Obituary.

WILLIAM LUTHER ANDERSON.

was born September 8, 1814, in the state of Vermont, and died at East Hickory, Pennsylvania, November 18, 1896, aged 82 years, 2 months and 12 days.

CHARLEY BANKHEAD IS PAINTING Andrew Weller's new house, on German Hill, near Starr.

PROTHONOTARY-SHERIFF ROBERTSON, of Marienville, and Sheriff-elect Walker, of Nebraska, were in town during the past week and filed the official bonds, preparatory to taking charge of affairs in their respective places on the first Monday of January.

County Treasurer Fones, whose arm was operated upon by Dr. Higgins and others at the Oil City hospital last week, was getting along well at last accounts, and though the shock was quite a severe one, it is expected he will be able to come home in a short time.

Dr. L. J. Bowman and Messrs. S. D. Irwin and G. W. Sawyer, the committee appointed by the court to investigate the case of Emil Swanson, of Pigeon, made their examination last Friday and adjudged the man insane, and he was taken to the Warren asylum by Sheriff Carson on Saturday.

A woman has invented what she calls a "snore diverter." It is composed of a hood and a flexible pipe. When her husband snores grow unbearable, the hood is lowered over his head and the snore is conducted into the cellar. There hasn't been a rat seen in the house since the diverter was used.

Don't forget that Amalar is going to start a news stand, and he expects his stock to arrive the last of this week. If you want any of the standard magazines or story papers now is the time to leave your orders. Headquarters for choice confectionery, cigars, tobacco, fruits, vegetables and oysters in season.

F. M. Morgan and family of Oil City have again taken up their residence in Denver, Colorado, where they expect to stay for a year or two at least. Fred enjoyed better health while there than in any other climate, and it is for this blessing that he selects that country for his home. The best wishes of all their Tionesta friends go with them.

One of the most pleasing entertainments yet given by the school pupils of this place was that of last Friday evening in the school hall. The program was made up entirely of dialogues, recitations, essays and songs bearing upon Thanksgiving Day. The hall was packed, and the efforts of the little ones were heartily enjoyed by the large audience.

The meeting of the teachers of Barnett twp., held at Clarion, Nov. 21, 1896, for the purpose of holding a Local Institute was well attended and proved a success. Officers elected: S. M. Whitman, Pres.; Cora Williams, Sec'y.

John A. Jones, jobber for Collins & Kreitzer, at Nebraska, was a caller on Friday.

Mrs. M. A. Ellinger is visiting relatives in Ridgway and St. Marys, for a few days.
