THE deficit of the second month of the Dingley law was only about onefourth of the deficit of the Wilson law in its second month.

OHIO, Maryland, New York and all other States where the Democrats not be correct, but we cannot help think they have any show of success, thinking that the man who, by substill keep the bars up against Bryan, Towne, and the other free silver orators.

THE Democratic leaders are seriously considering the adoption of the "government by injunction" cry as the chief feature of their campaign of 1898 and 1900, in view of the fact think so then but who have since reached the same conclusion.

MR. BRYAN is about to deliver a series of speeches on the silver question in Kentucky. It is suspected that he will select places where the south wind will carry his voice across the river into Ohio, since this seems to be his only way of taking part in the campaign in that State.

Eveny few days bring appouncements of another shipment of British gold to the United States, and appeals are made for its acceptance by the Treasury, which now has more of the yellow metal than it needs. Are the Britishers and gold power still scheming against the silver theory even to this extent ?

DR. SWALLOW is offering large rewards for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the man or men who burned the State capital building. No man knows better than he that he will never be called upon to pay the reward. He might as well offer $100,000 as $1,000. The fire was accidental and he knows it,

THE Rev. Dr. Swallow, Probibition candidate for State Treasurer, is endeavoring to revive the abl fashioned campaign methods that were becoming obsolete-mud slinging. If the Doctor were fair in his statements it would not be so bad. But he tells his audiences with a great ostentation of righteous indignation that a bill of $66,000 was presented to the legislature for the expenses of the Lexow committee. There he stops. If he would go a little turther, and state that this bill was promptly and emphatically turned down by that body, and not one cent allowed, it would not sound so had. In a hundred different things he resorts to similar methods to deceive and horrify his hearers by telling something that is technically true, but false as to the impression it conveys. If the Doctor does not resort to absolute falsehood, he approaches dangerously near the line between truth and prevarication. Our ideas of virtue and manhood may tile inuendos and half-told truths, IN MIND creates impressions that are absolutely faise, is not the sort of a man to hold up as a pattern of rectitude and 1898 and 1900, in view of the fact that the free coinage proposition is being rejected by the people. LAST year Wm. McKinley said that in his judgment it was better to open the mills of the United States to home labor than to open the mints of this country to the silver of the world. There are many others who didn't think so then but who have since success, always, because her service pro-ceeded out of a heart which was brave and true and full of faithfulness. She took an active interest in W. R. C. No. 137, from the time of its organization. She desired always to be counted as one among us that served, and while not able in spirit, and served, and while not able to attend our meetings, still she was with us in spirit, and every work we engaged in received her earnest and emergetic at-tention, and we were strengthemed and encouraged by her when difficulties and obstacles were tound as hindrance to any work which had been undertaken. She exhibited alwave her strong fails in the work which had been undertaken. She exhibited always her strong faith in the assurance "through Jesus Christ who strengthens us we can do all things," her interest in Capt, George Stow W. R. C., being in a measure due, no doubt, to No. 137 bearing the name of her young bro-ther. In the dark days of the war many remember how action also was when ther ther. In the dark days of the war many remember how active she was when they met to pick lint, knit stockings and pack boxes of clothing for the loved ones in the field. Her interest in the "boys who wore the blue never lessened. Our Corps has lost a valued member, our Post a true friend. Our draped charter will be a reminder of our great loss, and will encourage us and make us more faithful to every duty. The master has taken her to her reward, "and she being dead yet speaketh." but anything for a sensation is his motto, always .- Kane Republican.

THE slide which the New York Democrats have made from free silver to single tax, in the selection of Henry George, may perhaps be considered an indication of what the whole Democratic party is coming to. It is perfectly evident that if silver won't do for a State campaign, neither will it do for another national issue, and so it is necessary for the Democratic leaders to cast about for for any ordinary man and politician to wear diamonds, but the idea that Mr. Bryan, who stumped the country from the rear and of a baggage car in shirt-sleeves, or with a $3 alpaca coat, should now wear diamonds. It all goes to show the return of prosperity.

THE Wilson law found the ware houses and docks in this country filled with foreign goods waiting to come in under it and swell its receipts, and the Dingley law found the country already filled with foreign goods which had paid duty before it came into operation. Yet the Dingley law in its second month came within three million dollars of meeting current expenses, while the Wilson law in its second month fell thirteen millions short of the expenditures.

No Democratric orator in Ohio, Maryland or New York has opened his lips on the silver question, and those who attempted or proposed to be so were promptly silenced by the chairman of the party. When it is provide for the incorporations, "approved fiscassed nothing but silver, the rap discassed nothing but silver, the rap print following the ensetment of the protective tariff is phenomenal, and instifies the thousands of Democratic the refused to follow this party is this mad proposition for cheap money. | Sept. 27, 1807.
