stock. Now is your time to buy. Call on or address Amos F. Ledebur, Starr, Pa.

—Rev. J. V. McAninch is spending this week at Chautauqua, but will be here to conduct regular services next Sabbath.

—Miss Wilda Hosack of Pardo, Pa., has been visiting her sisters, Mrs. T. E.
Armstrong and Mrs. F. W. Infield for a few days past.

—Harry Lovell of Starr supplied the Republican office with an abundance of fine eating apples, for which he has the thanks of the boys.

—The senior member of the firm of Miles & Armstrong is now away, down in Lawrence county. So are our prices, "away down" below anything heard of.

—The Junior League will give a ten cent social, and will serve ice cream and cake, Friday evening, Aug. 7, at the residence of J. C. Scowden. All are invited to attend.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Amsler desire to extend thanks to their friends for the many kindnesses shown them during the illness and death of their infant daughter.

—When you want something fresh and palatable in the fruit or vegetable line, go where the stock is brought in daily and kept in good condition. Amsler's is the place.

—Mrs. R. S. Jamieson and daughter, of Spencerville, Ohio, are visiting her sister, Mrs. F. Wenk, of German Hill. Mrs.
Wenk's niece, Miss Florence Sanner, of Bradford, Pa., is visiting her also, for the summer.

—Misses Cora and Georgiana Watson accompanied their father home from Chautauqua last week but will return in a few days. Miss Dayne Parsons, of Youngstown, Ohio, is visiting her school friend, Verma Watson, at Chautauqua.

—Squire Mervin, who lives on his farm near East Hickory, has been quite ill for a week past. His physician expects to have him on his feet again soon.
His illness is a complication of stomach and bowel trouble, brought on, no doubt, by over exertion in the hot sun.

—Mrs. Bridget Duffy, mother of Mrs.
Patrick Joyce, whose death at the home of her daughter in this place, occurred on the 24th ult., was buried at Sharon, Pa., her former home. She was the widow of the late Patrick Duffy. Her age was 86 years, and during the past year had made her home here with her daughter's family, where she was tenderly cared for during her illness. Two daughters, Mrs. Joyce of Tionesta, and Mrs. Mary Kearney, of Sharon, survive her.

—Col. and Mrs. C. W. Amsler were down from Marienville a few days last week, and during their stay were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. S. Kirchartz. The Colonel was keeping tab on a well in which he is interested and which was brought in Saturday on Dawson Run.
It will make a fair pumper we understand.

—John Wilson has taken the agency for "Shepp's New York City Illustrated," a fine work of art, and is canvassing this section. Mr. Wilson is deserving of your support, he having met with an accident this spring which so disabled him that he has not done a day's work since, and he takes this means of making something for the support of his family.

—Bucknell University, John Howard Harris, LL.D., President. College with four courses of study leading to degrees; Academy for boys and young men; Ladies' Institute; and School of Music.
Thirty acre campus; ten buildings including gymnasium, laboratory and observatory. For catalogue and other information address Wm. C. Gretzinger, Registrar, Lewisburg, Pa.

—According to the Derrick's report, in the Pennsylvania or Eastern oil field, during July, 738 wells were completed, yielding a new production of 30,361 bbls.; a decrease, as compared with June, of 37 wells and 1,330 bbls. production. There are 840 wells now drilling and 981 rigs up. But for the prolific pool opened north of Wildwood, the decrease in production would be much more.

—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nicholson were over from Oil City a few days of the past week as the guests of Mr. and Mrs.
W. W. Grove. Mr. Nicholson is the popular candidate of the Republicans of Venango county for Treasurer, and it is a pleasure to know that he is receiving the hearty support of a united party, besides others recognizing his fitness and claim to the position are rallying to his standard.

—The members of old Co. G., 83d Reg't Pa. Vols., the "Tionesta Rangers," will hold their second annual reunion at Tionesta, Pa., on Wednesday, Aug. 26, 1896. Invitations have been forwarded to all living at a distance, and it is expected there will be another good turnout of the "old boys." Ample provisions will be made for the entertainment of all visiting members of the old company, and the committee hope that all may be present.

—A jolly outing party arrived from Beaver Falls on Monday, and will pitch their tents on the banks of the Allegheny river, three miles above Tionesta where they expect to remain and find healthy recreation for the next two weeks. They are, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Sterling and son, Mr. and Mrs. Ed.
Young and son, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Griffith and son, Dr. and Mrs. Wm. Rayner and son, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hill, and Mrs. Townsend and daughter, Miss Helen.

—Col. H. C. Demming, an experienced entomologist, of Harrisburg, has discovered a preparation which kills the army worm in ten seconds. It is composed of the metal calcium dissolved in one pound of nitric acid, which has previously been diluted in five quarts of water; then add five quarts of water and mix thoroughly. Use ordinary sprayer or atomizer. This preparation should be made in a stone-ware vessel, but when ready for use can be put in other receptacles.

—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Amsler are called upon to mourn the death of their infant daughter, aged five months and three days. The child was ill but three days, having been attacked with cholera infantum on Friday and on Sunday night at 11 o'clock death relieved it of its sufferings. The funeral was held on Monday evening at four o'clock the remains being laid to rest in the beautiful "Riverside." The stricken parents have the tender sympathy of the community in the loss of their sweet little babe and only child.

—A gentleman by the name of John W. Hall, of Dublin, has figured out that the end of the world will come next January. He cannot tell exactly what day, but it will be some time during that month. There is really no more satisfaction in predicting the end of the world.
It is a thankless business, for this reason: If you hit it, and the world really does go to smash, your reputation as a prophet does you no good, for you are no longer in shape to enjoy it. If you miss it, your reputation as a prophet is ruined.—Punchy Spirit.

—Efforts are being made to induce the post office department at Washington to establish a daily mail route between Tionesta and Marienville, via Nebraska.
Such a route would be of inestimable convenience to people of both towns and the present system are very poorly served in the matter of mail facilities. A petition at Mr. Ritchey's office has already been numerously signed, and all our citizens are requested to attach their signatures to the same. We have heard of none but that are heartily in favor of the route.

—Our people generally will regret very much the departure from our midst of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Infield, who go to Dushore, Sullivan county, Pa., to take up their future abode. Mr. Infield, who has for nearly ten years been employed in Mr. L. Fulton's harness and saddlery establishment, has purchased a shop at the above place and goes there to take personal charge. The people of Dushore and vicinity will find him a splendid mechanic, attentive to business, and in every respect a thorough gentleman.
THE REPUBLICAN joins their large circle of friends in Forest county in best wishes for their future welfare and happiness.

—Eliel, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs.
John Snyder, died on Friday last, of blood poison, aged 1 year, 3 months and 11 days. The little sufferer was ill but ten days, during which time all that human agency could do was done for the alleviation of her sufferings. She was a bright little girl, and the pet of the household. Funeral services were held at the house on Saturday afternoon, the interment taking place in Riverside Cemetery. The bereaved parents have the sincere sympathy of all in their hour of sorrow and grief. In this connection they wish to express their heartfelt thanks to their neighbors and friends for the aid and comfort bestowed upon them during the illness of their dear babe.

—The petition asking the railroad officials for a forenoon train south on the River Division, and a later one north, carrying passengers, is being signed by all our people, who greatly feel the need of this service, and who would be pleased to have such accommodations as would enable them to get to Oil City earlier, and give them more time to transact business while in the city. It is hoped the officials will see the need of such service and will give it. It would be a great accommodation to the people all along the line, and there is scarcely any doubt but that it will prove a paying investment for the railroad company.

—Michael Mansfield was instantly killed by lightning on Wednesday afternoon last, about three o'clock, at Trunkeville, in the county. The Tidoute News says: "He was at work in the field and a storm coming up he took refuge under a tree, and it was while standing there that he received the fatal bolt. His hair was singed, his face and body blackened and one shoe was torn from his foot.
He was found in a short time and a younger brother came to Tidoute to inform his father who was in town on business. Michael was the oldest son of Patrick Mansfield, was for many years a resident of Tidoute, his father being second boss on the railroad until a few years ago when he bought the farm at Trunkeville and removed thither. The young man was about twenty-nine years of age, and was a steady industrious hard-worker, well liked and respected. The funeral services were held on Friday morning last at 10 o'clock from St. John's Catholic Church, Tidoute.

—The threatening weather kept a larger crowd from attending the sporting events at Rialto Park last Thursday, yet a fair attendance was had, and the grounds were in fair condition though the track was rather too spongy for getting great speed out of the horses that were entered.
The ball game between Tidoute and Tionesta was about as nice a one as has been played on the grounds for some years, resulting in a score of 8 to 5 in Tionesta's favor. Tidoute had the lead up to the 6th inning, when a little bad work on their part and a little effective batting on the part of the home team gave the latter the lead which it kept till the end.

—The speeding events were begun at two o'clock in the afternoon, the first being a mile bicycle novice race, handicap, resulting as follows:
Ray Birtell, 60 yards, 1st. Time 2:46.
Will Hunter, scratch 2d.
Ed. Bumgardner 60 yards, 3d.
Coly Walters 50 yards, 4th.
This race proved a very pretty race with a close finish between the first and second riders. The second event was a one mile open bicycle race which resulted as follows:
F. A. Keller 1st. Time 2:48.
Clark Morgan 2d.
—Lotzenheiser 3d.
C. J. Cannan 4th.

—The 500 yard race was very exciting, there being less than two feet difference between Keller and Morgan as they passed under the wire.
The five mile bicycle race resulted, Clark Morgan 1st. Time 15:07. C. J.
Cannan 2d, time 15:14. Lotzenheiser drops out.

—The 100 yard foot race was easily won by Thos. Abernathy, James Moran 2d.
The quarter mile foot race was also won by Abernathy in .57, with Skid Jacobs 2d and James Moran 3d.

—The special horse race was won by W.
A. Kribbs' Maud, in two heats. Time 3:39, 3:40. Geo. Copeland's Colt 2d.
The 3 minute race was won by John Church's horse in two heats. Time 3:12 and 3:28. James Haslet's Tansey 2d.

—The events closed with an exhibition foot race between Connors of Oil City and Will Hunter by bicycle, the latter to go so one mile while the former goes a half mile. Won by Connors in 2:14. Mr.
McGregory also gave a mile exhibition race, making the distance in 5:04.

—W. B. Dutton of Pleasantville very ac-ceptably acted as starter in all the events.
The association offered a prize of $10 for any horse beating 2:40, or $20 for beating 2:35. Mr. Canfield's Belzora Wilkes made one heat in 2:40, and in attempting to better it the horse injured himself quite badly by striking his fore leg, which will lay him up for some time.
Messrs. A. L. Weller of Kellestville, and P. C. Hill of Tionesta, each gave the audience an exhibition, the former's horse making the mile in 3:02, and the latter in 3:09. The track conditions were not favorable for speeding horses.

—West Hickory.
Mrs. J. C. Moulton visited to Erie last Saturday to meet her mother.
Jacob Bender is building an addition to his barn.
Robert Bender has painted his house which he purchased last spring of W. C.
Allen.

—It is reported that the tanning Co. is to start the tannery the 1st of September.
Chas. Anderson of Nettilton visited his brother J. K. Anderson, last Sunday.
It is reported that Morrison Bros. are going to close out their mercantile business and engage in lumbering. Sorry to lose them.
Cel. Carter is building a farm house on the Millford farm.

—Mrs. August Carlson of Dawson, accompanied by her daughters, Edith and Anna, are visiting friends in Corry this week.
Mrs. Hattie Lindell, of New Castle, has been visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs.
H. Norton.
Mrs. Robert Hunter of West Virginia, formerly of this place, is visiting friends in town this week.

—Carl Carlson of Dawson, sports a wheel purchased of Sulley & Gemin. August Carlson sports a horse and buggy.
W. S. Widrig is in the blackberry business. Those wishing berries would do well to patronize him, as his berries are always fresh and nice. SCHEIDT.

—Attention, Veterans.
The First Annual Reunion of the Forest County Veterans' Association, which had been set for Aug. 27, has been changed to Sept. 10th, 1896, at Marienville, Pa. All members and comrades should bear in mind the change of date and govern themselves accordingly.
D. S. KNOX, President.

Mrs. Law's Leap From a Third-Story Window.
After having been returned to the Allegheny Presbyterian hospital upon the order of the District Attorney, Mrs.
Frank Law, an account of whose distressing case was given in these columns last week, threw herself from the third-story window of that institution, and is at present in a precarious physical condition. She was taken to the hospital on Saturday, and on Sunday Morning at 2 o'clock, eluding the watch of her nurses, sprang from the bed, and before she could be caught had thrown herself out of the window. From the Pittsburgh Dispatch's account the following is taken:
"The hospital physicians are unable to say if she will recover. Her husband and the attending physician, Dr. H. E.
Ramsey, say her leap from the window was the result of her arrest and imprisonment in jail after she had killed her child. Mrs. Law fell 30 feet, lighting on an asphalt pavement. Her pelvic bone and left ankle are broken and her head badly out. In addition she is still suffering from the same mania which caused her to murder her babe. Dr. Lysie states that had she not been arrested her mind would have been restored and she would now be well on the way to recovery. The knowledge that she was in prison, the shock of her arrest and a cell with a hard couch and hard pillow increased her mental trouble.
"Mrs. Law was released from jail and returned to the hospital at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon. She was at once put to bed in a room on the third floor overlooking an alley extending from Sherman avenue to Arch street. All the time she had been in jail she had slept none.
Saturday evening she fell asleep. The story of her suicide is told by the attending nurse, Miss Annie McCarthy, who had been engaged to wait on Mrs. Law, and Miss Etta McClurg, the night nurse in the hospital. About 2 a. m. Miss Mc-Carthy was seated in the open doorway into Mrs. Law's room. Miss McClurg was just entering the room when she saw Mrs. Law jump from her bed and rush to the window. They tried to catch her, but before they could do so she threw up the screen and leaped out head first. It is supposed she turned over and fell on her feet. She had on only a night dress and was in her bare feet.
Policeman Dickson heard a cry and the sound of the fall. He ran into the alley and found her lying senseless. She was carried into the hospital and put to bed.
Some time afterward she recovered consciousness, but did not know she had fallen from a window.
To her husband, who arrived a few hours later, she said she had imagined the police were after her again to arrest her. Then she thought she was in a cell and she remembered nothing until brought to in the hospital after her fall.
Mrs. Law was indignant at the authorities because of her wife's mishap. He said she should not have been arrested when so ill as she was. He praised Warden McAleese highly for his treatment of his wife, saying he furnished her food from his own table. But it was the thought that she was in prison and the surroundings that affected her. Dr. Ramsey also said Mrs. Law should not have been removed from the hospital in her condition.

District Attorney Haymaker explained how Mrs. Law came to be removed to jail. He said he was out of the city when Mrs. Law killed her child by cutting his throat, and he did not hear of the affair.
On his return Superintendent Muth called on him and asked him what they should do about her case. Mr. Haymak-er wanted to know what the case was and Superintendent Muth told him of the child killing. He added that the coroner's jury had committed her to the hospital. The District Attorney said a coroner's jury had no right to send her to a hospital. They could only commit to jail for court. He asked what condition she was in and Superintendent Muth said she was walking on her feet. At this Mr. Haymaker said she was then well enough to be sent to jail until the court decided her case and should be taken there. Some time later the physician called him up and said Mrs. Law was not fit to be removed to jail, and for the District Attorney to send any physician he desired to examine her. Mr.
Haymaker then called up the hospital to inquire about her mental condition and to instruct the hospital authorities to retain her if they thought her condition required it. He was told the police had just taken her away. Mr. Haymaker then ascertained her condition. He could not release her, but arranged for Attorney Robb to request the Court to release her on her own bond. This was done as soon as possible, and she was returned to the hospital.

The people have long since learned that the most disagreeable malady are not necessarily the best. In fact, as a rule, they are not. What is wanted is something mild and sure, such as Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. That is really pleasant to take when reduced with water and sweetened.
Then it is acknowledged everywhere to be the most successful remedy in all world for bowel complaints. Ask any number of druggists for the best remedy they have for diarrhoea and fully ripe out of ten will recommend Chamberlain's. In speaking of this medicine, Mr. B. B. Dutton of Friendsville, Susquehanna Co., Pa., says: "We have used it in our family for years in the stomach, colic and diarrhoea and found it to be a most effective remedy." For sale by Death of Mrs. Frank Witherell.

Rosilla, wife of Frank Witherell, and daughter of Elias and Margaret Albaugh, died July 29, 1896, at her home, Stowtown, Pa., aged 40 years, 3 months and 12 days. She was soundly converted about six months ago, giving a clear evidence that she had "passed from death unto life." She bore her suffering with great patience, and was never heard to mutter or complain. It was said "it is too bad," she would look up with a smile and say, "In my Father's own good time He'll take me home." Her mind was very clear till the last. She believed her sickness to be "unto death." She often praised the Lord aloud, and exhorted the unconverted to give God their hearts, and as the end drew near she exclaimed to weeping friends, "Beautiful, how beautiful!" She leaves a husband, two sons and one daughter to mourn; their loss is her gain.

The funeral services, which were largely attended, were held in the Free Methodist church at East Hickory, on Thursday last, Revs. McAninch and Stone officiating.
Her busy hands are folded,
Her work on earth is done;
Her trials all are ended,
Her heavenly crown is won.
Within the home she brightened, Her quiet course is run;
A life at once unselfish,
A woman's work well done.
A sad and lonely household Will miss her going hand, The sons and daughter clinging Without her aid must stand.
Yet again we know we'll meet thee,
When the streams of life are fled,
And in heaven with joy to greet thee, Where no farewell tear is shed.

RESOLUTIONS OF THE LOSS.
WHEREAS, in view of the respect we have sustained by the decease of our dear friend and sister, Mrs. Zilla Witherell, and of the still heavier loss sustained by those who were nearest and dearest to her,
