As good as ever, only broken sizes. Selling out at Miles & Armstrong's.

Four things cannot come back—the spoken word, the sped arrow, the past life and the neglected opportunity.—Ex.

A large sled load of people from Hickory passed through town last Wednesday evening on their way to Nebraska.

The Clearfield postoffice was blown open by burglars last Wednesday morning, and $240 in cash and $1,000 worth of stamps stolen.

R. J. Thompson, who is one of the teachers in the M. E. Sunday School, took his class to Nebraska for a sleigh ride one evening last week.

Henry Maths lost a new clevis on the road between Tionesta and Tubbs Run. Anyone finding same will confer a favor on the owner by returning it.

Tionesta has the reputation of being a very healthy place, and it is. But the grip is no respecter of persons or places and it is the fact here now. Everybody's got it.

The libel case brought against P. C. Boyle, editor of the Oil City Derrick, by L. Emery, Jr., of Bradford, for damages in the sum of $50,000 has been settled out of court.

Sleighting parties have been the rage for the past few weeks and nearly every evening large loads of our citizens have gone either to Nebraska or Pleasantville to attend the revival meetings.

Honey bees have been known to go five or six miles from their hive to secure honey, but that is no reason that the young men of Tionesta should go out of town to get a girl, if they want such a luxury.

It will pay sheep raisers, says an exchange, to give some thought to the statement that a lamb weighing eighty pounds will bring more money than a full-grown sheep, providing it gets into the market early.

The ladies of the W. R. C. of Hickory will drive down to this place this afternoon and will be the guests of the Tionesta corps this evening, and the president urgently requests a full attendance of the members at 7:30 sharp.

Wm. Blum of German Hill had the misfortune to break one of the bones of his left leg just above the ankle last Saturday while skidding ties near his home. Dr. Bowman reduced the fracture and Mr. Blum is getting along nicely.

One of Tionesta's young ladies and her "steady" were preparing to take a sleigh ride the other day and another young lady was kindly asked to accompany them. After a moment's hesitation the latter said: "If we both go how is he going to drive?"

The local paper is supposed to print all the news, but if they printed all the drunks, scraps, family rackets, etc., what a howl there would be. You never know the value of the home paper until you want something kept out of its columns, then the editor is the best fellow in town.—Ex.

Gottlieb Riethmuller, one of the junior trustees of the Economic society, died at Economy on last Wednesday morning of Bright's disease. The death of Mr. Riethmuller leaves only ten members of the Harmony society. The funeral will take place at Economy Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society held a thank offering meeting in the Presbyterian church last Saturday afternoon and a large number of the ladies of the society were present. After the regular meeting a reception was given to all the lady members of the church, a large number of whom were present. A light lunch was served and a very enjoyable afternoon was had by those present. The Tionesta society is over 20 years old.

Miss Hattie Carpenter, who has been with W. G. Wyman and mother for some time past, has sufficiently recovered from her recent illness to be able to return to her grandmother, Mrs. Hattie Record, at Cochran, Pa.

J. W. Green, of Sugar Run, came down Monday to see Tionesta friends and to have Dr. Frank S. Hunter do some dental work for him. Dr. Hunter has not been practicing long, but he is gaining a wide reputation as a first-class dentist.

Mrs. John Holtz and Mrs. John Gottschalk drove over from Pleasantville on Monday and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Huling. While here the ladies were shown through the court house and jail and seemed to be well pleased with our county buildings.

Jas. D. Davis was taken with a severe attack of pneumonia while on his way home from Harrisburg last Friday, and was obliged to take his bed at Warren, where he is receiving excellent care at the home of his uncle, W. A. Greaves. At last accounts he was progressing fairly well and it is thought his fever is under control.

W. A. Mitchell, a prominent insurance man of Warren, Pa., and well known throughout this portion of Pennsylvania, died at Erie on Monday night, following an operation for appendicitis, which attacked him on Sunday while traveling. He was about 42 years of age and was born in Venon o county. He was formerly a partner of C. M. Shawkey in the insurance business.

A dozen or more of Pleasantville's fair daughters drove over to this place yesterday under the chaperonage of Mrs. Samuel Wilson. The party registered at the Central House, then proceeded to view the town. Taking this party as a criterion Pleasantville must have lots of pretty and jolly girls. Had they been "on the mash" none of them would have had any difficulty in securing an escort home, judging from the way some of our young men "rubbernecked."

Death of Mrs. Phillip Wolf.

Mrs. Barbara Wolf, wife of Phillip Wolf, of Wolf's Corners, died at her home last Friday, Feb. 12, 1897, at the advanced age of 78 years. She had always been in good health and was unusually robust for one of her years, but a short time ago caught a severe cold, which resulted in a gripple and caused her death. She was born in Germany and came from Lancaster county to this vicinity over fifty years ago with her husband and has resided near where she died ever since and has always held the esteem of her acquaintances. She was a sister of Mr. Adam Emert of German Hill and was well known and respected in this immediate neighborhood. Besides her husband, who is past 90 years of age, she leaves four sons and four daughters to mourn her loss. The funeral was held in the Lutheran church near Newmanville, the services being conducted by Rev. Wonders. It was one of the largest funerals ever known in that vicinity, over sixty sleighs filled with people accompanying the remains to their last resting place in the Wolf burying ground which is near the home where she had so long resided.

The weather for the past three days has been extremely fine and sunny and has been rather hard on the snow, but a little more of the beautiful fell yesterday and sleds are still running. The number of ties being shipped from this place does not seem to indicate that the timber is all gone, as some people think.

Considerable petty stealing has been going on lately and cellars, chickencoops and barns have been the favorite haunts of the thieves. S. J. Wolcott, who lives on what is known as the Noble place, about three and one-half miles above town had a number of his robes stolen from his barn last Monday morning, and County Commissioner White-man of West Tionesta had a robe stolen from his barn on the same morning.

W. A. Grove is the teacher of the Bible class in the M. E. Sunday School of this place and he treated his scholars to a sleigh ride on Sunday evening by taking about forty of them to Nebraska to attend the revival meeting which is being conducted at that place. "Ab," says he will never try it again, for he had more "son sarned" trouble getting the old "kids" together and making them behave themselves after they got started, than anyone can imagine.

Mr. Charles Newton Hood, the popular poet, author and humorist, is to appear in readings from his own work, at the Court House, next Tuesday evening, Feb. 23, under the joint auspices of the Y. P. S. C. E. and the Epworth League. Mr. Hood comes very highly commended as a writer of known merit and as an accomplished reader, and the people of Tionesta should see to it that he is greeted by a full house, as the net receipts will go for the benefit of the societies under whose auspices he is coming.

Why don't the borough authorities have a street light placed on Bridge street, midway between Elm street and the bridge? That is the most dismal street in town and just now the light is needed so that pedestrians can see to crawl over the ice and snow on the walk on that street. We don't know what the people would do if it was not for the ordinance that compels (?) the property holders to keep the sidewalks clear of snow and ice. We've got an excellent lot of municipal legislators. Wonder what the two new ones will do.

The Christian Endeavor societies of Oil City and vicinity will go to Tionesta on next Friday evening by special train, leaving here at 7 o'clock sharp. Those having the excursion in charge have guaranteed 100 passengers to the W. N. Y. & P. company, but it is thought that twice that number will attend. The fare for the round trip has been fixed at 60 cents.—Derrick. The members of the Tionesta society and their friends will entertain the visitors at lunch after the Friday evening meeting. Delegates from Hickory, Marienville, Redelyffe and other sections of the county are also expected.

Landers & Wyman of this place have just closed a deal with the Minnesota Oil Co., of St. Paul for the purchase of a tract of land in Allegheny Twp., Venango Co. The tract contains 134 acres, 60 acres of which are covered with oak and pine timber. This same piece of land was conveyed in 1855 to Wm. Windom (late Sec. of Treas. under Pres. Harrison) for the Minnesota Oil Co. at a consideration of $65,000. The price paid by Landers & Wyman was $2,100. This shows considerable of a discrepancy in the estimated value of land in this section during the early oil excitement and the present time.

The spring election was pulled off as per schedule yesterday, and everything was very quiet. The voters took proper action and voted for the best men, consequently the entire Republican ticket was elected, which was expected, as that party is largely in the ascendancy, both in the borough and county. Following are the officers elected: Burgess, C. K. Heath; Council, J. T. Dale, W. F. Blum; School directors, Patrick Joyce, Leonard Agnew; Collector, Frank P. Amsler; High Constable, W. L. Hunter; Judge of Election, Jerry Birtell; Inspector of Election, J. R. Chadwick; Overseer of Poor, J. R. Osgood; Auditor, F. S.; Hunter.

Constable W. L. Hunter had a poser on Monday morning. There is a borough ordinance compelling tramps who apply for lodging in the lockup to break stone for a certain time to pay for their lodging and breakfast. On Sunday night there were three weary wanderers who wanted a place to sleep and one of them was a woman. When the scheduled time for the stone breaking exercises arrived Mr. Hunter was in quite a quandry to know what to do with the hobo in petticoats. After a moment's thought he remarked: "I guess we will let you off this time. You can just take a waltz across the bridge, but don't show up in this beautiful burg again or you will have an opportunity to display your ability to swing the sledge."

Fire destroyed the barn belonging to Nathaniel Emert, who lives on the Shultz farm, about two miles up Hunter run from this place, last Saturday. None of the family were at home when the fire started, but neighbors saw the smoke and arrived at the scene in time to save the stock and a part of the feed in the barn. One cow was quite badly burned and the hay and barn were a total loss, with no insurance. Mr. Emert had just finished paying for the farm and was expecting to make some improvements on his home during the coming summer had it not been for this misfortune. No cause can be attributed for the starting of the fire and Mr. Emert says that he does not know that he has an enemy in world, consequently does not think that it was incendiary origin.

Green Township Greenies.

Miss Rosa Ikenburg is paying her sister, Mrs. E. L. Dewoodly, of Fox Creek, a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Patterson drove over to Tionesta on Tuesday of last week. The big meeting at Nebraska is proving a grand success.

Do not be surprised if you hear the peals of wedding bells in the near future. Wallace Inhoff resigned his position with J. A. Jones on Wednesday of last week, to accept a better one. We wish good luck to him wherever he goes. What we lose some one gains.

Mrs. J. A. Jones is up and around again, after her illness.

It is bad that people can't travel the highways any more without being insulted. It ought to be looked after.

Mrs. Frank Hindman is on the sick list, but is not dangerous, we hear.

Mr. Brewster is the possessor of a fine new sleigh.

E. L. Dewoodly's wound is so that he can walk without the aid of crutches.

Mr. H. A. Dotterer and Conrad Ikenburg were down to Fox Creek two days last week.

Mrs. D. R. Rupert is on the sick list, we hear.

We hear that there is a white rabbit near here with harness on.

Mr. T. M. Bly is working for Jones as present.

It is fun for us old folks that have been in love to look at others that are in love. H. A. Dotterer has been tendered the position of toll keeper on the new bridge at Bear Creek.

Our foreman would like to have a contest with any man in the county to see who could eat the most eggs. Loser to pay for eggs at so much a piece.

We are glad to hear that P. S. Moore is going to contract for the peeling of the hemlock bark at Fox Creek. Well, he would be the right person in the right place.

J. A. Jones boasts of having the best crew of men of any loller in Forest or adjoining counties. He says that they can cut and peg more pine than any crew of the same size in the county, or he will put up $50 that his saw will average 31 M. feet per hour.

Wm. Patterson, E. L. Dewoodly's foreman, claims that he drives the strongest team that ever walked.

Not long ago a farmer who lives three miles from here, came to my store before breakfast and bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He said that his little boy had a bad cold, and as they had used what they had in the house his wife would not let him go to plow until he came and got another bottle. The little boy was with him remarked: "Now I will soon be well, for Chamberlain's 'cough' medicine always cures me." R. C. McElroy, Black Hawk, Pa. In speaking of this remedy Mr. McElroy says people come far and wide to his store to get it, and many of them would not know what to do without it. For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by G. W. Bovard.

A Reminder of Army Life.

Mr. Lou Smith, editor of the Commercial, Meyerdale, Pa., says: "A chronic diarrhoea that returns at frequent intervals, as a reminder of army life, has been more effectively controlled by Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy than any other I have ever used. It possesses true merit." For sale by G. W. Bovard.
