LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—Oil market $70. —Cholera grapes at Amster's. —You can get it at Hopkins' store. —Cash is king at Miles & Armstrong's. —Fresh bulk oysters at Amster's this week.

—Cloaks, cloaks, Thursday at Miles & Armstrong's. —Warm weather don't stop the sale of jackets at Hopkins'. —Hunting on Sunday is prohibited. —Bizzard, So's fishing.

—Your money does the most for you when you trade at Miles & Armstrong's. —Col. J. T. Dale's new cottage on the river front at the foot of May street is about finished, and will soon be occupied by Prof. Spear and his.

—Rev. Buzza will preach next Sunday evening on the subject, "Brotherly Love Exemplified," preceded by a 15 minute song service, at which new song books will be used. All will be made welcome.

—The following letters remain unaccounted for in Tionesta, Pa., post office, Oct. 13th, 1897: Miss Bell Chambers, Mrs. Gibson, J. G. Parriner, Mr. Fincero Titmore, C. D. Hilland, J. O. Karns, D. S. Knox, P. M.

—Cashier Bowman's new mansion, corner of Elm and May streets, is being rapidly pushed forward to completion, but it will be several weeks yet before he will have the privilege of enjoying its comforts and beauty.

—The river and creek are about as devoid of water as they generally get, having perhaps less liquid in them than ever before within the recollection of the oldest and most truthful inhabitant. It would be a good idea to establish a "low water mark" now.

—Andrew Weller, whose farm is on German Hill, near Starr post office, gathered enough strawberries from his patch a few days ago to make a very delicious shortcake. He tells us they were extra large and finely flavored. Andy's farm is evidently right on the banana belt.

—In our mention of the runaway in which John Jamieson was considerably bruised last week, we should have said his companion was Jerry Birtell instead of Welsh. We are not sure but that Jerry B. would just as soon that Jerry W. had received his share of the bruises, but it's well enough to have these little items exactly right when you can.

—The house occupied by John Knupp, located a short distance above Nebraska, on the road leading to Guiltown, was consumed by fire on Tuesday night of last week. Mr. Knupp's household goods were totally burned up, and he and his family barely escaped with their lives. He had no insurance on his goods, but the house, which was owned by the company, was insured for a small sum, we understand.

—John Johnson, a section hand on the T. V. R. R., was killed at Parrish Wednesday evening of last week by being thrown from the handcar and striking his temple on a sharp stone. He died before he could be taken to his boarding house. The section men on the handcar were going down a steep grade when a dog ran onto the track and threw the car off, with the result that Mr. Johnson lost his life and several others were severely injured.—Marietta Express.

—It has been pretty generally supposed that there was a shortage of the potato crop in all sections of the country. Whether or not this is true, the following item from the Bizzard seems to indicate that it is not: "Potatoes are being shipped to Oil City by the car load, from Michigan. They have been retailed at $1.00 per bushel, but it is doubtful if this price can be maintained, as they can be secured in any quantities desired at less than half the money in Cleveland and other places only a short distance from Oil City."

—See cloaks at Miles & Armstrong's, Thursday. —Winter shoes at Miles & Armstrong's. —The price sells the Capes and Jackets at Hopkins'. —Box calf shoes for winter at Miles & Armstrong's. —No place to buy school shoes like Hopkins' store. He has the best school shoes in town, and for the least money. —Poles for the new telephone line are being hauled through town and strung along the route over the German Hill road. —The chestnut crop may well be styled a failure, what few there are being of the securely, withered and dwarfed variety. Hickory nuts are fairly plentiful, and the hickory nut yield is rather insignificant. —A grape supply is always abundant and fresh. He has all the lowest notch, and delivers free when requested. A nice line of vegetables of all kinds, never a stale, always to be found at his store, Cal. —Daniel Walters is treating his horse to a new coat of paint. So is neighbor Wm. F. Rlum. Both residences are much enhanced in appearance by the new dress, but they will hardly expect the assessor to notice the improvement. —The hole diggers for the new telephone line between here and Marienville finished their work last Wednesday, arriving here and digging the last hole at Hasket's corner about noon. The work of setting the poles is now going on. —This is one of the historical months in the American calendar. In it were fought the battles of Saratoga and Germantown. The former is one of the 15 decisive battles of history and so classed by all historians. It was after the battle of Saratoga that France acknowledged the independence of the United States. Teachers of our public schools should call especial attention to these facts. There were stirring times in these colonies six score years ago. —Glenn Armstrong, brother of our townsman, T. E. Armstrong, who has been working at carpentering in Tionesta during the past summer, has rented a part of the E. L. Davis house and has moved in. He formerly lived at Grove City, and had just packed his household effects in a car for shipment when a heavy freight train collided with the car in which his goods were packed, causing a serious wreck. He has been informed that about all his furniture is a mass of wreckage. —On Friday next, Oct. 15, the season opens for pheasants, grouse, woodcock, quail, partridge and snipe. It will be lawful to shoot said game until Dec. 15. The rabbit season lasts from Nov. 1 to Dec. 15, and the deer from Nov. 1 to Nov. 29. To kill game out of the season above stated, or to offer it for sale at any time, is unlawful under severe penalties. The law forbids the killing by one person of more than 15 quail, 10 pheasants, 10 woodcock in one day, or more than two deer in one season. —Mrs. Kennedy, relict of the late Wm. Kennedy, died at her home a short distance from this place in Tionesta township, Oct. 10th, 1897, after a short illness. Mrs. Kennedy was the last of a family of 13 children, having been born and reared in Oil City, Pa. Her husband went to the front at the breaking out of the rebellion and gave up his life at the battle of Fredericksburg in '62 being killed on the field. He was a member of the 121st Regiment Pa. Vols. Three small children were left her to raise, Francis, George and Charles, and she survives their mother. The funeral was held on Thursday last, services being conducted at the M. E. Church, Rev. Buzza officiating. Being a soldier's widow, the Woman's Relief Corps turned out in a body and had charge of the funeral arrangements, the interment being in Riverside cemetery. Mrs. Kennedy was aged about 62 years. —An event of more than ordinary interest and importance in the social annals of Franklin was the marriage, last Wednesday evening, of Miss Emily Jane Snowden Woodburn, to Dr. J. Maurice Crosby of Bradford. The bride is well and favorably known to many of our people as a visitor to Tionesta friends. Her cousin, Miss Artie Robinson, of this place, whom she frequently visited, was maid of honor on this happy occasion, which was largely attended by friends of both bride and groom. The Franklin News, speaking of the affair, says: "The bride is esteemed in this community as a refined and cultivated member of the social circle, worthy of high position and a happy destiny. The good wishes of many friends and a large and influential action were reflected in the beautiful wedding gifts bestowed upon her. The groom is a dentist with large practice, and is prominent in the social circles of Bradford."

—For years the Allegheny river has figured as one of the best streams in the State for fishing and each season thousands of anglers, after a day's outing, return home with fine strings of bass, pike, etc. According to reports the sport will be spoiled if parties are allowed to continue as they have for two or three months. Between Dunn's Eddy and Tidouste several sawmills are running full blast and it is claimed the sawdust, which is a sure destroyer of fish, is thrown into the river. Here is an opportunity for the Fish Warden to make an investigation and save the fishy tribe from entire demerol.—Oil City Bizzard.

The piscatorial editor of the Bizzard needs to be set right in his premises. It would take five hundred saw mills with a capacity of 25,000 feet of lumber per day each, to destroy as many fish in a whole season as one shot of dynamite; or to make it still stronger, to kill as many grown fish as are usually caught on a Sunday's outing by Oil City fishermen. Here is an opportunity for the Fish Warden to set a heap of illegal fishing as well as to correct the morals of a whole host of people.

Grand Clark Opening. —In cities and large towns merchants frequently give their customers an opportunity to inspect the whole line of samples displayed by the wholesale trade, but in small towns this pleasure is seldom enjoyed by the people. —This year one of the oldest and largest Cook Houses in the State has consented to display their whole line at the store of Miles & Armstrong, in Tionesta, on Thursday, Oct. 14th. —An invitation is extended to all lovers of up-to-date clothing for women and children to attend this "Opening" and avail themselves of this opportunity to buy the latest styles at the lowest prices ever named in Tionesta.

—Mrs. Dr. Bowman and father have returned from Cuba, N. Y., where they were called by the serious illness of her brother, who was improving when they came home.

—Alexander Pettigrew, for many years a resident of President, has purchased the James Green farm at East Hickory, and on Saturday last moved his household goods and took possession of the place.

—Jury Commissioners, J. B. Carpenter of Newtowm Mills, and George Shields of Reddelyfe, were in town yesterday, and with Sheriff Walker, constituted the board which drew a jury for the November term of court.

—The many friends of Mrs. George Holeman, who has been seriously ill for the past few weeks, will be pleased to learn that her condition at last accounts was such as to give her physicians much hope for her ultimate recovery.

—J. A. Huling spent Sunday with his family. He is still building rigs for the Grandin-Kelly Co., their last operations being on four-mile branch of Salmon, where they have a well which was down 2800 feet at last accounts. They expect to put down at least two more wells in that vicinity this fall.

—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hassey of Oil City, were called upon to mourn the death of their only son, Leo, a bright and handsome little fellow, aged 5 years, on the 5th inst. The child had been ill for several days and the cause of his death was membranous croup and pneumonia. The bereaved parents have the sympathy of all their Tionesta friends in the loss of one so dear to them.

—Friends in this community were deeply grieved to learn of the sudden and unexpected death of Miss Rachael Gillilan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Gillilan, of Nebraska, this county, which occurred in New York City on Friday last, where she had been with her mother on a visit to her brother, Alba. The funeral took place in Warren yesterday, a large number of her young friends from this section attending. Miss Rachael was a young lady of sweet disposition, cultured and refined, and a general favorite in the large circle of her acquaintanceship. She graduated with honors from the Clarion Normal in July last. She was aged about 29 years.

—Mrs. Sarah E. Woodin, aged 69 years, the oldest sister of our townsman, D. W. Clark, and daughter of the late Chapman O. R. Clark, died in Jamestown, N. Y., on Friday, the 9th inst., of pneumonia. Besides her brother, D. W., and sister, Mrs. Vernie Frank, of Hasi, N. Y., she left two children, a son, S. P. Woodin, who resides in California, and Mrs. Etta VanNess, a teacher in the public schools in Clinton, Iowa, and who taught a term in our borough schools some years since. While not personally acquainted with Mrs. Woodin we learn from her friends and acquaintances she was a woman whose whole aim in life was to relieve the distress of others, self being her last thought. She will be missed by many friends in the community where she lived.

The Horse Thieving Business.

Lafayette Shaffer of Coal Spring, Jefferson county, was here several days ago getting some pointers on the whereabouts of a fine span of horses stolen from him several weeks ago. In connection therewith the Brookville Democrat says: "When at Tionesta Shaffer saw Koenig in jail, and says he got information from him which made it reasonably certain that his horses were stolen by a young man named 'Lew' Murphy, whose home is near Coal Spring. On his way home from Tionesta he saw young Murphy at Alliger's hotel in Brookville last Thursday afternoon, when they had a long talk in the hotel stable. Shaffer says Murphy confessed to stealing his horses in company with a man named Sweet, who had been stopping at or near Brooktown, Forest county, and offered to show where the horses were, and pay Shaffer's expenses in getting them, if he would not betray him. After talking to Platt and others Shaffer had Murphy arrested, and he is now in the Brookville jail."

It seems quite clear that Koenig and Murphy are members of the gang that have been stealing horses in Jefferson and Forest counties. A warrant was issued for Sweet, but he had fled, and could not be found. Sheriff Burns has been absent several days on the track of other members of the gang, and on Monday we understand arrested a man named "Bill" Hoffman, of Mechanicsville, Pa. Late Wednesday afternoon Shaffer's two horses, a bay mare, were brought into Brookville, having been recovered in Mercer county, at or near the Ohio line."

The Democrat of Monday says: "M. W. Fulton, of Pardoe, Mercer county, was in town yesterday on an errand that has become rather the rage in this neighborhood lately, he was hunting for a stolen horse. The animal was a valuable, well bred pacing horse, dark-brown in color and weighed 900 pounds. It was six years of age. The right hind foot was white below the pastern joint, but as it has been the practice of the thieves to stain all such marks, this identification may be lacking. The front rest of the animal were scarred from being caught in a wire fence while a colt, and there was a hollow in the right hip. Mr. Fulton came here on information that made him believe that the animal had been seen on the road between Poik and Franklin. He is anxious to find some trace of the animal, and will pay $10 for information that will lead to the recovery or for the arrest and conviction of the thief."

Shewmen.—Watou. —The people of Tionesta will be interested in the marriage of Mr. Will A. Shewman, Jr., of Randolph, N. Y., and Vera Rose Watson, which occurred at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Watson, at Glolenta, Pa., on Wednesday, Oct. 6, 1897.

It was a very pleasant home wedding, only the immediate relatives being present. The home was handsomely decorated with ferns and flowers. The wedding ceremonies took place at high noon, the Rev. C. C. Runtgerer of Reynoldsville, Pa., officiating. Miss Elsie Kelly of Tionesta was the maid of honor, and Mr. Frank L. Leuger of Randolph, N. Y., best man. The bride was dressed in white satin, covered with white muslin deLolce draped with bridal roses. The maid's dress was organdie over lavender silk. The groom and "best man" were attired in morning dress. The bride and groom were ushered into the spacious double parlors, and stood beneath an artistic archway of floral decorations while the impressive ceremony was performed.

Immediately following the ceremony the wedding breakfast was served; the tables were handsomely and artistically decorated with carnations. In due time the bridal party took their departure for Tionesta, amid a shower of congratulatory tidings, leaving Tionesta on the afternoon train for New York. The wedding couple will visit the historic places along the Hudson, making a complete circle of the State, visiting the principal cities en route.

Local Institute. —Following is the program for the next regular meeting of the Green Twp. Local Institute to be held at Natomaca, Saturday, Nov. 6, beginning at 10 a. m. Forenoon.—Devotional exercises, Rev. C. A. Rhiel. —Practical session, conducted by C. A. Henry. —"Proper Use of Text Books," Miss Waldenholder. —"Primary History," Miss Morrison. —"Afterschool"—Trabels Place in Education," Arthur Sittlinger. —Address by Rev. C. A. Rhiel. —"Author Days in School," Miss Schoultz. —"Moral Education," Supt. E. E. Sittlinger.

Excuse.—Prof. C. I. Johnson. —It is to be hoped that all will respond with their best effort and thus make our institute a grand success. All interested in education are cordially invited to meet with us and help us along.

C. A. HENRY, MISS KILLENBERG, MISS THOMPSON, Committed. —Croup quickly cured.

—MOUNTAIN SLEEN, Ark.—Our children were suffering with croup when we received a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It allayed almost instant relief. This remedy, which is celebrated, is for sale by G. V. Howard.

You can get it at Hopkins' store. —There is no need of little children being tortured by scald head, eczema, and skin eruptions. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve gives instant relief and cures permanently. Health & Killmer.

—Those who contemplate building should consult Robinson & Gaston, who keep a complete stock of dressed lumber always on hand at their mill.

WARRISBURG.—Persons who suffer from coughs and colds should heed the warnings of danger and save themselves suffering and fatal results by using One Minute Cough Cure. It is an infallible remedy for coughs, colds, croup and all throat and lung troubles. Health & Killmer.

J. M. Thompson, of Goodrich, Tex., says that when he had a spell of indigestion, and took a little of DeWitt's Little Early Biscuits at night and he is all right the next morning. Many thousands of others do the same thing. Do you? Health & Killmer.

J. C. Berry, one of the best-known citizens of Spencer, Mo., testifies that by using himself of the worst kind of piles by curing a few boxes of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. He had been troubled with piles for over thirty years and had used many different kinds of so-called cures; but DeWitt's was the one that did the work and he is all right the next morning. If anyone wishes to write him, Health & Killmer.
