LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—Groundhog day.
—Oil market $65.
—You can get it at Hopkin's store, if.
—Fine sleighing, and here's hopin' she'll last.
—Spot cash gets big bargains at Miles & Armstrong's.
—A lot of men's clothing that must go. Buyers make the price. Come and see. At Robinson's.
—Low prices make big sales. Big sales make low prices. Miles & Armstrong have them both.
—The Epworth League of the Nebraska M. E. Church sent $23 to the Cuban sufferers on Monday of this week. A very commendable and generous act.

—Owing to the fact that Rev. Duzza assists Dr. Ellis for another week at Trinity church, Oil City, the postponed meetings in this place will not begin until next Sunday evening.

—The Pennsylvania State Association of School Directors will hold its annual convention at Harrisburg Wednesday, February 9th. Forest county will probably be represented by a delegate or two.

—Much lumber and tie hauling has been done on the nice fall of snow of the past few days. What we need is about six weeks of snug winter weather. But what we need and what we may get are two different things.

—Amisler always keeps well stocked up in all the good things the markets afford. Vegetables in season and out, and always fresh and reliable. Candles, cigars and tobacco in any quantity, and a whole lot of them for a little bit of money. Fresh oysters always on hand.

—B. W. Bradish of Stewart's Run was in town yesterday and informed us that he and D. H. Brown have material on the ground for an oil rig on the Hunter property, about one-half mile up Hunter run, opposite Tionesta. They expect to have a well drilling within ten days, and success to them.

—W. J. Magee of Oil City will install the officers of Irvin Council, No. 77, Royal Templars of Temperance, on Friday night, Feb. 3. All the members are requested to be present. A lunch will be served and they expect to have a good time. The State grand council of this order meets in Titusville next Tuesday.

—Clarion county for the first time in its history, we guess, is dry so far as the sale of the ardent is concerned. All licenses expired on the 23d ult., and license court does not meet till the 23d of this month. A whole month to go without your toddy and that in a strongly Democratic county! Pretty tough, that.

—The Derrick's oil report for January for all fields shows 496 wells completed, 12,736 barrels new production, 142 dry holes, 710 rigs up and wells drilling. This is a decrease all round as follows: 83 in completed wells, 1778 barrels new production, 13 in number of dry holes, and 142 in number of rigs and drilling wells.

—Governor Hastings has fixed April 29 as the date for the execution of Fredrick C. Rockwell and Patsy Banya, in Elk county. Rockwell was taken from the jail of this county and twice tried in Elk county for the murder of Louis Hates, both trials resulting in first degree verdicts. Banya, a dago, will swing for the murder of a fellow countryman.

—The pastor, Rev. J. V. McAninch is holding a series of meetings at Endeavor this week, which are expected to continue each evening during all of next week. The dedication of the handsome new church at that place will take place next Sabbath morning at 11 o'clock, Rev. S. A. Cornelius of Oil City, preaching the dedicatory sermon. A cordial invitation to all is extended to all.

—J. K. P. Hall of Elk county, whose name has been mentioned in connection with the congressional nomination in the Twenty-eighth district, says that under no circumstances would he be a candidate for the nomination, says an exchange. Democratic candidates in this district are not so plentiful since Mr. Arnold wrested it from their control and twice carried it by large majorities.

—L. E. Branch, formerly one of the proprietors of the Keystone House of Marienville, but for the past year and a half conducting a hotel at Grand Valley, recently purchased Harry Maze's interest in the Clarion Hotel, and has taken a personal charge. Mr. Branch is a born landlord and his many friends in this section will be glad to learn that he has again embarked in the hotel business in this county.

—The faculty of the Titusville High School are going to choose three pupils, and the scholars three, to deliver orations at the June commencement exercises, instead of the entire class appearing in essays or orations, as has heretofore been the case. Many of the graduating class are displeased with the arrangement, which moves the Franklin News to remark that "with a girl graduate it is especially a hardship to be denied the opportunity to exhibit her knowledge and graduation gown."

YOU AND YOUR FRIENDS.

—Hal Davis, who has for the past three months been working in the West Virginia oil fields, is among Tionesta friends again.
—Friends here have received the interesting news of the arrival of a boy at the home of our former townspeople, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Infield, who now reside at Dushore, Sullivan county.
—It is reported that James Daniels, one of the men injured in the shingle mill accident at Parrish last week, died at the Kane hospital, whether he had been taken for treatment. He leaves a wife and family who live at Sugar Grove, Warren county.

—One of the most attractive features at a recent concert given in Jacksonville, Florida, in aid of the Congregational church, was the singing by Miss Alice Ackerly, niece of Mesdames Whiteman and Hagerty of Tionesta. Miss Ackerly is said to be one of the leading singers in the State of perpetual summer.

—Judge J. G. Dale, who has suffered considerably during the past six months from an affection of the kidneys, left today for Philadelphia, accompanied by his son Alex, and will consult the distinguished Dr. Pepper of the University of Pa. Charles Klinefelter of Nebraska, who has been under medical treatment for several months, accompanied Alex and his father, and will also take counsel from this eminent medical expert.

—Mrs. Martha Cook, brief mention of whose death on the 23d ult. was made in our last issue, was born Sept. 3, 1818, in Clinton township, near Clintonville, Venango county. She was married to the late Bradford Cook, Dec. 18, 1837, and lived in the vicinity of Oil City and Franklin until July 6th, of last year, when she came to live with her son-in-law and daughter, Thomas and Jennie Mays, of Tionesta. She was a member of Grace Methodist church of Oil City previous to removal here. She leaves surviving her three children and a number of grandchildren. The remains were buried in the cemetery at Salina, where the husband and some of her deceased children sleep.

—Forest Lodge, No. 184, A. O. U. W., installed the newly elected officers for the ensuing term on Friday night last, J. P. Haling acted as installing officer and the following is the list of officials: Past Master, J. P. Haling; Master Workman, L. J. Hopkins; Foreman, S. H. Maxwell; Overseer, J. B. Eden; Guide, G. W. Hunkle; Recorder, J. R. Clark; Financier, S. J. Setley; Receiver, G. Jamieson; Inside Watch, J. W. Morrow; Outside Watch, J. H. Fones; Trustee, L. Fulton; Rep. to Grand Lodge, J. P. Haling; Lodge Deputy, L. J. Hopkins. The lodge has shown a very healthy growth during the past year in membership, and since the graded assessment system has been adopted, there is perhaps no more reliable or cheaper insurance order in existence than the Workmen, certainly none which have braved the storm so long and successfully.

—While standing in one of the hotels yesterday, we noticed a dapper little fellow walk up to the desk and inquire for the proprietor. The gentlemanly clerk informed him that he was not in, and said he did not think it would do any good to see him as the house was well stocked with goods in his line, whereupon the agent commenced to be quite abusive and went out muttering all sorts of vengeance upon the clerk who had presumed to give his royal highness a tip. Upon inquiry it was learned that the smart aleck was traveling for a house in Indiana and selling printed stationary at very low figures. The thought instantly suggested itself to us, "How many orders did the fellow take out of town and how much good would the money thus spent do the merchants." We often wonder if those who patronize these cheap-John concerns ever stop to consider this phase of the question.—Kane Republican.

After years of untold suffering from piles, B. W. Pursell of Kintnersville, Pa., was cured by using a single box of DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve. His diseases such as eczema, rash, pimples and skin sores are readily cured by this famous remedy. Health & Killmer.
