REPORTS from the farming regions continue to show that the farmers are reducing their mortgages. This is hard on the silver theoriets but good for the farmer.

JAMES D. DAVIS

THE railroad men who stood like a stone wall against free silver and anarchy last fall are now reaping their improved conditions. So are the farmers.

IT is a refreshing fact that we now have a President whose conduct during the war was such that he can be properly registered if they wish to the guest of honor at the annual cast their ballots this fall. Thursmeeting of the Grand Army of the day, Sept 2, is the last day for legal
