ELECTION NEXT TUESDAY.
 The campaign just drawing to a close in this state has been one of unusual quietness on all sides. The reason for this is plain. But two State officers are to be elected for one thing, and the heat of last year's campaign was enough for two years to come. But it is to be hoped the Republicans of Forest county will not neglect the important matter of getting out to the polls on next Tuesday to cast a straight vote for their party. It is true, the local offices to be filled are not such as to arouse much feeling, yet it is important they should be filled by competent men, and such will be found in the Republican column. Our enemies are depending on the general apathy to reduce our majority, and will claim a victory if it falls below the normal size. Don't let them catch us napping. Let us all get out and vote. It's a small trouble in the majority of cases, and we should all be willing to lend at least that much toward holding up the hands of Major McKinley in his efforts to give the American people that prosperity which is so notable all over the country. Just reflect for one moment on the great contrast between this time and one year ago, and ask yourself if it is not your duty to go to the polls and by your vote give your approval to the splendid work which the new administration is doing in the way of undoing the great wrongs which the nation has had to suffer under the blighting touch of four years of Democratic control. Don't stay away from the polls. Don't think of staying at home. But come out and cast your vote for good, loyal Republicans, such as Beacon, McCauley, Clark, Morrow and Davis, who compose the Republican ticket this fall.

Get out and vote the straight Republican ticket.
 Get out the vote next Tuesday, Republicans. Don't let this be an off year with you.
 The people of Pennsylvania will never know just how shamelessly the Republican treasury ring has robbed them until they have elected a Democratic auditor general and state treasurer to "open the books."—Democratic Vindicator.
 The gall of that paragraph would turn the stomach of the hardest scavenger. It's the same old yelp we've often heard, and in '92 the people gave the Democrats a chance to "open the books." What did they find? Every penny accounted for. What was the result? Why four years of financial calamity, starvation and business ruin such as the country had not experienced since its foundation! Turn the government over to such a rotten old hulk again? Never.

NOTE the straight Republican this fall, and thus put the seal of your disapproval upon buncombe, slander and pharisaism in politics. That's sound sense from the Punx'y Spirit.
 A DEMOCRATIC victory will give the people control of the two most important departments of the government, those of the state treasurer and the auditor general.—Vindicator.
 From famine, pestilence, starvation and ruin, good Lord deliver us.

This is not an off year. It is just as important to maintain Republican principles this year as any other. Go to the polls and vote the straight Republican ticket and insist on your neighbor doing likewise.
 Have you got $25.00? Have you got $50.00? Have you got $100.00? If so, why don't you deposit it with the Consumers' Building Loan Association of Warren, Pa. They will pay you 6 per cent. per annum Cash Dividend, payable semi-annually, and you can withdraw your principal in full at any time after 6 months. 5-5-1y.

A POLITICAL HUMBLED.
 The political record of Wm. R. Thompson the rich banker of Pittsburgh, does not bear close inspection. He claims to be a Republican and yet voted for Cleveland for President. He claims to be an independent Republican and wants Republicans to vote for him, because he is purer and better than the Republican candidates. His cheek ought to elect him, but something else besides brass is necessary in a political campaign. A newspaper in his own home, the Pittsburgh Times, presents the following pen-picture of this self-nominated candidate:
 "Mr. Thompson has no business to come to the Republican voters of Pennsylvania for anything unless it might be to confess that his only political record has been made in arraying himself against everything that stood for decent American manhood, honest American toil and a fair living chance for American industry. Instead of standing like a Pharisee in the public places to advise a decent Republican or a self-supporting man to accept his thinly whitewashed and absurd reform, he has sought to purify himself of his unsavory political record and repeating that he had not died when he was little. Mr. Thompson is one of a party that stands for ruin to business and distress to the people. His standard of character is one that puts Benjamin Harrison, a man beyond reproach, in a lower grade than a libertine. That's the kind of a reformer and Republican this lately-hatched snail is."

Pennsylvania Should Stand by McKinley and the Republican Party.
 There are four candidates for State Treasurer in Pennsylvania. The Democrats have one, who stands conspicuously upon a platform of free silver and free trade bordering on anarchy. Dr. Swallow is parading around the State carrying a "large fund" made up of money, many a large sum of money, but making all sorts of scandalous assertions for which he has no foundation. He assaults Mr. Thompson, who is running on a so-called independent ticket, as a stool-pigeon of the public. Quay and Mr. Thompson in return say that Dr. Swallow does not know what he is talking about, a proposition which most people can accept. Mr. Thompson in return says that Dr. Swallow does not know what he is talking about, a proposition which most people can accept.
