins, of Pleasantville, will be surprised to learn that his bank has been compelled to temporarily suspend payments, which fact became first known on Monday morning of this week, when a notice was posted on the door of the bank at that place to the effect that payment had been temporarily suspended, but that, if given time, the bank would pay its indebtedness, dollar for dollar. Just what amount is involved in the suspension is not known, but it is believed Mr. Hopkins' assets will far exceed his liabilities, and as soon as he can realize upon these assets he can meet every dollar of indebtedness and have many thousand over.
He has some very rich oil property in the southwest field, as well as large blocks of real estate in Chicago and Buffalo. It is hoped the suspension may last but a short time.

Wedding Bells.
A very happy event occurred at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Griffin of Balltown, on Wednesday, June 10, 1896, it being the marriage of their daughter, Gertrude Graham, and Lynwood J. Catlin of Kelleysville.
At 12:30, the bridal party entered the parlor, and stood amid a foliage of laurel, ferns and roses, while the ceremony was performed in a very impressive manner by the Rev.
J. V. McAninch, of Tionesta. An eloquent prayer followed the ceremony.
The Lohengrin Wedding March by Wagner, was very artistically rendered by Miss Dickinson, a cousin of the bride. Misses Nellie Griffin and Ada Berry acted as flower girls. The young couple received many costly and useful presents. Mr. and Mrs.
Catlin left about 5 o'clock, amid showers of rice, old shoes and good wishes, for a trip through Western Pennsylvania, Virginia and West Virginia.

The bride is one of Forest county's most popular and accomplished young ladies, and Mr. Catlin has the reputation of being a noble young man, and has a host of friends who wish them joy in the life they have so favorably begun. A GUEST.

A Brutal Crime.
A most brutal murder was committed in Allegheny City last Saturday afternoon, the particulars of which are given in a dispatch dated June 13. The little victim will be remembered by a number of our citizens when, as a little child, he was here with his parents about ten years ago. Following is the dispatch: Jimmie, the 13-year-old son of Will J. McConnell, the temperance lecturer, was brutally murdered this afternoon by his uncle, William J. Richter. The boy was amusing Richter's two little daughters by playing "house" with them in the yard, in the rear of Richter's residence, in lower Allegheny, when the murderer came up to them. He spoke pleasantly to Jimmie, and then sent the little girls to the store for ginger snaps. When the girls returned to share the cakes with their cousin they were horrified to find him lying on the floor of the play house with two great holes in his head. The boy lived but a few hours.
Richter had taken a hatchet and buried the blunt end in his nephew's head twice, fracturing the skull in a horrible manner. After committing the deed the murderer escaped and has not yet been captured. Richter at one time was confined in an insane asylum, and previous to to-day had made two attempts to commit murder.
He was doubtless under the influence of the murder frenzy this afternoon.
The murderer was still at large on Monday, and though the entire detective force of the city was on his trail, he has thus far succeeded in keeping his hiding place a secret.
The parents of the murdered boy live in Cleveland, and had lately gone to Allegheny to attend the funeral of Mr. McConnell's mother.

Meeting of Agricultural Committees.
The County Board of Farmers' Institute Managers met at the Court House, June 9th, as per call of Chairman. The time of dates selected for the Annual Institute for 1897 is as follows: March 4th and 5th, first choice; March 10th and 11th, second choice. These dates are subject to change by the Board of Managers of the State Agricultural Society. PETER YOUNG, Chmn.

Also, the Committee on By-Laws convened at the same time and place and formulated by-laws for the Forest County Agricultural Society, which will be submitted to the society at its regular meeting in August, for the action of the society. By the Committee,
J. ALBAUGH, Chairman.

Grange Anniversary.
Agreeable to the notice given in the last issue of this paper the grangers and their friends began to assemble in Forest Grange Hall, at an early hour Saturday forenoon, to celebrate the 8th anniversary of the life of this particular link in a chain of farmers' societies that bind the North and South from the Atlantic to the Pacific in one great grange family.
There is an old saying that the "oasiest way" to a man's heart is through his stomach, and so the celebration took the form of a good, old-fashioned grange picnic.
As soon as the young people commenced gathering in, a swing was put up and other preparations made for an out-door festival. A slight shower, however, compelled our good matrons to spread the festal board within the hall, where we, after doing credit to the feast, and injustice to our stomachs, settled down contentedly to enjoy whatever of a mental feast might be in store for us. After the singing of several glees the assembly was called to order by C. A. Henry, lecturer of Forest Grange, and after the singing of an appropriate ode, and a few preliminary remarks by the chairman, Brother Wheelock, Past Master of Limestone Grange, Warren Co., was introduced, who in a very able manner showed us how the grange could and was helping them to improve their condition as tillers of the soil. Brother Wheelock is an earnest supporter of the grange and its work and it gave us great pleasure to listen to his talk. We are sorry that he does not live as close to us as we do to him, for if he did we could have the pleasure of hearing him talk much oftener. After the singing of another selection by the choir, W. E. Hill of West-ford, Pa., lecturer of State Grange, was introduced, who in a very interesting and instructive discourse explained the grange-work in general, and its educational features in particular. He explained to us how the grange was the best school extant for the development of a high order of citizenship in a farming community. Education is the chief end and purpose of the order and the good work goes steadily on. About twenty-seven thousand organized granges have already been organized, every one of which is a school for the farmer and his family. Isolation, distrust, superstition, prejudice and ignorance are giving place to social enjoyment and culture, confidence, well grounded faith, liberality, charity and intelligence. The grange has been in existence longer than any other farmers' organization, and has proved its claims. It has outlived the period of ridicule, distrust and fierce opposition, and as a farmers' organization it is stronger to-day than at any previous time in its history of more than a quarter of a century.

This interesting lecture was followed by song, after which the assemblage repaired to their respective homes to get their evening meal, do the chores, etc.
But by 8 o'clock many of the same families were again seen at the hall, and many others came and we had a treat in the lecture given by Brother Hill. He spoke almost entirely on the grange's power in legislation, discrimination, taxation, appropriation and representation. He told us that the grange could claim but one representative 7 years ago in the House of Representatives against 65 this current year. He showed how the farmers who were selfishly keeping aloof from the grange, were daily reaping a share of the grange's accomplishments. How the grange had unbeknown to those outside brought to them, as well as grangers, great benefits. How in all this good work the grange was non-partisan.

We are very grateful to Brother Hill for his kindness in coming so far to be with us, and instruct us, and we hope the good seed sown may bring forth much fruit.
Long live the Grange! A PATRON.

Kelleysville.

Ad. Bauer is suffering with a severe attack of measles. At last accounts he was quite bad. The rest of his family are also suffering with a mild attack.

Mr. H. Mable of Fryburg is visiting relatives in town for a few days.
S. E. Shaw, who is employed at Lamo-naville, Pa., came home Saturday. Sherd is engaged in the oil field at that place.
Joseph Wuerzga Sr., is digging a water well for the Penn Tanning Co.

L. J. Catlin and wife passed through town Saturday on their way to Balltown.
A. M. Hunter and others intend going to the Free Methodist camp meeting at Marienville next Saturday, returning home on Monday.

The Salmon Creek mill will shut down the latter part of this week for a short time, until a new stock of logs can be driven down. The company has two new dams to build before they can drive logs.

The bark men are hustling off the bark in good shape.
The rise in the creek last week allowed Osgood Bros to run 10 rafts, all they had at Newtown. One of the rafts was stranded at Bear Creek, while the others all reached the mouth with little or no mishap, barring the little incident that befell "Pop's" raft. It is seldom one finds the creek blockaded with a pontoon bridge.
We do not object to this so much as we
