Monday was the first day of March and it came very much lion-like. Between this prediction and the one of the groundhog the weather question ought to be settled.

Don't forget Amsler. He is doing business right at the old stand, and when you want confectionery, cigars or tobacco, you can always get the best for the least from him.

The newly elected Justices of the Peace, in order to be duly commissioned, must file notice of their acceptance of the office with the Prothonotary within thirty days of the time of their election.

Some person has truly said that a kindly heart and gentle disposition will make beauty out of plainness, while an irritable temper and domineering disposition will soon destroy womanly beauty.

A house occupied by Wm. Hopkins, near Newmansville, was totally destroyed by fire last Saturday. Everything was a total loss, there being no insurance. Mr. Hopkins was burned out at Nebraska about two years ago.

Have you pruned your grape vines? Don't put it off much longer or they will bleed to death. Prune back to two or three buds, cut all dead wood off, keep your vines as near the ground as possible and prune with an eye to beauty.

Don't be afraid of the knife, as the less bearing branches you leave the larger and finer will be the grapes.—Ez.

Of 1,000 men who marry, 332 marry younger women, 579 marry women of the same age, 89 marry older women and 1,000 marry more or less trouble." The foregoing from the Oil City Record was published in last week's REPUBLICAN.

The following was handed in by one of our readers. Of 1,000 women who marry the 1,000 men, 579 live lives of misery and degradation, 332 live quiet, comfortable and happy, 89 live in luxury and are beloved and cherished by their husbands.

—Two weeks from to-day and we will know whether the Corbett-Fitzsimmons affair will wind up in a continuation of the present "chewing match" or a genuine "scrap." The wish of the majority is that it will be the latter and that both participants will be knocked clean off the earth.

—The residence of John Myers, in Triumph Twp., just across the river from Tidioute, Warren county, was completely destroyed by fire Saturday morning, and almost everything in the house was burned. Mr. Myers is the father of M. C. Myers, son-in-law of Dan Walters, of this place.

—A bill has been introduced in the Pennsylvania Legislature to make voting compulsory on the part of every voter. An exchange truly says that if this sort of thing continues we will soon be so hedged about by laws that it will not be safe to go down to breakfast without first consulting an attorney.

—Some of our young men (who are evidently interested) took a census of the young people in Tionesta who are expected to enter into the mysterious realms of Hymen this coming spring, and the number agreed upon is fourteen. The sub editor wishes there was some way in which the number could be raised a "couple."

—So far as we know the Siggins' were the only family in this section celebrating Washington's birthday. Mrs. John Siggins entertained at dinner on Monday Mrs. Orion Siggins, Mrs. A. J. Siggins, Mrs. J. A. Turner and the Misses Jennie, Fannie and Justina Siggins of Hickory, and Miss Mary Siggins of Jamestown.—Tidioute News.

—Two well-known young men of this city developed unsuspected powers as pedestrians on Sunday night. They visited friends in Tionesta during the day, expecting to return home via the freight train which passes Tionesta on Sunday evening. The train passed all right, but at a 40-miles-an-hour gate and the young men were in a quandary.

—They had work to attend to bright and early Monday morning and there was only one way to reach home and that was to walk, and walk they did. The distance is 21 miles, the ties were rough and the night dark, but they reached here at daylight. If their employers noticed that they did not move about their places of business with usual alacrity yesterday this explanation will clear up the mystery and at the same time give the aforesaid employers an idea of the young men's devotion to duty.—Derrick.

Court Proceedings.

Although there were a large number of cases on the docket last week very few of them were finished and not much business was done beside what was reported in this paper last week.

In the case of Fred Rockwell, who pleaded guilty in the charge of burglary, the court suspended sentence, and Peter McMacken, high sheriff of Elk county, on presenting a warrant charging said Rockwell with the murder of Lewis Haines in said county of Elk, and giving bond in the sum of $500 for the safe return of said Rockwell to this county for sentence, should he not be convicted of the higher crime in Elk county, took charge of the prisoner and took him to Ridgway on Friday.

In the case of the Com. vs. John J. Newell and Robt. Rockwell, who also pleaded guilty to the charge of burglary, the court sentenced them each to four years on the first two indictments and three years on the third, making a total of eleven years, to be served consecutively in the State Industrial Reformatory at Huntington.

Com. vs. Anna Haines and Phoebe Rockwell, charged with receiving stolen goods, the former was sentenced to pay a fine of $5.00 and costs of prosecution and serve one year in the county jail at this place. Sentence was suspended in Mrs. Newell's case and she was taken to Ridgway, where she will be a witness in the murder case.

Com. vs. John McCloskey, W. F. Patterson, prosecutor, charge, adultery and rape. Grand jury found a true bill, but case was continued.

Com. vs. Archie Gillilan, same prosecutor, and same charge. Case continued. The Grand Jury reported that they had visited all county buildings and found everything in good shape with the exception of the plastering in sheriff's part of jail building, and recommended that plastering be repaired and the rooms papered. Also that strong wire network of small mesh be attached to windows of jail building on inside of iron bars. They also recommend that when it becomes necessary to rebuild the walks around the court house, that said walks be built of stone flagging.

Obituary. MARGARET MORRISON, whose maiden name was Calvin, was born in Adamsville, Crawford Co., Pa., June 30, 1836, and died at West Hickory, Forest Co., Pa., February 22, 1897, aged 70 years, 7 months and 22 days.

In the place where she was born she grew to womanhood. She received a good common school education, and taught in the common schools. In 1846 she was united in marriage with Dr. S. P. Morrison, who then resided in Sewickley brook, now a part of Allegheny city, Pa. She with her husband after their marriage resided in Evansburg, Crawford Co. Later they removed from there, and Dr. Morrison died at Millidgeville, Mercer Co., in 1874. In 1888 Mrs. Morrison went to Pittsfield, Warren Co., Pa., and from there she came to West Hickory where she has resided for the past two years.

Eight children were born to Dr. and Mrs. Morrison. Seven boys and one girl. Four of these children are now living: Charles W. Morrison of North Clarendon, Pa.; C. S. Morrison; S. W. Morrison and E. E. Morrison, both of West Hickory, Pa.

When quite young she became a member of the United Presbyterian Church, and has since lived, and has died, in the faith of her early girlhood. When not where she could have the privileges of her own chosen church home she worshipped with those of another name, esteeming it a privilege as well as regarding it a duty; as she said more than once to the writer of this brief memoir.

On Wednesday afternoon funeral services, conducted by Rev. J. E. Hillard, were held in the M. E. Church at West Hickory, and, afterward, the body interred in the Hickory Cemetery on the East Side.

—Come and look at our new stock. We enjoy showing it. Prices are low at Miles & Armstrong's.

—For those who believe in the fatality of the number "13" the American quarter dollar is about the most unlucky article they can carry on their persons. On this coin there 13 stars, 13 letters in the scroll which the eagle holds in its claws, 13 feathers in its wing, 13 feathers in its tail, there are 13 parallel lines on shield, 13 horizontal stripes, 13 arrow heads and 13 letters in the words "quarter dollar." But we are not superstitious and four quarters are just as acceptable to us as a dollar in any good United States coin for a year's subscription to the REPUBLICAN.

—Ladies, drop in and see our sweaters for ladies and misses, also men and boys. Miles & Armstrong.

—The statement is just as true of a community as it is of a man. No community prospers by luck or accident. There is always a reason for what may at first glance seem like mere chance. A town becomes the home of a great industry because it has something which induces the capitalist to invest his money at that practical place. If we have any advantage or inducement to present they should be brought to the front and urged upon the attention of prospective investors. We cannot afford as a community, to patiently wait for something to turn up, for luck to drop a gig mill in our midst. We must go to work.—Ez.

Dangers of the Grip. The greatest danger from La Grippe is of its resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for La Grippe, we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventive of that dread disease. It will effect a permanent cure in less time than any other treatment. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by G. W. Boward.

One minute is all the time necessary to decide from personal experience that One Minute Cough Cure does what its name implies. Heath & Killmer.

From Cripple Creek. After the big fire in Cripple Creek I took a severe cold and tried many remedies without help, the cold only becoming more settled. After using three small bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, both the cough and cold left me, and in this high altitude it takes a merit-cure in less time than any other good.—G. H. Henderson, editor Daily Advertiser. For sale by G. W. Boward.

—W. A. Kribbs is on the sick list. Rev. Kulkimer, the F. M. minister on this circuit, is under Dr. Datar's care, being unable to attend to his duties as pastor.

—Wesley Whitehill's house was discovered on fire last Thursday and the blowing of the whistle at the tannery summoned the citizens to the scene. A few pails of water soon extinguished the flames.

—C. S. Wilson is visiting his uncle John Stover at Minister.

—Flora Miller visited her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Flynn, at Newtown Mills last week.

—W. H. H. Dotterer of Ross Run was up Saturday and stopped with his son Harry over night.

—The F. M. meeting closed here on Sunday evening. The minister, Rev. Berkimer, gave notice that a series of meetings would commence at Mayburg to-morrow evening.

—The Watson Lands Lumber Co. at Mayburg have commenced to erect a large dry house to be used in drying their lumber. The capacity will be 15,000 feet per day.

—And still the snow comes, thanks to Hicks, Cole, Wiggins and others. We are beginning to bear the local prophets say, "Didn't I tell you so."

—Mrs. J. G. Wolfe and daughter, Mrs. J. C. Welsh, and children visited at Jim Grove's and Geo. Paul's at Gulton Run on Saturday returning home on Sunday.

—Miss Emma Dotterer, who has been a sufferer from erysipelas for the past few months, is some better and is now able to move around some with the aid of an artificial limb, comely called a cane.

—H. L. Benett and wife were up to Cooper Tract over Sunday.

—Jakie Berlin, a gallant young cavalier, of Whig Hill, who supports a dashing turn-out, was in town on Sunday evening. Jakie seemed to be on the lookout for the lost art as he tethered his steed at the "Grove" back of town and jumping from his sleigh proceeded to feel the lay of the land. After remaining some time, Jakie seated himself in his rig and started at a sure-to-win gate, at the same time muttering under his breath that it was the most "Pierion" cold weather he ever saw, and the only game he could play was the solitary game of freeze-out. Poor lad.

In thinking that your readers Perhaps would like to know, About our recent election, We now will try to show.

One thing we wish to state, Perhaps you will know, That 'tis township is Republican, About a score or so.

I will now begin to relate. For the office of Judge of Election, We had two fine old candidates, Who are of the proper qualification.

J. B. Carpenter, the lucky man, Got the enormous vote of 72, While Wesley Whitehill has done all he can, For he got seventy, too.

Now this reads strang as you'll see, Doek was so firm he would not budge, And he had two of a majority, So now we call him Judge.

The next is Inspector of Election, A place so easily won; We have R. W. Burdick, who stands for protection, And G. S. Copeland for 16 to 1.

Now Township Treasurer next we see, With Chas. Bauer at seventy-eight, And B. J. Day at sixty-three. Now Bauer always ran at a furious rate.

I know that some will not agree And think me rather rank, For giving Chas. such a majority, Because he deposits in the Forest Co. Bank.

We wish to say and have them understand, We cannot see just how We have so many neighbors true and grand, Who offer their assistance now.

We've run our township all this time And never asked for help or fame, And now to think we're out of rhyme, Methinks it is a shame.

We thank those pilgrims true and wise, Who told us of our sad lot, And think hereafter we will rise, And sing them with their own shot.

Then comes Commissioner of Highway; O. P. Lemon had seventy-four; Next A. H. Downing, by the way, Had sixty and six more.

Auditor, J. G. Richards, don't you see, Had seventy and seven; For his opponent, Berlin, R. D., Lacked some of reaching seventh heaven.

For School Directors there were four, Who were all good men, I know, Wm. Richards heads the list; he couldn't ask for more.

And C. Zoundel, he wasn't so slow, I. C. Delo eight and forty had; Now Cal., he ran a grand light, H. A. Zoundel, grand old lad, Was also out of sight.

Overseer of the Poor, (mark one), So the ballot says; John Watson is the lucky one, For about three hundred days.

J. A. Zoundel, spelled with a G., Was on the ticket and in the wreck; He ran as hard as could be, Until he got it in the neck.

For Tax Collector, our present one, With the usual vote or more; J. M. Zoundel, whose count was 81, And G. S. Copeland with 64.

Township Clerk, now let me see; A good big vote was cast, G. W. Osgood had forty-four, A record that will forever last.

R. J. Flynn had ninety-two, Now there's no use in talkin', All you will have to do, Is to say he had a walk-in.

Patrimasters, well, 15 were all that sought fame, Which time and space will not agree, To mention each by name, For none of them are me.

I think this ticket good and sound, And on it will stake my socks; For no better can be found, With the exception of yours, WILL WALKS.

Wanted.—Timber Land. From 1,000 to 5,000 acres hemlock timber land that will cut 10,000 to 15,000 feet per acre. Land to be located in either Forest or Jefferson county, Pa. Will pay $20 to $25 per acre. BLACK & GOSNOLD, Pittsburg, Pa.
