Winans—Keister.
Last Thursday evening, June 17, 1897, Sylvester O. Winans of Townville, Crawford county, Pa., and Miss Augusta M. Keister, fourth daughter of the late Lewis Keister, of East Hickory, Pa., were joined in marriage by Rev. Wm. Richards of Mayburg, at the home of the bride's mother at East Hickory. The mother and father and three or four brothers and two sisters of the groom were present from Spartansburg, Endeavor and other places. The wedding went off nicely and there were presents many and good. One of the features was the mother, Mrs. Winans, presenting the bride with a roll of bills, and the father, Mr. Winans, presenting the groom with a roll of bills and a check to smooth the matter along. The happy couple are at present staying with a brother-in-law, Mr. Carpenter, at Endeavor, where they are receiving the congratulations of their many friends.

The New Game Law in Brief.
Sec. 1. No hunting or shooting on Sunday. Penalty, $25 for each offense, or imprisonment one day for each dollar's fine.
Sec. 2. No one shall intentionally kill any song bird, or destroy their nests or eggs, except under conditions that in no way apply to this section. English sparrows, hawks, owls and herons are excepted. Penalty, $10 for each bird or imprisonment as in section one.
Sec. 3. Game birds may be shot from Oct. 15 to Dec. 15, except Mongolian, English or Chinese pheasants, which cannot be taken for five years from June 4, 1897. Woodcock may also be shot during July. Penalty, $25 for each bird shot out of season.
Sec. 4. Deer may be shot during November only, and never while in the water. Dog hunting is illegal and the dogs so hunting may be killed by anybody without recourse. Penalty, $100 for each offense.
Sec. 5. Makes trap hunting of any kind illegal, and no person may purchase game or birds so killed. Penalty, for deer, etc., $100 for each animal; for birds, $25 each.
Sec. 6. No person or transportation company shall have in possession any game whose killing is prohibited. One person can kill in one day only 10 pheasants, or 15 quail, or 10 woodcock, or 2 wild turkeys; or two deer in one season. Penalty, from $50 to $100 for each offense.
Sec. 7. Rabbits may be killed from Nov. 1 to Dec 15 inclusive, and no person may have any such in his possession out of the season. Penalty $10 for each rabbit or squirrel.
Sec. 8. Prohibits the use of ferrets in hunting rabbits, and a person having a ferret in his possession will be deemed guilty. Penalty, $25 for each rabbit so killed.
Sec. 9. Killing birds or game with anything but a gun is prohibited, and no trap, blind or light may be used. Penalty, $50 for each offense.
Sec. 10. Breaking or destroying nests or eggs of birds makes a penalty of $50 for each nest or egg so destroyed.
Sec. 11. Makes possession of any game, fresh skin, birds or eggs prima facie evidence of guilt.
Sec. 12. Provides that actions under this law must be begun within a year of the time of the alleged violation. One-half the fine goes to the informer and the other half to the State.
In every case the fine may be served by imprisonment—one day for each dollar.—Ez.

Kellettville.
After waiting sometime and giving some public spirited person an opportunity to take up the quill and keep our citizens acquainted with the doings around about us. We now come to the conclusion that it is our sacred duty to play information once again. We trust however that no objections will be found for any reason all items are not mentioned as we only have knowledge of the few that come under our observation. Those that wish news in this column will be accommodated by informing the writer or leaving the same at the post office. Send in your items.
G. G. Stitzinger has been promoted from book-keeper for Collins & Watson, at Gonzales, to Supt. of the T. V. & S. C. R. R., and the large saw mill at Panther Rock with general office at this place. George has many friends here who will be pleased to note his rise.
Jacob Roy who for four months has been a sufferer from kidney trouble is about the same at this writing.
John McDonald and sister, Mrs. R. Berlin, of Mayburg, went to Erie, Saturday to visit their parents who moved to that place this spring, from Hickory Twp., to run a temperance house.
A. H. Downing has made considerable improvements on his dwelling house in the past four weeks.
The Panther Rock saw mill, intends starting up to-day, (Monday) for their first to saw out a large stock of logs. This plant is perhaps one of the finest in the county, being fully equipped with the latest machinery, the shingle mill under the same roof, has been running day and night, to supply the large demand. It seems through the western part of this state and Ohio and West Va., a large amount of shingles, are needed to re-shingle the buildings unroofed by wind last fall. We are not in perfect harmony with a thing like this, but if it is designed to cause as more work, we are designed to think, "let the gentle zephyrs blow."
John Peterson has started to visit his old home in Sweden. He will attend the exposition and return to the United States in the fall.
Last Friday being the fourteenth anniversary of the birth of Miss Lizzie Burdick. A large number of her friends gathered together and gave her many tokens of friendship.
The well drilled by the Tionesta Stock Co., came in Thursday and was a duster. We are informed the well is to be shot. A small showing of oil was found.
The Penn Tanning Co., are repairing the culinary department of the Chamberlain Hotel.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best and Most Pleasant.
"We sell more of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than of all others combined," write Messrs. Kerr & Sons, druggists, of Mars, Pa. They also say: "The sale of it is something phenomenal. We have sold two gross this winter, selling as high as six bottles in one morning to as many different customers. This remedy has proved particularly successful in crousty affections. Our customers invariably pronounce it the best they can find, and we know of no case where it has failed to give satisfaction." For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by G. W. Bovard.
Terrible Accident.—It is a terrible accident to be burned or scalded; but the pain and agony and the frightful disfigurement can be quickly overcome without leaving a scar by using DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. Health & Killmer.

Has been occupied with wall paper for some time, but don't think because we are making a change that our large Stock is exhausted, for we have some very nice Patterns left yet, but we would like to call your attention to the fact that our Stock of Paints, was never so complete before. We are Sole Agents for the famous Ark Brand Water Proof Paint, for inside or outside, which we claim is one of the best Ready Mixed Paints on the market. And in White Lead and Oils we will not be undercut. We also have a Roof Paint that we guarantee for 5 years. Call and see us and we will convince you that what we say is all right.
