—An exchange says, and very truthfully so, too, that a curfew bell that would call home at any time of the day or night those persons who go from house to house, from neighbor to neighbor, carrying idle tales of gossip, besmirching the character of decent people, and ruining the credit of solid business men, would be a mighty good thing. Unconditional surrender, is the only terms those lamons little pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Risers will make with constipation, sick headache stomach troubles. Heath & Killmer. Mrs. Samuel Stamm of Loganton, Pa., bore her thirty-tour years of suffering with courage and fortitude. Her trouble with courage and fortitude. Her trouble was rhumatism in the kines. In consequence her limb ha i become so stiff that she could hardly walk. Mr. Stamm was a well-to-do merchant, and had spared no paims or expense to relieve her, but with little success, until one night when it grew so painful that she could hardly endure it, he persuaded her to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The effect was magical. The first application relieved the pain, and its continued use has removed all stiffness and given her the free use of her limb once more. If you have friends who are troubled with rheumalism insist on their giving this remedy a trial. You can do them no greater favor, as it is sure to give prompt relief, and if
