The best evening ties are those that keep a man at home after dark.—Ez.

Ladies, examine the new table linen at Robinson's before purchasing elsewhere.

—Easter Sunday will come on April 18th this year, March 3rd being the beginning of Lent.

The regular preaching services will be held in the M. E. church at this place next Sunday at 11:00 a. m., instead of in the evening.

If people could see their obituaries while they are still living, it would encourage them so much that they might live longer.—Ez.

The seventh annual tournament of the Pennsylvania State Sportsman's Association will be held in Oil City on June 22 and 25, inclusive.

An exchange says: "Very often a girl's disdainful shrug of her shoulders may be traced to a combination of red flannels and buckwheat cakes."

Next Sunday will be St. Valentine's day. Just think of the suspense the girls will have to bear on account of having to wait until the post office opens on Monday.

The groundhog is not doing the proper caper this year. If he got a "skate" aboard and was not able to see his shadow on the 2d inst., it was not the fault of Old Sol.

The REPUBLICAN acknowledges the receipt of a handsomely framed picture of the Hon. Boies Penrose, the recently elected United States Senator from Pennsylvania.

An exchange says: "The latest cure for dyspepsia is going without breakfast. The peculiarity of this remedy is that no man is so poor but that he can receive treatment."

The Children's Aid Society of Forest Co. want homes for two children, sisters, aged 8 and 10 years. Address Mrs. T. F. Ritchey, Tionesta, or Mrs. S. S. Towler, Marienville.

It has been reported lately that there were "spooks" around the W. N. Y. P. depot, but we are informed that they have left, so no one will have to "Chase" them any more.

Following is the list of letters remaining unclaimed for in the Tionesta post office Feb. 10, 1897: Brown, B.; Blanchard, N. E.; Cousins, Miss Viola; Campell, Mrs. C. G. R. L. Haslet, P. M.

Lost, last Thursday on the road between Tionesta and Nebraska, a pocket book containing money, a finger ring, etc. The finder will be suitably rewarded by leaving same at this office.

If any of our friends would like a copy of the State agricultural report for 1895 they are invited to call at the REPUBLICAN office and get same. A few copies are left and will be given out as long as they last.

Dangerous counterfeit half dollars are in circulation. They are dated 1895 and are a close imitation of the genuine. The counterfeit is bright, the work nicely executed, but it doesn't give the true ring when thrown down.

The weather for the past week has been very mild but the sleighing is very good yet, although the ice went out of the river on Monday afternoon. It had not frozen very thick and went out very easily, doing no damage whatever at this place.

An entertainment will be given in the Court House on the evening of Washington's birthday, Feb. 22, under the joint auspices of the G. A. R., W. R. C., and the Literary Society. An elaborate program, consisting of recitations, music and drills is being prepared.

Someone expresses wonder that we have so many old maid school teachers. An exchange accounts for it in a way that demonstrates the wisdom of the school-masters. It says they do not care to give up a $40-a-month job for a $15-a-month one. They have more authority in a school room than they would have in most households.

YOU AND YOUR FRIENDS.

—E. E. Clapp of President was a business visitor to Tionesta on Saturday.

—Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Adams, of New Castle, are guests of C. A. Hill and family.

—Miss Lietza Randall returned last Friday from a week's visit with friends in Bradford.

—Mrs. Wilbur McKean of Nebraska was a guest of Mrs. Wm. Thomson during the past week.

—Mrs. S. S. Canfield returned Saturday from Titusville, where she had been visiting relatives for a couple of weeks.

—District Attorney P. M. Clark and T. F. Ritchey, Esq., were over from Tionesta Monday and Tuesday.—Marienville Express.

—Mr. Wm. Hood returned last evening from Canal, Venango Co., where he went to attend the funeral of his cousin, Mrs. Wm. Rice.

—Bruce Clark, who is telegraph operator at Kinross, was visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Clark, of this place during the past week.

—Gus, B. Evans and Harvey Lynch of Stowtown were visitors to Tionesta last Wednesday and were pleasant callers at the REPUBLICAN office.

—H. E. Bateman, of Oil City, is in town this week putting the finishing touches on a lot of new cutters and bugles for Swouden & Clark.

—Average daily attendance of children in the public schools is highest in Pennsylvania, being 779,000, while in the State of New York it is 757,000.

—Postmaster R. L. Haslet departed last evening for a month's visit through the South. He will take in the principal cities of the Carolinas, Georgia and Florida.

—A. D. Neill and F. C. Betts, two of Marienville's prominent citizens were visitors to the county seat on Friday and were pleasant callers at the REPUBLICAN office.

—Mrs. Maggie Glasner, who has been ill at the residence of her brother, P. Emer, of this place, for some time past, has sufficiently recovered from her illness to be able to return to the home of her father on German Hill.

—Z. T. Shriver claims that he drives the best and fastest horse that comes into Tionesta. Here is a chance for an argument, but don't use this paper as a medium through which to settle it, as we haven't the space to spare.

—Wm. Puffenburg, a well known and respected resident of Kelleitville, this county, died at the home of his son, A. J. Puffenburg, at Pittsburg last Thursday. Deceased was aged about 65 years and was born and raised about two miles above Franklin, Venango county, and in his younger days was well known in the oil country. He went to Pittsburg a few weeks ago to have a tumor removed from the side of his head and it was thought that the operation had been successfully performed and he had been removed from the hospital to the home of his son, who says that he seemed to feel better than he had for some time past, but he was stricken with paralysis which resulted in his death. He was buried at Cherrytree, Venango county, on Saturday. He leaves a wife, two sons and two daughters to mourn his death. We are without further particulars.

—Joseph Wuerzger, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wuerzger of Whig Hill, died at his home last Wednesday, Feb. 3, 1897, aged about 25 years. About three years ago the young man contracted a severe cold which settled on his lungs and from which he never recovered. About two years ago he was taken to the Oil City hospital for treatment and an operation which he underwent resulted in the discovery that an abscess had formed on his lungs and that medical aid was out of the question. The young man was brought home and he has been expected to die at any time ever since, and physicians are at a loss to understand how he lived as long as he did. Previous to his illness he was a steady, industrious and popular young man. The bereaved relatives have the sympathy of all their friends. The remains were interred in the M. E. church yard on Whig Hill on Friday afternoon, the funeral services being conducted by Rev. J. E. Hillard.

—February is certainly an important month for the American people, as it contains the birthdays of those two great liberators, Abraham Lincoln and George Washington. It is especially important this year on account of the fact that it closes up the Democratic administration.

—There is to be a Congress of Mothers, Feb. 17 to 19, inclusive, to be held at Washington. It will be the first national meeting of the kind ever held. Several localities in this section will be represented. Mrs. Noyes, wife of Judge Noyes, will be the delegate from the Mothers' Club of Warren, Pa.

—Miss Celia J. Ferris, a returned missionary from India gave a lecture on missionary work in India in the F. M. church last Saturday evening to a large and appreciative audience. Miss Ferris is an entertaining speaker and all present were well pleased with her lecture and with the numerous curios which she exhibited.

—Amalier is still doing business at the old stand, so when you want anything in the line of confectionery, cigars, tobacco, tropical fruit, vegetables or oysters, just give him a call and get the best that is in the market at rock bottom prices. Don't forget the news depot. All the standard magazines and story papers constantly on hand. Agent for the Buffalo Daily Express.

—A young man in Holland took his girl out driving, and she fell out and he drove a mile or two before he noticed that she was missing, whereupon an exchange thinks as follows: "You can bet that such a thing would never happen in this country. The horse might fall out of the shaft and never be missed, but the girl fall out of the buggy and not be missed—never."

—Prof. R. N. Speer, principal of the Tionesta High School, will conduct a select school in this place beginning May 10, and closing July 2, 1897, and an excellent course of study is advertised through circulars issued from this office. Mr. J. M. Kahle, of Oil City, agent for Jacob Sheastey's music store, will act as Prof. Speer's solicitor, and anyone desiring information can obtain same from Mr. Kahle or by writing to Prof. Speer.

Evidently a Tough Crowd.

A short time ago mention was made in our columns of the capture of a gang of burglars who had committed a number of robberies, in Jenks township, this county, and in portions of Elk and McKean counties. Three of the gang were captured at that time and lodged in the county jail at this place. A few days later a woman at the name of Haines supposed to be connected with the gang was brought to this place and lodged in jail. It has since come to light that Mrs. Haines was the wife of Lewis Haines, whose charred remains were found in a burned shanty in Jones township, Elk Co., about the 21st of last December and the condition of affairs seemed to point quite strongly toward foul play and detectives have been working on the case with the result that evidence enough was found to place suspicion upon Fred H. Rockwell, one of the prisoners in the Tionesta jail.

Coroner A. Muhlhaup, of Elk county, impelled a jury to investigate the case last Monday and after securing what evidence he could there, the jury was brought here yesterday morning and the prisoners in the jail were examined, and the verdict of the jury in brief, was that "Lewis Haines came to his death on or before the 21st day of December, 1896, by being struck on the head with a blunt instrument in the hands of one Fred H. Rockwell." It is probable that Rockwell will be taken to Elk county and tried for murder when he gets through with the court in this county. If the verdict at that time coincides with the verdict of the coroner's jury Forest county will have cause to rejoice in the fact that the case belongs to Elk county.

It has been the disposition of the people of this vicinity to be rather lenient with the parties connected with the petty robberies with which they were charged in the first place, but if it should be proven that there is a disposition on the part of some of them to take human life, everybody will be glad that the gang is caged and it is to be hoped that they will get their just deserts.

W. A. Buzard of Byromtown and Chas. J. Burg of Daring came to town last evening and swore out warrants before "Squire" C. A. Randall charging Fred H. and Robt. Rockwell and John J. Newell, three of the gang, with burglary. The previous charge, made by M. F. Sanger, of Lynchburg, was larceny. This makes charges enough against the crowd to send them out of the way for some time. The defendants plead guilty to both charges.

—Mrs. C. S. Kirchoff and children returned Saturday from a three weeks' visit with her husband's parents at Beaver Falls. She was accompanied from Oil City by her husband, who is working in Brodia Bros' cigar factory at that place, where the celebrated "Swansdown" cigar is now being manufactured, the aroma of one of which we are enjoying as we write. Come up again Charley, for if there is anything we like better than a Swansdown, it is two Swansdowns.

—Members of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows will be interested in a new law enacted at the last session of the Sovereign Grand Lodge. Heretofore when a member of any subordinate or grand lodge wished to visit a lodge outside of his own jurisdiction, he was obliged to procure from his lodge a visiting card, at an extra expense. Under the new law subordinate lodges are all compelled to keep a form of receipt, which every member is entitled to have on the payment of a quarter's dues, this receipt admitting him to any lodge in the United States, providing of course, he has the other necessary qualifications.

—The personal property of the Acme Extract Co. was sold by Sheriff Walker Wednesday. The attorney for the trustee bought in everything sold, the total amount of the sale reaching over $33,000, and was within a few hundred dollars of being enough to satisfy the judgments.

—The next convention of the Oil City District Chapter of the Endeavor Local Union will be held in Tionesta on Friday evening, Feb. 19th. The union is now composed of 20 societies and has a membership of nearly 1,000. A business meeting will be conducted by Rev. S. A. Cornelius of Oil City, and the evening meeting will be addressed by the Rev. W. Y. Creators, of Marienville. Heads of local officers for the coming term will take place at the evening meeting. Arrangements are being made to run a special train, leaving at 7 and returning after the meeting. The fare will be 50 cents for the round trip. An invitation is extended to all Christian Endeavors and their friends to attend the convention and spend an evening in Tionesta.—Derwick.

Tionesta Rangers, Attention.

There will be a meeting of the Monumental Committee of the Rangers at the residence of Capt. D. S. Knox at Tionesta, Pa., on Tuesday, Feb. 22, 1 o'clock, p. m. sharp. Said committee is composed of the following comrades: D. S. Knox, Chairman, Wm. Lawrence, Henry C. Miley, Black Hawk, Pa. J. Jamieson, N. Y.; T. J. VanGiesen, Leechburg, Pa.; A. P. McCalum, President, Pa.; J. H. Berlin, Whig Hill, Pa.; W. Albright, East Hickory, Pa.; W. P. Siggins, West Hickory, Pa. All comrades are invited to be present. By request of D. S. Knox, Chairman.

J. ALBRIGHT, Sec.

Not long ago a farmer who lives three miles from here, came to my store before breakfast and bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He said that his little boy had a bad cold, and as they had used what they had in the house his wife would not let him go to plow until he could get another bottle. The little boy who was with him remarked: "Now I will soon be well, for Chamberlain's 'cough' medicine always cures my little boy's cold." He said that in speaking of this remedy Mr. McKelroy says people come far and wide to his store to get it, and many of them would not know what to do without it. For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by G. W. Bovard.

A Reminder of Army Life.

Mr. Lou Smith, editor of the Commercial, Meyersdale, Pa., says: "A chronic diarrhoea that returns at frequent intervals, as a reminder of army life, has been more effectively controlled by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy than any other I have ever used. It possesses true merit." For sale by G. W. Bovard.

All the different forms of skin troubles, from chapped hands to eczema and indolent ulcers can be readily cured by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, the great pile cure. Heath & Killmer.

Organization of W. R. C. at Hickory.

As was announced in a recent issue of this paper, the ladies of West Hickory, assisted by ladies from Tionesta and Tidoute, organized a relief corps, auxiliary to Eli Berlin Post, No. 629, last Friday evening. One of the first things on the program was an elegant supper, served in the well decorated dining-room of the Globe Hotel, the menu consisting of viands decidedly delicious and delicate to be enumerated by your scribe in a bill of fare fashion. Suffice it to say, several hundred beside myself were fed and the store of estates still remained unexhausted. Supper over, all assembled in Green's Hall and were entertained with singing, speeches, martial music and the usual ceremonies attendant upon the installation of officers.

The officers installed were as follows: President, Miss Fannie Siggins; Senior Vice President, Mrs. Emma Siggins; Junior Vice President, Miss Delva Keiler; Secretary, Miss Justina Siggins; Treasurer, Mrs. Ida Moutin; Chaplain, Mrs. Alice Siggins; Conductor, Mrs. Mary Hood; Assistant Conductor, Mrs. C. Bender; Guard, Miss D. Carson; Assistant Guard, Miss A. Sutley.

Prominent among those making speeches were Messrs. Siggins, Mervin, Robinson, Irwin, Hill, Dean, Lusher and Morrow. Mrs. Cummings talked briefly on the objects of the Relief Corps. The speeches were all interesting and well received. A point made very prominent by the gentlemen who spoke was the fact of their great love for the relief corps in general, and for the ladies of this corps in particular. Indeed, so clearly was the point established that our townsman, Mr. A. J. Siggins, was excused from making a speech entirely on the ground that his love of the ladies was so well known by all present that his proclaiming the same from the rostrum would be an unnecessary waste of valuable time.

The music as produced by the drum corps was good, and the singing—well, to make a long story short, when the choir and nearly every one present sang "Marching Through Georgia" and "Yankee Doodle" I could hardly hold myself, and when they sang "John Brown's Body" (notwithstanding my former inability to sing and the fact that notes have always been to me as hieroglyphics on an Egyptian temple) I lost control of myself and broke forth, as I supposed, into melody. Indeed, I might have gone on supposing so to my dying day had it not been for a little incident that occurred at the close of the piece; it was when the last word of the piece was reached and the rest all stopped and I went on that I discovered there was a gentleman near me who had been producing the melodious sounds I had attributed to myself, and that the inimitable noises I was crediting him with, had had their origin distressingly near my own larynx.

A vote of thanks was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Moutin, Mrs. Cummings, and, indeed, all who had assisted in making the affair a complete success. The receipts of the evening were $37.40.

Muscular Rheumatism Promptly Relieved.

Mr. J. K. Holton, a well known druggist of Oxford, Pa., says he sometimes suffers with muscular rheumatism, and while having one of the most painful attacks, he called a W. T. J. Brown's drug store, and Mr. Brown advised him to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, he did so, and it gave him immediate relief. Pain Balm is also recommended for rheumatism by Mr. E. W. Wheeler of Luthers Mills, Pa., who has used it and found it an excellent remedy. If troubled with rheumatism give it a trial. It is certain to relieve and insure recovery. The only harmless remedy that produces immediate results. Heath & Killmer.

A torpid liver means a bad complexion, bad breath, indigestion and frequent headaches. To avoid such companions take DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills. Heath & Killmer.
