LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

The Press and the Plow.

We envy not the princely man in city or in town, Who wonders whether pumpkin vines Turn up hill or down.

We care not for his marble halls, Nor yet his heaps of gold; We would not for the world be sold For all his wealth twice told.

We sing the honor of the plow, And honor to the press— Two noble instruments of toil, Each with a power to bless.

The bone, the nerve of this fast age, The wealth of man kind; One tills the ever faithful earth, The other tills the mind.—Ed.

—Oil market $2.80. —You can get it at Hopkins' store. It

—Read Miles & Armstrong's ad. on the opposite page. —Child's excelsors for 25 cents at Miles & Armstrong's.

—Hopkins sells the Dandy Shirt. Another new lot in this week. —There are at present 867 inmates in the Reformatory at Huntingdon.

—There are open saloons in Topeka, Kans., for the first time in ten years. —New percales, organdies and other wash goods at Hopkins' store this week.

—The number of shoes Hopkins sells is evidence that the quality and price is right. —The Sires photograph gallery will be open Thursday and Saturday of this week.

—Get a pair of those heavy working shoes at Hopkins' store. Every pair warranted. —Miles & Armstrong can make you a suit to order for $13.50, or trousers for $3.50 and guarantee a fit.

—It would be impossible for us to mention all our subscribers who are in attendance at court this week. —Corry has a man who is reported to have sold his house and lot to buy bicycles for himself and wife and children.

—Do you appreciate good laundry work? If so patronize the Dunkirk Steam Laundry, Miles & Armstrong, agents. —If he courts and guns away may live to court another day, but he who courts and does not wed may find himself in court instead.

—Don't buy shirts of uncertain makes but buy from Miles & Armstrong, who handle nothing but "shirts that fit" and at prices that are right. —The machinery is being put in place in the cob pipe factory and if nothing happens there will be cob pipes "to sell" in Tionesta in a couple of weeks.

—A new style of hat has been invented. It is adjustable from 6 to 10 1/2 size, and is intended only to be worn on fishing excursions or when "out with the boys" Saturday nights. —The Butler Times says that at a recent wedding near there, invitations were issued, but as the house was small, the invitations bore the legend at the bottom: "No children expected."

—The Oil City Blizzard was fifteen years old last Saturday. Judging from its appearance it is in a very healthy condition, and we hope the Blizzard will continue to blow for many years to come. —Last Sunday was the anniversary of the Epworth League, which was organized in Cleveland eight years ago. The League has spread rapidly throughout Methodist in America, and is now said to have 200,000 members.

—The streets in town have been considerably torn up for the past few days on account of the new gas line which is being put in by Hoy Bros, but they have a large gang of men at work and the work will be finished as soon as possible. —Ausler is always to the front in the fruit and vegetable business. He has been ever since he went into the business and he intends to be as long as he stays in it. His goods are always fresh and his prices are always right. Go and see.

YOU AND YOUR FRIENDS.

—Miss Anna Helsel was a visitor to Oil City last Friday. —Wm. Smeaugh is in Pittsburg on business this week.

—G. H. Killmer was a business visitor to Oil City on Monday. —Mrs. Geo. Armstrong, visited friends at Hickory, over Sunday.

—Mrs. F. Wenk of German Hill is visiting friends in Pittsburg. —Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Morrow were Oil City visitors on Saturday.

—County Treasurer Fones was in Oil City on business Saturday. —Mrs. Chas. Hunter visited Oil City friends for a few days last week.

—Mrs. Clara Hayden of West Hickory visited friends in town over Sunday. —J. A. Hullings is able to be out again after a severe tussle with erysipelas.

—W. D. Backlin of Tidoute was a business visitor to Tionesta last Saturday. —Miss Ada Huling is at home from North Warren on a short visit with her parents.

—Mrs. Alice Vought and daughter Bertha visited among friends at Baum last week. —Miss Augusta Keister of East Hickory was a guest of Miss Adelia Randall last Friday.

—Miss Hannah G. Irwin of Franklin is a guest of her brother, S. D. Irwin, Esq., for a few days. —J. W. Stroop, who has been building rigs at Gusher for the past two months, is at home for a few days.

—Geo. Went was over from Grand Valley the first of the week, shaking hands with Tionesta friends. —Misses Helen Smeaugh and Alice Arner were guests of Miss Virginia Siggs at Oil City over Sunday.

—Fred. Grettenberger, the expert machinist of Tidoute, was a business visitor to Tionesta last Thursday. —Miss Rosa Hunter went to Coal Hill, Venango county, yesterday, where she was called to teach a summer school.

—Mrs. Maggie Pflueger and two children of Columbus, Ohio, are guests of her sister, Mrs. W. F. Blum for a few days. —Miss Edith Hopkins returned yesterday from a three weeks' visit with her grandmother, Mrs. T. C. Jackson, at Warren.

—Mrs. P. M. Clark, who has been quite seriously ill for a few days past is slowly improving, and it is expected will soon be out again. —J. C. Giest and A. C. Gregg of Brookston are in attendance at court this week and were pleasant callers at the REPUBLICAN office on Monday.

—Miss Mary Stewart, of Redelyffe, who is on her way home from the Indiana State Normal school, is a guest of Miss Nannie Morrow for a few days. —E. E. Burton of Marienville and Frank Dodge of Lamona, who are wedding at court this week, were callers at the REPUBLICAN office on Monday.

—Chas. Klinefester of Nebraska returned last Thursday from a three weeks' stay in Buffalo, N. Y., where he had been in search of medical aid, and he is considerably improved in health. —Rev. R. A. Buzza and family returned Saturday from a two weeks' visit among friends in Lawrence and Mercer counties. Rev. Buzza is feeling much improved in health after his short vacation.

—Mr. E. B. Head was down from West Hickory Saturday, and while here took occasion to pay us a friendly call. He was feeling in good humor over the striking of another nice oil producer on his farm. —Will Kepler of Pine Grove Mills, Center Co., a former Tionesta boy, is a guest of his sister, Mrs. J. D. Davis, for a couple of weeks. Will has got to be quite a large man since the writer used to know him when we were "juggling" the forms on the old National Democrat, and we don't care about stirring up his ire now.

—Father Hickey of St. John's Catholic church leaves us Saturday for his new charge at Embleton and East Brady. We make this announcement with sincere regret. The reverend and respected father has been long and respected by all in this vicinity, irrespective of religious faith and we dislike to see him leave us. But best wishes and prayers go with him in his new field. His successor we believe is Father Downey from Elk county.—Tidoute News.

—In this State are four homes maintained by the Odd Fellows for aged members and orphan children. The one at Meadville contains 14 children and two aged members, and four other children will soon be admitted. The little ones are sent to school and every care taken to raise them properly and give them a good home. No fairer monuments than these homes could be erected to the glory of any order.

—Heath & Killmer's new soda fountain has been put in place and it is a beauty and makes a wonderful improvement in the looks of their already handsome store room. Delicious ice cold soda will be on tap from now on, also a number of the popular mineral waters and soft drinks, which will be served up in the latest style and at all times. Go and take a look at the new fountain. May be they will give you the first drink free.

—It has been suggested in various quarters that the last Sunday in May be hereafter observed as Memorial Day. It is held that this would avert the merry making and holiday festivities which are becoming so prevalent and are inappropriate to the nature of the day. This movement to observe Sunday originated with Brown Post, G. A. R., of Jamestown, and will be sure to attract notice and discussion.—Franklin News.

Musical Convention. Don't forget to attend Prof. S. G. Smith's Music Class. It begins June 7, next, continues two weeks, at Tionesta. Lessons forenoon and evening.

—One dollar for Convention course, which includes use of book. This is a rare opportunity to learn to sing. The course will close with a grand concert. —You can get it at Hopkins' store. It

PROCEEDINGS OF MAY COURT.

Following are the proceedings of the May term of the court of quarter sessions of Forest County up to the time of our going to press:

On the civil list the case of W. J. Blakeley, trustee, vs. Ada O. Dingman, M. W. S. Dingman and D. S. Knox, was continued.

The first case tried was that of Commonwealth vs. John McCloskey, charge of felonious rape. Jury found prisoner guilty as indicted and recommended him to the mercy of the Court.

Com. vs. John McCloskey, charge of adultery; Case on trial as we go to press. Last evening the court ordered the road around the bluff at Nebraska pond on the line between Kinsley and Green township to be opened forthwith.

GRAND JURY FINDINGS. Com. vs. Jacob Bender, charge, selling liquor without license, on Sunday and to minors, constables' return, true bill.

Com. vs. Jacob Merdillotti, charge, embezzlement, W. C. Sallada, pros., true bill.

Com. vs. Wm. Mazo, charge, bigamy, S. R. Woodward, pros., not a true bill. Prisoner discharged and County pay costs.

Com. vs. Orris Walters, John Harger and Thos. Knapp, charge, larceny and receiving stolen goods, T. E. Armstrong pros., true bill.

Same vs. same, charge, burglary with attempt to commit a felony, O. F. Miles pros., true bill.

Com. vs. John Harger, charge, attempt to commit a felony and larceny, Kate Andrews, pros., true bill.

GRAND JURORS' REPORT. The grand jury of Forest County makes the following report for May term, 1897:

That they have acted up to the duty of indictment, four of which were true bills. They further report that they have inspected the County buildings and find them in good condition, where we find the floor sinking by reason of rotting joist, and other matters that need attention of County Commissioners. Therefore, we recommended an expenditure not exceeding one hundred dollars to repair the same.

We further recommend that the barn situated in the Court yard be sold and removed. GEO. W. TAYLOR, Foreman.

Richards-Furman Wedding. Miss Ella Bell Furman, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Furman, of No. 24 Sanford street, and Mr. Albert W. Richards, of Tionesta, were married at high noon Thursday at the home of the bride's parents. The ceremony which was performed by Rev. Wm. T. C. Hanna pastor of the First Baptist church, was witnessed by none but relatives and immediate friends. At the conclusion of the ceremony an elegant marriage dinner was served and at 3:15 Mr. and Mrs. Richards left for a tour of the lakes. On their return they will visit relatives at Cleveland, Marietta and Pittsburg. After an absence of a fortnight they will take up their residence at Tionesta, where the groom has a cottage handsomely furnished for his bride. Although their marriage was known only among intimate friends the bride received a number of beautiful presents, testimonials of the love and esteem in which she is held by all who knew her. She is one of the popular young women of Bradford and a host of friends will unite in extending congratulations and best wishes. The groom is a well known and highly respected young man of Tionesta and enjoys a lucrative position as general manager of the Tionesta Gas Company.—Bradford Record.

Death of Mrs. Geo. Raab. Mrs. Geo. Raab died at her residence on Vino street, Tuesday morning, May 25, 1897, after an illness of thirteen months duration. She was born in Millstreet, County Cork, Ireland, on the 4th day of October, 1850, and was consequently 36 years, 5 months and 21 days old.

Besides a husband and six children she leaves three brothers, namely: Andy and John Moynihan of Oil City, and Daniel Moynihan of Siverleyville, Pa. The remains will be taken to Oil City, to-day, for interment, and funeral services will be conducted by Rev. Father Carroll in St. Joseph's church.

Mrs. Raab has been well known here for the past fourteen years and she has always been held in the highest esteem by her neighbors and acquaintances. She was of an amiable disposition and a woman who would make friends wherever she went, a faithful wife and a loving mother, and the loved and loving ones who are left to mourn her loss have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire community.

Change in Proprietorship of the Central House. C. F. Weaver, who has been proprietor of the Central House in this place for the past three years has sold out to Mr. H. W. Horner of Glen Hazel, Pa., and the license for the house was transferred on Monday. Mr. Weaver has been an up to date landlord and has made every effort to keep a first class hotel and he has done so, consequently the people are sorry to see him leave, but while we lose one good landlord we are informed that his successor will prove just as satisfactory to our people as Mr. Weaver has, and judging from the way Mr. Horner has started in he intends to do business right or not at all. He has thoroughly renovated the whole building, has put in new room furniture, office fixtures, etc., and has employed two colored waiters, who, by the way, are named Mr. Green and Mr. Grey.

Mr. Horner is an old hotel man and thoroughly understands the business and will always extend the "glad hand" to any weary traveler who may have occasion to stop at his hotel.

If you want a suit call on Miles & Armstrong and get one of those fancy $8.00 suits. —You can get it at Hopkins' store. It —Once more is speculation rife in regard to our gold mines in the hills surrounding the town, but another mine has been struck in the immediate vicinity that "knocks silly" those previously discovered, and as soon as the papers concerning are filed, it is said that a full blown copper mine, assaying $80 to the ton, will be put in operation.—Schenectady (N. Y.) Union.
