At the business meeting of the Literary Society last Friday evening it was decided that in the future debates would be held separately from other entertainments.

The home of William Roden, a pump employed by the International Oil company, near Pithole, was destroyed by fire on Friday morning and the family barely escaped with their lives.

The foundation for the soldiers' monument in Clarion has been completed and the erection of the monument will be continued as fast as the weather will permit.

Internal Revenue Collector Bigler claims that Western Pennsylvania is the banner district in production of rye whiskey, as it produces about ninety per cent. of the country's "old rye."

The report of the Auditors of Erie county shows that nearly $2,000 was paid to farmers last year for sheep which had been killed by dogs. The report also shows that $2,700 was collected in dog tax.

Joseph Myers, one of Frank's prominent citizens, committed suicide Monday morning by drowning himself. He was in a good condition financially and no cause can be given for the act except insanity.

A Missouri farmer is scouring the country for a fellow who eloped with his wife and his mule. He announces that if the mule is returned all will be forgiven, as it will be no trouble for him to secure another wife.

Wild cats are getting very numerous in this neck 'o' woods and a great many have been killed this winter by our hunters. The last one reported was killed by Ed. Graham and S. H. Haslet, on Indiana camp last Friday.

The second annual convention of the Forest County Sunday School Convention will commence in the Presbyterian church at this place at 1:30 this Wednesday afternoon. Quite a number of delegates are expected to be present.

It is said that over in Williamsport the women indulge in prize fighting, and the authorities recently granted two pugilistic females permission to engage in a five round bout. There is plenty of "scrapping" between some of the gentler sex of this place, but "day don't do it wid de mitts."

Following is the list of officers nominated at the Republican caucus held in Tionesta township, Saturday, Jan. 23, 1897: School directors, John Wolf, W. W. Thomas; road com., Wm. McKee; auditor, P. YOU AND YOUR FRIENDS.

—Miss Kate Hood was a visitor to Warren last Friday.

—Miss Anna Anderson was a visitor to Oil City Saturday.

—A. B. Kelly, left yesterday for Chicago, on a business visit.

—Miss E. Ethel Dill, of Ridgway, is a guest of Mrs. R. J. Thompson.

—Miss Lizzie Randall is visiting friends in Harrisburg for a few days.

—F. R. Larson and G. G. Gaston were business visitors to Oil City on Saturday.

—Miss Belva Griggs, of Oil City, is a guest of her friend, Mrs. Jas. Haslet, of this place.

—Miss Lucy McGinn, of Oil City, was a guest of her friend, Miss Kittie Joyce, over Sunday.

—Mrs. J. S. Hunter of Hickory was a guest of Mrs. Jared Huling for a few days last week.

—Rev. J. V. McAninch is holding a series of meetings in the Presbyterian church at Endeavor.

—Mrs. Harry Bruner of West Hickory visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Canfield, over Sunday.

—Ted Kelly has so far improved from his attack of typhoid fever that he is able to be up and about the house.

—Mrs. Dr. A. M. Dunt and daughter Genevieve went to Oil City Saturday for a couple of weeks' visit with relatives.

—Harry Watson of Golconda went to Randolph, N. Y., last Friday for a two weeks' visit with old schoolmates and friends.

—Mr. and Mrs. P. Nornille, who have been visiting Rev. J. T. Brennan and family for a few days past, have gone to Franklin to visit relatives.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Saul and son were Warren visitors on Saturday. They were accompanied home by Miss Lella Saul, who stayed over Sunday.

—Misses Kate Canfield and Addie Huling, who have been employed in the State hospital for the insane at North Warren for a few months past, came down Saturday and spent Sunday with their parents.

—Miss Flo Morrison, teacher of the Young school, was called to Irwinville yesterday morning, on account of the sudden death of her grand father, Hiram Morrison, who will be well remembered by many of our rivermen as he has been a pilot on the river for fifty or sixty years. He was about eighty years of age.

—Jan. D. Davis and family departed for Harrisburg last Saturday where "Jim" will take up his duties as Transcribing clerk in the House of Representatives, to which office he has been appointed as will be seen in another column. Mrs. Davis and son reside at 1431 Euclid Ave., Philadelphia, for the winter.

—Mrs. Wm. Hibenthal and son, Earl, came up from Pittsburgh yesterday afternoon to prepare the Jacob Hood house for their occupancy next week, as it is their intention to return to Tionesta to live. It is expected that their daughter and son-in-law will come to Tionesta in the near future, when the latter, Mr. Benjamin Shackelford, will engage in business here.

—F. E. Mabie of Erie spent last Thursday with old friends in Tionesta, his first visit here in nearly ten years, and the greetings of old acquaintances were hearty and welcome. Frank is the head of the firm of the Erie Hard Wall Plaster Co., engaged in the manufacture of that excellent material for plastering buildings, of which they are turning out an immense quantity at present. The firm has a fine plant at Erie and can very successfully compete with any similar concern in the country on account of the advantageous freight rates to be had at that place. Their goods are guaranteed to be simply perfect in all respects.

—The home of William Roden, a pump employed by the International Oil company, near Pithole, was destroyed by fire on Friday morning and the family barely escaped with their lives. The house is heated by gas from the wells, and was luxuriously furnished. Everything is a total loss.

—Be careful from whom you purchase Life Insurance. Having 15 or 20 years to run is a long time in the future. Be sure you are right before signing an application with some irresponsible person whom you may never see again and whose representations may or may not be true. It will pay you to call at Brennan's Agency.

—The Literary Society will give a temperance entertainment in School hall next Friday evening. All members of the society will be admitted free, but others will be charged an admission fee of five cents. Let everybody turn out, as the proceeds go toward raising the seats in the hall. Do not think because it is a temperance entertainment that it will not be interesting, for a good program has been arranged.

—Ernest Barnes, Jr., of German Hill, met with a painful accident last Saturday, while building a rig for the Proper Oil company at Crown, Clarion county. The rig builders were rolling the ball-wheel into place in the derrick when Mr. Barnes in some way got caught and the wheel rolled over his left foot crushing it quite badly. He was brought to Tionesta Saturday evening and his foot was dressed by Dr. L. D. Bowman.

—Many a girl who is sighing for a husband could get one if she would show a little more taste in arranging her hair. Why does the lady with pronounced features and high brow haul her hair back until she looks like a Jeezabel? Why does the girl with a long, narrow head pile the locks on the rear angle of her cranium like a freak in a side-show? To have her dressing should be done so as to tone down, not emphasize, salient features.—Franklin News.

—Last Thursday afternoon about 4:10 an alarm of fire was given which was very quickly responded to by the department. The fire was at the residence of A. P. Anderson, but very little damage was done and the fire, which was in the second story, was extinguished by the time the hose cart arrived. The fire was started by Johnnie, the five-year-old adopted son of Mr. Anderson, who had been playing with some matches and caused them to be ignited, when he came down stairs, but said nothing of it until questioned afterward, when he admitted that he had started the fire. He had been reading and thought a house of little use this time of year without a fire in it.

Amale is still doing business at the old stand, so when you want anything in the line of confectionery, cigars, tobacco, tropical fruit, vegetables or oysters, just give him a call and get the best that is in the market at rock bottom prices. Don't forget the news paper. All the standard magazines and story papers constantly on hand. Agent for the Buffalo Daily Express.

—The other day a Chicago passenger agent received a letter from the publisher of a little paper in Arkansas which had the merit of frankness, at least. The Arkansas editor said: "Dear Sir: I wish you would send me a pass from Little Rock to Chicago and return. I've got to go to Chicago, and I can't do it unless you do. My paper goes almost everywhere in this section, and I'm having mighty hard work to keep it from going to h—l."—Ez.

—Monday of this week Dr. Evan Kane of the sanitarium, was called to Pigeon, Forest county, where, assisted by Drs. Towler, Totten and Stonecipher, he successfully performed one of the most difficult and delicate surgical operations, the removal of a large tumor from the abdomen of Mrs. M. Smith, a patient of Dr. Stonecipher. The growth was attached to the liver and back, which made the operation exceedingly difficult and dangerous.—Kane Republican.

—Genuine "old fashioned" winter is here at last and for the past three days the weather has been extremely cold, the mercury dropping as low as 12° below zero on Monday morning. The first real delighting that we have had this winter is now here and our lumbermen are taking advantage of it. The river is frozen over for the first time at this place and the ice men have ceased to worry and are saying nothing, but sawing logs.

—A Warren young lady who had been slandered did not simply sit down and cry about it, as many women do under the circumstances. She knew the stories circulated about her were false and she had the young man who told them promptly looked up in the county jail. The alleged slanderer was only too glad to give a chance to withdraw his assertions to obtain his liberty. That Warren girl pursued the proper course in dealing with a defamer.—Bradford Era.

—The ladies of West Hickory and vicinity will give a benefit for the G. A. B., Post, on Friday evening, Feb. 5th, at Green's Hall. A program of recitations and songs has been arranged and a pleasant entertainment is assured. All soldiers are cordially invited to come and bring their friends. Mr. and Mrs. Moulin have kindly offered the Globe Hotel dining room, where supper will be served. Prices 15 and 25 cents. A Woman's Relief Corps will also be organized by ladies of East and West Hickory.

—The most disastrous wreck that ever occurred on the P. & W. railroad occurred last Saturday afternoon, in which three men lost their lives and several others were seriously, if not fatally, injured. The train jumped from a bridge over Paint creek, about one mile from Shippenville, which is about one hundred feet high, and crushed the lives out of three of the trainmen. The names of those killed are: Wm. Copley, of Butler; Daniel Morarity and Jas. Beatty, of Foxburg. Mr. Morarity was a former resident of Forest county and was well and favorably known by many of our readers who will learn with regret of his disastrous end.

—A largely attended and enthusiastic Republican caucus was held in the court house Monday evening and the following representative people were placed in nomination for the ensuing spring election, which occurs on Feb. 10, 1897, Burgess, K. C. Berg; Councilmen, J. T. Dale, W. F. Blum; School Directors, Patrick Joyce, L. Agnew; Collector, F. P. Anusler; Overseer of the Poor, J. R. Osgood; High Constable, Wm. L. Hunter; Judge of Elections, J. R. Birdell; Auditor, Dr. F. S. Hunter. This is a good, strong ticket, and as the Republican party is strongly in the ascendancy in this borough there is no reason why the entire ticket should not be elected.

—In last week's issue we ran an item clipped from the Oil City Herald, which was headed, "An Ancient Document," which told of a deed signed by Benjamin Franklin, the first one ever given for any land in Venango county, it was considered a curiosity when exhibited in a room in the Hotel. The document is dated 1787, and is W. G. Wyman's of this place. Inform us that he has a similar document, framed and hanging in his house, that is four days older than the one spoken of, as it is dated April 6, 1787, and is signed by Benjamin Franklin, probably by the same pen and from the same bottle of ink. It was a grant to "Andrew Lee for services in the late war," and is certainly quite a curiosity, as it is written on parchment or sheepskin. Mr. Wyman will place the ancient document in Lawrence & Smear's store next Saturday evening and will leave it there one week, where all who are interested in antiquities can see it.

—The grocery, dry goods and clothing stock of F. R. Larson has been sold to L. J. Hopkins, the change in proprietorship taking place on Monday of this week. Mr. Larson has been compelled to give up this part of his business on account of the failing health, of which fact his many friends and patrons will be grieved to learn, as he has always been a faithful caterer to the wants of the people, and his earnest efforts to keep an up to date stock of goods has been appreciated. But his physicians have advised him to seek more out door employment. He will retain the feed department of the mammoth store and solicit the patronage of all his old customers in that line. But the people may be assured that the store will be kept up to its usual standard under the management of Mr. Larson's successor, Mr. L. J. Hopkins whose business ability in that line is not to be surpassed, as is well known by all our people, he having been formerly connected with the same store for a number of years and is well acquainted with the wants of the community, consequently we have no hesitancy in predicting success for him.

Prof. Charles E. Dagnett.

Charles E. Dagnett, who was a member of the Christian Commission that met at Franklin in 1894, and who represented the Carlisle Indian School ably at that convention, as will be remembered, is at present located at Chillico, O. T., where he has been for two years in charge of the Chillico Industrial School, Oklahoma, which is six miles south of Arkansas City, Kansas. After leaving school at Carlisle he went to Crow Creek, Dakota. The Department transferred him from the Dakota service, to the Chillico Industrial School, Oklahoma, which is one of the largest in the service of the U. S. Gov't, there being nearly 400 pupils. The building is one of the finest the Government has erected for the benefit of the Indians. About two years ago he married a daughter of Tom Miller, or Tu-sau-na, the head chief of the Miami, who graduated at Carlisle, Pa. in 1889, and subsequently at the Grove City College, Quincy Ill., who is a valuable aid to the Professor. He is a grandson of the celebrated Baptist Preacher, Head Chief of the Peorias, and U. S. Interpreter. His father Edward Dagnett was of French Protestant descent, a bright, intelligent man who served as a soldier and scout during the late war, and who died about 1870. He formerly assisted S. D. Irwin in his surveys of the Indian lands in Miami and Johnson counties, Kas., for the U. S. The Prof. visited S. D. Irwin here in 1894, and is pleasantly remembered by many of our citizens.

In Memoriam.

Comrade George W. Rhodes was born July 20, 1830, and died at Yankee Bush, Warren Co., Pa., Sept. 17, 1896, aged 66 years, 1 mo., 27 days. He was buried at the same place on Sept. 19. His departure was very sudden, dying in the harvest field while cutting buckwheat. We are again reminded that life is uncertain, and ere long we will be numbered with the dead. "Be ye also ready; for in such an hour ye think not, the Son of Man cometh." He was a member of Capt. George Stow Post, No. 274, G. A. R., Dept. of Pa., was faithful in the performance of all the duties required of him, regular in his attendance at the meetings of the Post when in reach, and was respected by all his comrades. He enlisted in Co. B, 101st Reg., Pa. Vol. Inf., and served to the end of the war. He made a good soldier and was always ready for duty.

Resolved, 1. That in his death we lose a good citizen, one that was always ready to do what he thought was his duty, who showed his fidelity and loyalty to his country by enlisting under her flag in the hour of danger.

2. The members of Post No. 274, are reminded of their mortality, and that a good soldier is ready at the sound of the bugle.

3. That the charter of Capt. George Stow Post, No. 274, G. A. R., be draped in mourning for thirty days.

4. That the memorial be published in the Tionesta papers.

Green Township Greenies.

Born, to Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Patterson, Jan. 21, 1897, a daughter. Mother and baby are doing well.

The long looked for snow has arrived at last and times are lively at present.

John Mohney is improving the golden opportunity of the sleighing and is putting shaft timber to the line of the C. & C. R. R. at Bear Creek.

E. L. Dawdley cut the inside of his right foot on Friday of last week, but at the time of writing was getting along nicely.

Now as the caucus is over we will wait for the election and the tobies and good roads and the bridge at Bear creek. That which is needed we never get, but things that are of no use are always hustled up and shoved through.

H. A. Dotterer says his new boy will be able to take the plow in the spring.

We hear that Davy Rupert has received a silver medal as a reward for his invention of a gas jet at a competition held at Washington last month. Success Davy, is my best wish.

J. A. Jones says he can beat the world making axlehandles—and a good yarn to Johnnie Blum is busy hauling logs to Skolletville for Mr. Mitchell, whose mill is at that place.

Mr. George Jennings thinks winter comes too quick, but says if he had another gun shoe he would make it, but will try at any rate.

Gultonville looks lonely since the Avenue Hotel has been removed, but it is the fate of all quickly built towns—come quick, go quick.

Adam Ikenburg is a happy man. His whiskers have quit leaking and he says if he had one more fat hog he would make it till spring right.

Jones is busy cutting logs, he is running seven men now cutting and peeling pine.

Wanted, a small boy the size of a man to shovel snow from the sidewalks at Fox Creek, is the cry of the over-worked wives of that town.

We are glad to note the change in some of the male members of Foxcreek since they have built the temple. It is all right boys, just stick to it and be good. It pays to be good.

We wonder where Johnny Lindsey was that he came home so early on Monday morning.

Mr. E. Collins and Mr. G. Wensel were up to Foxcreek to Sunday school last Sabbath. B. H. BEAD.

DIED.

SALSGIVER—Arthur, infant son of Daniel and Ada Salsgiver of Smokey Hill, Tionesta township, died Wednesday, Jan. 20, 1897, aged 2 months and 3 days. Inflammation of the brain and bowels was the cause of death. Funeral services were conducted in the M. E. church at 2 o'clock, Friday afternoon by Rev. R. A. Buzza. The little body was laid to rest in Riverside cemetery at this place.

"Asleep in Jesus. Blessed sleep From which none ever wake to weep. A calm and undisturbed repose Unbroken by the least of foes, Asleep in Jesus far from these, Thy kingdom and their graves may be, But thine is still a blessed sleep From which none ever wake to weep." FRIEND.

Kremis, Mercer county, Pa. We believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best remedy in use. We use it in our own families, and it is a favorite among our customers. Hecker Bros. & Co., 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by G. W. Boward.

Minutes seem like hours when a life is at stake. Prompt attention to send for a doctor, delay may mean death. One Minute Cough Cure gives instant relief and insures recovery. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. Health & Killmer.

Constipation in its worst forms, dyspepsia, sick headache, biliousness and derangement of the liver are readily cured by DeWitt's Little Early Risers. These little pills never grip. Small pill, safe pill, best pill. Health & Killmer.

One of the most remarkable cures of rheumatism on record is related by Mr. J. M. Thompson, post master at Decker's Point Pa., as follows: "While out driving one day last winter I was seized with a cold rain. The next morning I was unable to move my head or arms, owing to an attack of inflammatory rheumatism. My clerk, a student at a physician, but suggested that I use Chamberlain's Pain Balm, there being a bottle open on the counter. He rubbed the affected parts thoroughly with the balm, and I felt up a hot fire. I dozed off to sleep and when I awoke about half an hour later the pain had gone entirely, and I have not been troubled since. Please come here from many miles around to buy Chamberlain's medicines." For sale by G. W. Boward.

One thing is certain: It will not do to fool with a bad cold. No one can tell what the end will be. Pneumonia, catarrh, chronic bronchitis, if not cured, invariably result from a neglected cold. It is surprising, too, that bad colds are neglected when one remembers how easily and at what little expense they can be cured. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is always prompt and effective. It costs but 25 or 50 cents as a trifle as compared with the disastrous effects of a neglected cold. Mr. Abner Morser of Delmar, Chester county, Pa., in speaking of this remedy, said: "Sometime ago I had a bad cold and cough. I tried almost everything. Finally Mr. Hunt, the druggist, recommended Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and one 50 cent bottle of it cured me entirely." For sale by G. W. Boward.
