The "Free" Film-Flam Didn't Work. The cheap or free picture film-flam recently received a cruel set-back in Punxsutawney, Pa. The Spirit editor tells the story. Some time ago a man who was enlarging pictures visited the residence of Mark Williams. "We are doing some very fine work," said the agent, "and in order to introduce it to the public we make you the first picture free. We will expect you to show the picture to your neighbors, of course, and help advertise us in that way. The picture will not cost you a cent."

Mr. Williams hunted up a picture and gave it to the man to enlarge. The other day he returned with the enlarged picture. It was enclosed in a gaudy frame. "Of course" the man explained, "the picture costs you nothing, but we charge you $5 for a frame like that."

"The picture is all right," said Mr. Williams. "It pleases me first-rate. I will just take it into the other room and see what my wife thinks of it."

And Mark went into another room, removed the picture from behind the glass, and returned with the empty frame. "Your wife likes the picture first-rate," he said, as he handed back the frame, "but she thinks we cannot afford to buy the frame. We like the picture first-rate. By the way, we have two or three more pictures here that you may enlarge on the same terms. I am always willing to help a fellow along that way who can do it without any expense to myself."

But the man didn't take any more. He felt that Mark was a poor subject to work any film-flam games on, and so, with a strained "Good day," he left for greener fields, carrying his empty frame.
