

PRESIDENT MCKINLEY'S platform said, "The question of rates is a practical question, to be governed by the condition of times and of production." This ought to be a sufficient answer to the free-traders who are now so exercised to learn the rates of the new tariff law, whether they are to be "high" or "low." But nothing ever is a sufficient answer to the free-traders, nothing ever can end their empty clamor, not even such a landslide as struck them last November.

It is a matter of history, accessible to everybody who will post himself, that shipping was protected in the foreign carrying trade by tariff from the foundation of the Government of the United States until 1828. It is a protection that will yield a revenue to the Government if foreign ships continue to bring our imports to us, and one that will give employment to American ships if it does not yield the Government any revenue. So it is clear that it partakes of the self same system of protection that other industries subjected to foreign competition in the home market receive.

ONE of the small American industries that has been practically ruined by the Gorman-Wilson tariff is that of fishing tackle, especially the manufacture of "flies." In England the "flies" cost, to manufacture, one shilling per gross, while here the cost of the same quality of "flies" is one dollar per gross, the difference being entirely due to the difference in the cost of labor. As a matter of fact "flies" are practically admitted free of duty, being allowed entry under the heading of "loose fish hooks," at 35 per cent. ad valorem, which is the same rate as is charged on the oodlewars or fish hook wire from which the "flies" are made in this country. The work used to be done mainly by girls living in the country, who were thus enabled to earn as much as ten and twelve dollars a week while living at home. But under the era of Democratic "Tariff Reform," these girls are practically penniless.

In an extended article on the wholesale slaughter of birds in this and other countries for the purposes largely of feminine adornment the Philadelphia Inquirer very truthfully says: The country is being scourged from one end to the other to gratify the longing of hunters for birds, and of women for gay headgear. Let some few women of Paris decide that there shall be no more birds on millinery, and straightway women the world over will follow the fashion, without one thought as to the suffering that they have inflicted and the beauty they have helped to take from the landscape. Even if the question is looked upon from a matter of fact standpoint, it can readily be understood what injury is being done to many interests through the wholesale slaughter. We are beginning to realize the evil that has been wrought by the destruction of our forests, and we can see that in a similar way harm has been done to crops through the killing of birds that were the enemies of destructive insects. The epicure who makes a dish of bobolinks, and so swallows a whole synonymy of melody, the members of gun clubs who want to distinguish themselves for marksmanship, the hunter who only wants to kill something and the woman who carries a hole aviary on her head, are equally culpable.

HAWAII'S POPULATION. An official census of Hawaii has been completed, and it affords an interesting insight into the population of the islands. The total inhabitants are 109,020. Of these two-thirds are males. Allegheny city is much more populous. Of the total number the natives and half-breeds are more than a third. The Chinese and Japanese swell the total, with the natives, to 58,500, leaving of all other nationalities less than 24,000. The Chinese, the Japanese, or the natives, either one, outnumber all the other inhabitants. The Americans on the island are about 3,000 while the Portuguese are five times as numerous. When it is remembered that there are fewer Americans in Hawaii than in any of two or three hundred little country towns of the United States that might be mentioned, and the islands are nearly two weeks' sail from American shores, the talk of annexing the islands to the United States appears in about the light it is entitled to. The annexation of 40,000 untamed Kanakas, 25,000 Japs, 21,000 Chinese, 15,000 Portuguese and a few thousand other nondescript of various ancestry, to get 3,000 Americans into the fold, looks different when the census is counted than when the matter is spoken of merely as the acquisition of a piece of new territory. The Hawaiian Islands have a commercial value to the United States in supplying a limited proportion of the sugar we use. But if we care to foster the best sugar industry, and make of it what we might, even that value would be lost from Hawaii. The islands are not American enough to be worth considering.

Joys of an Editor.

Editing a paper is a pleasant business—if you like it.

If it contains much political matter people won't have it.

If the type is large it don't contain much reading matter.

If we publish telegraphic reports, folks say they are nothing but lies.

If we omit them, we have no enterprise, or suppress them for political effect.

If we have a few jokes, folks say we are nothing but rattleheads.

If we omit jokes they say we are nothing but fossils.

If we publish original matter, they abuse us for not giving selections.

If we publish selections people say we are lazy for not writing more, and giving them what they have not read in some other paper.

If we give a complimentary notice we are centured for being partial.

If we don't all hands say we are a great hog.

If we insert an article which pleases the ladies the men become jealous and vice versa.

If we attend church they say it is for effect.

If we remain in our office folks say we are too proud to mingle with other fellows.

If we go out they say we don't attend to our business.

We must work harder, more hours in a day, with less recreation, or less sleep or proper pay, than any of our fellow mortals. We must be busy when our neighbors are idle, busier when they sleep and busier when they are enjoying a good time.

We must always be in a hurry, always under a press of business, always "setting up" when others are lying down, and always charitably "distributing" the results of our daily labor.

Our opinions always go to "proof," but seldom into practice. We must publish a paper for $1.00 in advance that costs $3, and wait for pay till a collector has gotten his commission for collecting it.

It is a life of mingled good and ill, trial and triumph, never-ending toil and benigning felicity wherein we work out our allotted time, with the "devil" always at our elbow calling "more copy."—Country Publisher.

Dangers of the Grip. The greatest danger from La Grippe is of its resulting in pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for La Grippe, we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventive of that dread disease. It will effect a permanent cure in less time than any other treatment. The 25 and 50 cent sizes for sale by G. W. Bovard.

They are so small that the most sensitive persons can use them, they are so effective that the most obstinate cases of constipation, headache and torpid liver yield to them. That is why DeWitt's Little Early Risers are known as the famous little pills. Heath & Killmer.

Chicora, Pa., Herald: Richard Vensel reports One Minute Cough Cure the greatest success of medical science. He told us that it cured his whole family of terrible coughs and colds, after all other so-called cures had failed entirely. Mr. Vensel said it assisted his children through a very bad siege of measles. One Minute Cough Cure makes expectoration very easy and rapid. Heath & Killmer.

From Cripple Creek. After the big fire in Cripple Creek I took a severe cold and tried many remedies without help, the cold only becoming more settled. After using three small bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy both the cough and cold left me, and in this high altitude it takes a marvelous cough remedy to do any good.—G. B. Henderson, editor Daily Advertiser. For sale by G. W. Bovard.

Torturing, itching, scaly skin eruptions, burns and sores are soothed at once and promptly healed by DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, the best cure for piles. Heath & Killmer.

If you have ever seen a child in the agony of croup, you can appreciate the gratitude of the mothers who know that One Minute Cough Cure relieves their little ones as quickly as it is administered. Many homes in this city are never without it. Heath & Killmer.

Kremis, Mercer county, Pa. We believe Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to be the best remedy in use. We use it in our own families, and it is a favorite among our customers. Hecker Bros. & Co., 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by G. W. Bovard.

It is surprising that a "see hit of a thing" can accomplish. Sick headache, constipation, dyspepsia, sour stomach, dizziness, are quickly banished by DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Small pill, safe pill, best pill. Heath & Killmer.

Throat Pain Quickly Cured. After having been confined to the house for eleven days and paying out $25 in doctor bills without benefit, Mr. Frank Doleon of South Ste. Marie, Mich., was cured by one bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm costing 25 cents and has not since been troubled with that complaint. For sale by G. W. Bovard.

Don't allow the lungs to be impaired by the continuous irritation of a cough. It is easier to prevent consumption than to cure it. One Minute Cough Cure taken early will ward off any fatal lung trouble. Heath & Killmer.

One minute is all the time necessary to decide from personal experience that One Minute Cough Cure does what its name implies. Heath & Killmer.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

BY VIRTUE of a writ of Levari Facias issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Forest County, Pennsylvania, and to me directed, there will be exposed to public sale or outcry at the Court House in Tionesta, Pa., on SATURDAY, APRIL 17, A. D., 1897, at 1 o'clock p. m., the following described real estate, to-wit:

D. E. LANDERS vs. C. E. LANDERS, Lev. Fa., No. 8, May Term, 1897.—Samuel D. Irwin, plaintiff's attorney. All that undivided seven-tenths (7/10) of that tract in Harmony township, Forest Co., Pa., described thus: Beginning at a post, the southeast corner of tract No. 203; thence, by the same, north 14 1/2 degrees to a post; thence east by residue of tract No. 228, 148 8-10 perches to a post; thence by said residue south 114 5-10 degrees to a post; thence by said residue south 22 1/2 degrees to a post; thence by said residue west 18 5-10 perches to place of beginning, containing 100 acres, be the same more or less, the same being known as "The Landers Farm." On which there are two houses and two barns, small orchard, and about 60 acres cleared and improved.

Terms of Sale.—The following must be strictly complied with when the property is struck off to a purchaser:

1. When the plaintiff or other lien creditors become the purchaser, the costs on the writ must be paid, and a list of the liens including mortgage securities on the property sold, together with such lien creditor's receipts for the proceeds of the sale or such portions thereof as he may claim, must be furnished to the Sheriff.

2. All bids must be paid in full.

3. All sales not settled immediately will be continued until 2 o'clock p. m., of the same day of the month, at which time all property not settled for will again be put up and sold at the expense and risk of the person to whom first sold.

Wall Paper! Wall Paper!

We have just received a car load of Wall Paper for spring and summer trade. We have some of the handsomest patterns that ever came to Tionesta, and our prices, why it is surprising how cheap we can sell them. The reason we can sell so cheap is that we bought them from the right house and by buying a large lot at one time and securing the discount, we are able to place them within the reach of everyone.

We have a few patterns left over from last year that we will sell at your own price.
