deputy. He looked pale and nervous to die. In fact, he told his attorney, E. J. Wimmer, that he had given up all hope. The Judge read his opinion and cited numerous precedents to substan tiate him in the action he was to take in granting him a new trial. He said that he erred in admitting the testimony of the prisoner taken at the Corner's inquest at Tionesta at the trial, and under the circumstances could do nothing else than grant another trial. The prisoner did not understand the remarks of the Court, and it was not until his attorney informed him that he realized that he was to have another chance for his life

One of the happiest gatherings of the DREN'S CLOTHING. This is no idle boast-it is a FACT.

This fall we shall make particular efforts to largely increase the busiess of our Boys' Department. We are going to show mothers the bandsomest, the best made and the best fitting line of juvenile clothing ever exhibited in an Oil City store AND THE PRICES ARE LOWER.

Your inspection of our Juvenile Department is solicited without reference to the matter of purchase. We want you to feel free to come and look -to examine fabrics, to try sewing, to learn price. Nutsedy will ask you to with handsome rocking chairs; also two buy. Do as you like about that. What we desire is that you shall know more about Lammers and our facilities for selling good clothes on a low-
