Joseph Morgan has been engaged during the past week in making repairs to the boat house of the Oil City Boat Club at Rockwood, which had sprung a leak some time ago. The boat had to be raised, put on the dry-dock, as it were, and calked from underneath. If a craft of that description is fixable Joe's the one can do it right.

Clarington, this county, has a crack ball team according to reports. The Brookville Republic of last week says: The Clarington base ball club again defeated the Sigel team Friday last by a score of 7 to 3. The feature of the game, from a Clarington standpoint, was the fine pitching of Reardon and the timely hitting of Williams.

Keep an eye out for him. The Lindsey Press says: A bogus patent right man has been working his game in several nearby towns. He sells county rights for a patent clothes ring at very reasonable rates, but the trouble is, he has no right to sell. He found one victim in Punxsutawney. A couple of Reynoldsville men were taken in, but got onto the racket and got their money back before the rascal got out of town.

The borough council received bids for lighting the streets, at its meeting last Wednesday, from both gas companies. The bids were as follows: Tionesta Gas Co., 30 cents per light; Hoy Gas Co., 40 cents. The former's bid being 10 cents the lesser was awarded the contract, which will run for five years. The council is to be congratulated on securing such low rates, it being a saving of 45 cents per light from former rates, and it is a satisfaction to know that the interests of the borough are being carefully looked after.

Lightning's Work. Yesterday morning, about 10:30, during a heavy storm, lightning struck the large barn of Edward Mealy, who lives up Beaver Creek in Hickory township, and in a very short time the entire structure was enveloped in flames. So rapid was the spread of the fire that nothing worth mentioning was saved, and Mr. Mealy's summer crop of hay and grain, together with about all his farming machinery were totally destroyed. The barn was a fine one costing about $300, and Mr. Mealy estimates the contents as valued at about $800, so that his loss will foot up nearly $1,100, on which there is an insurance of about $400.

During the same storm a 100-bbl. wooden tank on the Patterson lease on Cropp Hill was struck and fired by a bolt of lightning. It contained about 15 barrels of oil. All was consumed.

Death of Leslie M. Catlin.

The serious illness of the above named young man was briefly mentioned in last week's REPUBLICAN, word having been received by his relatives at Kelleysville, his former home. His mother and brother, L. J. Catlin, went to his bedside at Parkersburg, W. Va., arriving there but a short time before his death, which occurred at 8:25 o'clock on Friday morning, Aug. 6th, 1907. The deceased was aged 27 years and 3 months. He was born at Carroll, Chautauque County, N. Y., and came with his parents when a child to Kingsley township, where he spent most of his life, having gone to the West Va. oil fields about two years ago. About six weeks ago, during July's heated term, he was taken with a heat stroke, but his relatives were not notified until Tuesday of last week. The physician's certificate gave inflammation of the bowels as the immediate cause of death. The remains were brought home and taken to Frewsburg, N. Y., where the funeral took place on Sunday last, quite a number of friends from this section attending.

Leslie was a young man universally popular in the community in which he had been reared, being of a quiet and industrious turn of mind, and his large circle of friends will miss him and mourn his death for many years to come.

The M. E. Sunday School at East Hickory will picnic Friday, weather permitting.

The post office at East Hickory has been moved to its new quarters in Crocks' store, and Burket laughs when folks ask him if there is any mail for them.

All the Truth About Klondyke.

Everyone wants to hear the earliest, and all the news from Klondyke, and they want to hear intelligent and reliable news. Many papers have sent out correspondents; but it has been reserved for the Pittsburg Dispatch to send out a man who is known—a practical geologist, a man accustomed to searching the earth for minerals—the well known writer Henry Niedig, of Wampum. Mr. Niedig's letters will appear in daily and Sunday issues of the Dispatch, as they happen to be received. The Dispatch has of course also the Associated Press telegrams and a copiers special service from Klondyke secured in conjunction with the New York World, but its engagement of Niedig, the well known scientific writer "N", caps the climax of its enterprise.

The W. N. Y. & P. Ry. will run a popular priced excursion to Oil City and Titusville, Sunday, August 19th. It is always gratifying to receive testimonials for Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and when the endorsement is from a physician it is especially so. There is no more satisfactory or effective remedy than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy," writes Dr. R. E. Robey, physician and pharmacist, of Olney, Mo., and he has cured many in his own family and sold it in his drug store for six years, he should certainly know. For sale by G. W. Howard.

A Remarkable Cure of Chronic Diarrhoea. In 1902, when I served my country as a private in the Company A, 167th Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry, I contracted chronic diarrhoea. It has given me a great deal of trouble ever since. I have tried a dozen different medicines and several prominent doctors without any permanent relief. Not long ago a friend sent me a sample bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and after that I bought and took a 50 cent bottle, and now I can say that I am entirely cured. I cannot be thankful enough to you for this great remedy, and recommend it to all suffering veterans. If in doubt write me. Yours gratefully, Henry Steinberger, Allentown, Pa. Sold by G. W. Howard.

Conservative buyers and those that appreciate clothing and shoes that are made to fit, can save from 10 to 25 per cent. on every purchase. It will pay everybody that thinks of buying anything in our line to investigate this statement before purchasing elsewhere. We take pleasure in showing our goods, it don't matter whether you wish to purchase or not.

L. J. HOPKINS.

JULY AND AUGUST

Always entails an immense loss to every progressive clothing house. No up-to-date merchant will carry a stock of clothing from one season to another. His capital must be turned, and to keep the wheels moving it must be sold, all the time, in season and out.

Our stock of clothing is a little larger than it should be at this time. Price cutting is the only sure means we know of to reduce it. We thus make what we really believe to be the biggest genuine reductions on legitimate clothing ever offered in the city.

NEW SUITS.

All this season's checks, plaids and plain colors, suits we have sold all the season at $10, $11 and $12, now $7.50.

NEW SUITS.

Fine cassimers and chevrons, latest shades, and clothing this season's nobbiest cut suits, sold at $14, $16 and $16, now $10.50.

CHILDREN'S WANTS.
