DAVIES-BRENNAN. A society event in which the people o Warren are interested, occurred Wednesday at Tionesta, Pa., when Alice Maude, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. James T Brennan, was united in marriage to-J. Norman Davies, M. D. One o'clock was the appointed hour and the ceremony was performed by Rev. Wm. P. Stevenson of Titusville, in the presence of a number of invited quests. The bride was attended by Miss Kelly of Tionesta, Miss Moore of Franklin, and Miss Bond of Toronto, Can., who acted as maid of honor. Will business visitor to Tionesta several days C. Neill was the groom's best man and Selden S. Benedict of Titusville and Geo. B. Robinson of Tionesta were ushers.

To the enchanting strains of Mendels sohn's wedding march, by Miss Dunn of Tidioute, the party took their place, During the short but Impressive ceremony Miss Dunn rendered an Intermezzo

At the conclusion of the ceremony a bridal breakfast was served, which was partaken of by the guests present. The decorations of the bridal table were pink and white with ribbons draped from the chandelier to the four corners of the tabie and entwined with smilax. The place cards were unique creations, the work of Miss Bates, of Titusville, Many costly and exquisite gifts were eceved, among which was a fine instrument case from Warren Elks. The guests present from out of town were: Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Stewart, Mrs. Mary and Mr. S. W. Stewart, of Pleasantville; Mr. and Mrs. N. P. Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Orion Siggins of Hickory; Miss Dunn and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kemble of Tidioute; Dr. and Mrs. Jackson, Miss Crozier and Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Beaty, Mrs. Fehlman, Mrs. Reig, Mrs. Hair, Miss Valentine, Miss von Zestro and W. E. Rice, of Warren.

> The bride is favorably known here where she frequently visited and has many admirers.

J. Norman Davies, the bridegroom, is one of the best known young professional men in Warren and a leader in the circle in which he associates. He has already schieved considerable distinction in the practice of medicine and surgery, which is attested by the large practice which he enjoys. He is a prominent member of the Eiks and past exaited ruler of the local lodge, Mr. and Mrs. Davies will receive their friends at their prettily appointed home, 402 Liberty street, after Nov. 10. - Warren Mirro

One of the prettiest of afternoon weddings occurred at the home of Mr. Joseph Green at East Hickory on Wednesday, Nov.3,1897. The occasion was the marriage of Miss Edith Green to Mr. Olin W. Kelsey of Jamestown, N. Y. The house had been tastefully decorated with evergreens and chrysanthemums, Promptly at 1:36, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Miss Blanche Kiester, the bridal party, with Miss Hattie De-Rocher as maid of honor, and Mr. Albert Holcomb of Salamanca as best man, took their places under a floral arch spanning one corner of the room. The impressive ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. E. Hillard of the M. E. church. The bride wore white satin with mounts de soie trimmings and carried cream cannry silk, and yellow roses. The presents were many and beautiful, testifying to the esteem in which Mrs.
