combination. "But oh what a difference in the morning!"
—County Commissioner-elect, C. M.
Whiteman, was a business visitor to Oil City on Monday.
—Winter is approaching and it would be a good plan to patch up a few of those holes in the sidewalk.
—Miss Florence Gordon was a welcome guest of her cousin, Miss Ida Fones, for a short time last week.
—Mrs. C. A. Randall and Mrs. J. T.
Brennan spent last Friday with Mrs. G.
F. Watson, at Golconda.

the residence of S. H. Haslet, Friday and Saturday.
—Misses Eureka Propper and Edie Walters drove up from Tionesta last Sunday and were guests of Miss Marie Allen.— Tidouite News.
—These deflated politicians who have been eating cake since the election will soon have a chance to change their diet and tackle turkey.
—The Recording Angel can now take a long needed rest. Everybody is too much exhausted to tell any more lies.— Reading, Pa., Herald.
—Joseph Green of East Hickory, Pa., has an 8-year-old horse, weight between 1200 and 1300 pounds, which he offers for sale at a reasonable price.
—Jim Shoemaker has gone to Brain, Butler county, to do the painting on the new Free Methodist church which his father is building in that place.
—A resident of Belvidere, N. J., who is 108 years old is a rider of the wheel, and Buffalo, N. Y., has a rider who is only two and one-half years of age.
—Misses Ruth Cook and Pearl Lenden of Nebraska, who were delegates to the Epworth League convention in Tidouite last week returned home Monday.

—Letters remaining uncollected for in Tionesta postoffice, Nov. 10, 1896: Wm.
Hill, G. W. Schneider, J. L. Thompson, Miss Mamie Woods. B. L. Haslet, P.
M.
—Considerable of the patriotism was saturated with too much spojo. What does it profit a man to save the country and lose his own bearings?—Franklin News.
—Miss Ida Fones entertained her young friends to the number of about 20 at her home last Tuesday evening, and the young people all report a very enjoyable evening.
—Miss Anna M. Cummings of Chau-taugu, N. Y., conference secretary of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the M. E. church, is a guest of the ladies of the local society this week.
—John Noble is compelled to walk with a cane on account of a sore leg. He received an injury to his leg about two years ago and the last "crack on the skin" he receives now "lays him up."
—P. M. Clark Esq., is in Clearfield, Pa., this week, having been appointed by the court to convey the Congressional returns from this county to that place, where the returns judges met yesterday.
—Mrs. H. Kennedy of Colorado is a guest at the residence of J. W.
Jamieson. Mrs. Kennedy was formerly Miss Nannie Steele and for a number of years taught the school at Jamieson station.
—Mr. M. L. Range and family of Stewart Run, desire to extend their thanks to the friends and neighbors who rendered such kind assistance during their late bereavement, the death of Mr. J. L.
Range.
—Dr. Rachel Benn, a returned missionary from China will give a lecture under the auspices of the W. F. M. society of the M. E. church, Thursday evening, Nov. 12th, at 8 o'clock. A cordial invitation is given to all.
—H. M. Irwin, the distinguished editor of our enterprising and up to date exchange, the Franklin Evening News, was a guest of his brother, S. B. Irwin, Esq., for a few days last week, and was accompanied by his estimable wife.
—Editor Willis Cowan of the Warren Mail was in town a few hours on Friday last. His paper did yeoman service in the recent campaign as is evidenced by the immense majority rolled up for the Republican ticket in that county.
—Rev. Buzza and family were in Tidioute over Sunday. As announced in the program published in the REPUBLICAN last week, Rev. Buzza preached the sermon and consecration service, which was the ending of the Epworth League convention.
—Rev. George P. Resner, a well known Methodist minister died at his home in Tidouite Oct. 30, 1896, at a very old age.
There was probably no better known minister of the gospel in Western Pennsylvania than Father Resner, as he was familiarily known.
—Amster is still at the old stand, and doing a rushing business, but he is always glad to receive new customers, and when you want anything in the way of choice confectionary, tropical fruits, cigars or tobacco, just give him a call.
Oysters fresh every day.
—John H. McPherson of Franklin, beats Park Grove's big squash, mentioned a short time ago, and goes him two better. He raised three this season, the largest of which measured 8 feet 3 inches around the waist, and weighed 67 1/2 pounds. Not so slow for a Franklin production.
—Following are the new officers of the Epworth League, elected Thursday evening last: President, Mary Lamb; Vice Presidents: First, Mrs. P. M.
Clark; Second, Mrs. R. J. Thompson; Third, Miss Ida Paup; Fourth, Miss Mae Huling; Fifth, Miss Lucie Huling; Sixth, Miss Ella Morgan.
—The ladies of the W. R. C. are making preparations for another of their delightful socials, which will be given in the near future. This bit of news will be received with much pleasure, as all our people know that when the W. R. C. get up a social they always have something good to eat and plenty of it.
—N. E. Holmes of Hickory and Chas.
Annun of Tidouite have finished the roofing and plumbing on the new bank building. Both these gentlemen are first class workmen and the job is a good criticism. Mr. Holmes was formerly in business in Tionesta, and thinks that he will establish a branch shop here in the near future.
—H. H. Stanley has been appointed postmaster at Tylerburg, this county, vice J. C. Bowman removed to Tionesta to engage in banking business. Mr.
Stanley is by no means a new hand at the business of handling mail matter and his appointment will doubtless render great satisfaction to the patrons of the office.— Clarion Democrat.
—Miss Anna Whitmer, who has been the guest of her aunt, Mrs. W. W. Grove, during the past summer returned to her home in Shannon, Ill., last Thursday.
Miss Whitmer is a very amiable young lady, and during her stay here made many friends who are very sorry that she could not spend the balance of the winter in Tionesta.
—Since it seems impossible to get Corbett and Fitzsimmons to "come together," Fitz and the "new 'un," Tom Sharkey—are to come together in a 16-round contest before the Occidental Athletic Club in San Francisco, on the 9th of December, and the people will then have an opportunity to find out whether there is anything in Sharkey or not.
—At the "birthday party" given by the W. C. T. U., at the home of Mrs. Pro-ppor, last evening, a large number of people were assembled and a very enjoyable time is reported by all. Tea and cake were served, and, although it is a little late in the season for a very extensive indulgence in that children's delicacy, it was enjoyed just the same.
—Prof. K. E. Hudson will lecture under the auspices of the W. C. T. U., in the Presbyterian church, Saturday evening, Nov. 14; in the Methodist Episcopal church, Sabbath morning, and will hold a union service in the M. E. church Sabbath evening, Nov. 15th. Prof. Hudson is an evangelist, song-writer, composer and singer. All who have had the pleasure of hearing him are most enthusiastic in their praise. He is an active member of the G. A. R., and an earnest supporter of temperance in every form. Do not fail to hear him.

—An Illinois farmer, living in Jewell county, has discovered that seed corn soaked in coal oil renders the growing corn chinch bug proof. He plowed up his wheat and planted the ground in corn.
The seed of five acres was soaked in coal oil and the other forty was not. The hugs ate up the forty acres and never touched the five acres. It is worth a million if true.—Ezra.
—Maconville Express: The school board have elected Miss Nannie Morrow, of Tionesta, as teacher of room seven, to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Merle Benn. They also appointed J. H. Russell to the position on the board caused by the removal of Z. S.
Himes to New Bethlehem.—Jenks township polled about seventy-five more votes this year than ever before.
—As it is nearing the time when the bikes must be put away for the winter, a hint on the care of the machines is reasonable. The bicycle should be thoroughly cleaned and then inverted, so as to rest on the handle bar and saddle.
Time sooner or later deflates the tires and the weight of the machine causes the tires to double up on the sides, which is anything but beneficial to them.
—In the Grand Lodge convention recently held in the city of Pittsburgh, the A. O. U. W., adopted the classification of assessments by about a three-fourths vote.
It was stated that other states have been waiting for Pennsylvania to act and that the new order of assessments will now become general. Among the Grand Officers elected at this meeting were: Master Workman, E. B. Davis, Macdonville; Foreman, W. T. Powell, Pittsburg; Recorder, J. M. McNair, Allegheny; Inspector, O. K. Gardner, Pittsburg; Guide, C. L. Hannan, Allegheny; Medical Examiner, P. Y. Isenberg, Norristown.
The next convention will be held in Philadelphia the third Tuesday of October, 1897. The new amendments take effect Jan. 1, '97.
—A German newspaper asserts that about thirty thousand of the inhabitants of Berlin have considerably better with the left ear than with the right. When the cause was sought for it appeared that these three effected are frequent users of the telephone. The listening part of the instrument is generally held in the left hand and put to the left ear, while the right hand is often used in talking notes, etc. In the cases observed the subjects hear the slightest sound through the telephone with their left ear, but could understand little or nothing if the instrument were put to the right ears. It is therefore concluded that the telephone has an appreciably stimulating effect on the auditory nerves, and the recommendation is made that instrument be used alternately at the right and left ears.
—The following swindle is being worked in different counties, and this is the way it works: Swindler No. 1 calls upon a farmer with a patent wagon tongue, and informs him that he is on his way home, having made a good thing out of it, and has only this county to sell. He tells the farmer he can have it for $250, and if he wants it to write to him. In a few days swindler No. 2 comes along.
He has heard that the farmer has the right of the county for the patent wagon tongue, and as he made a good thing of it in Pennsylvania, he wants to buy the right of the county, and offers the farmer $100 and pays $10 to hand the bargain.
The farmer writes No. 1 and sends him his note for $250. He never hears of either of the men again but his note comes up for collection in a neighboring town, and he is left $240.—Greensburg Tribune.
—Considerable amusement was afforded our citizens Saturday by the settlement of an election bet between Benjamin May, of this place, and Morris Cook, of Jamesstown, N. Y., father-in-law of Dr. L. D. Bowman and at present a guest of the latter. Mr. May is 88 years of age and Mr. Cook is 78. The agreement between these venerable gentlemen was that they were to march from Lawrence's suspension bridge to the court house, Mr.
May taking the lead in the event of Mc-Kinley's election and Mr. Cook to lead if Bryan was the winner. Mr. J. R. Stroup, who is another octogenarian, and who was also an ardent supporter of Mc-Kinley, agreed to act as color bearer for the "parade" in either event. It was really an amusing sight to see these old gentlemen as they slowly marched along the street. Although Mr. Cook had to march in the rear he still hurrahs for Bryan.
—Mr. L. H. Hoag, of the Government Engineer Corps, has been up from Pittsburg for a few days past on a tour of inspection connected with the improvement of the Allegheny river. Mr. Hoag informs us that a survey of the Allegheny is now in progress by the U. S. Government with a view of ascertaining the expense necessary to slackwater the river as far up as Oil City. The engineers are now as far up as Foxburg and will finish their work in a week or two, and be ready to make report to Congress at the opening of the session in December.
Senator Quay will have charge of the matter of appropriations, which means that the same will be forthcoming in the time, as the Senator is very much interested in this work, and believes it will be the means of making the Allegheny valley leap with industry in the next decade. Mr. Hoag thinks the next season will see a great improvement in navigation between Pittsburg and Oil City.

Death of Jacob I. Range.
Died on November 4, 1896, in Harmony township, Jacob I. Range in the 73d year of his age. Mr. Range was born at Gettysburg, Pa., Sept. 18, 1822.
He was a son of James Range, one of the sons of J. John Range, who settled at Tionesta early in the century, and was the oldest survivor of his father's family.
James Range, the father of the subject of our sketch, came to Tionesta about 1825, with his father, and settled on the land on which the borough of Tionesta now stands. At that time the father of Jacob I. Range owned all the land from May street to Tabba run. He subsequently sold it to Rev. Ezekiel May.
His father then removed to Scrubgrass township, Venango Co., Jacob I. was then 13 years old. He remained in Scrub-grass township about five years, when the family came back. He afterward purchased and cleared a farm in Harmony township in 1848, on which he lived until the old settlement of 1865, when he sold out, and bought the farm on Stewart Run on which he lived continuously until the time of his death. In 1843 he married Miss Ann Hunter, the daughter of the pioneer, Wm. Hunter. Mrs.
Range died October 13, 1887. Four children, Mrs. Belle Parker, of Marquette, Kansas; Mrs. Jennie R. Abender, of West Hickory, Pa.; Leonard M. Range, of Stewart Run, and Mrs. Louie P.
Norris, of Sylvan Grove, Kansas, and ten grandchildren survive him. In politics Mr. Range was a Republican, and in faith a Methodist. He was a useful man in his day and generation and was highly respected by all who knew him. Rev. R. A. Buzza of the M. E. church conducted funeral service at his late home at 10 o'clock, a. m., Monday, after which the remains were laid beside those of his wife in Riverside cemetery.

Thanksgiving Proclamation.
By the President of the United States: The people of the United States should never be unmindful of the gratitude they owe the God of nations for His watchful care which has shielded them from dire disaster and pointed out to them the way of peace and happiness. Nor should they ever refuse to acknowledge with contrite hearts their proneness to turn away from God's teachings and to follow with sinful pride after their own devices. To the end that these thoughts may be quickened, it is fitting that on a day especially appointed we should join together in appreciating the mercies of grace with praise and supplication.
Therefore, I, Grover Cleveland, President of the United States, do hereby declare that on Thursday, the 28th day of the present month of November, to be kept and observed as a day of Thanksgiving and prayer throughout our land.
On that day let all our people forego their usual work and occupation and assemble in their accustomed places of worship, let them with one accord render thanks to the ruler of the universe for our preservation as a Nation, and deliverance from every threatened danger, for the peace that has dwelt within our boundaries, for our deliverance against disease and pestilence during the year that has passed, for the plenteous rewards that have followed the labors of our husbandmen and for all the other blessings that have been vouchsafed to us.
And let us, through the mediation of Him who has taught us how to pray, implore the forgiveness of our sins and a continuance of Heavenly favor.
Let us not forget on this day of thanksgiving the poor and needy, and by deeds of charity and efforts of prayer be-made more acceptable in the sight of the Lord.
Witness my hand and the seal of the United States, which I have caused to be hereunto affixed.
Done in the city of Washington this 4th day of November, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and ninety-six, and of the independence of the United States of America the one hundred and twenty-first.
By the President,
GROVER CLEVELAND.
ROBERT OLNEY, Secretary of State.
