LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Oil market $78. The peep frogs have thawed out. You can get it at Hopkins' store. New maple sugar and syrup is on tap. Read Miles & Armstrong's carpet bargains. Big remnant sale at Hopkins' store this week. Spring goods coming in at Miles & Armstrong's. Hopkins is in New York this week. Look out for new goods. See those fine silver tea sets given free at Miles & Armstrong's. Work on the new Free Methodist church at Stewart's Run has begun. April 8 and 2 have been designated by the Governor as spring arbor days. Give us a chance on your new carpet. Perhaps we can please you. Miles & Armstrong. Some early gardeners are turning up the earth, which is still considerably mixed with mud. Large assortment of carpets at Miles & Armstrong's. Don't buy until you have seen them. The ground hog's six weeks expire to-day. He's no better weather prophet than the rest of 'em. "The Most Profitable Thing in the World," will be the subject at the M. E. church next Sunday evening. The new borough council organized for the coming year last Wednesday evening, by re-electing the old set of officers. Pennsylvania has thus far contributed nearly twelve thousand dollars in aid of the Cuban sufferers, two-thirds of which is cash. Frank Amster is remodeling his lately purchased building, located next to Lawyer Ritchey's office, and will occupy it as a store room after April 1st. Punxsutawney borough will vote on Tuesday, March 29, on the proposition to borrow $24,000 for the purpose of paving the principal streets of the town. Those of our farmer friends who would like a copy of the report of the State Agricultural department are invited to call at this office and get same. The members of the W. C. T. U. will give a "Duo" social at their rooms, Wednesday evening, March 23, at eight o'clock. Friends of the organization are cordially invited to attend. Raymond, the 18-months old son of Milton and Minnie Salsgiver, died at the home of Bert Fitzgerald in this place, on Saturday night last, after an illness of but a few days. To-morrow'll be St. Patrick's day. Think of it! A year ago the whole country was writhing in anguish over the terrible heart blow which Fitz knocked out Corbet. Robins, bluebirds, crows, sucker fishing and all such have arrived, and are contributing their share toward breaking the backbone of winter, and hustling along spring. An exchange says in its obituary of a resident: "He was a man of spotless integrity, a successful business man, a good advertiser and he always had his job printing done at home." R. B. Crawford is considering plans for building a new dwelling this summer. He contemplates removing his present domicile, and putting one more suited to his fancy on the same site. A saloon-keeper in Philadelphia has boomed his business by putting out this sign: "Every purchaser of ten cents worth of drinks is entitled to declare war against Spain in this saloon." It is said that 79,000 fools and 100 wise men will go to the Klondike this spring. The fools will work the mines and the wise men will work the fools. This is called a Klondike ratio. There's nothing in the line of choice fruits, vegetables, etc. which you cannot find at Amster's. Likewise a fine assortment of cigars and tobacco. All goods fresh and wholesome. Call around. The Oil City opera house was destroyed by fire Thursday morning. The Wilson Theatre company which was playing an engagement there, lost all of its scenery and effects in the conflagration. The Derrick yesterday gave an extended account of Col. Carter's Riverside Stock Farm, at West Hickory. A number of cuts showing off some of the main features of this fine farm accompanied the article. Some ducks have been seen on the river for a day or two past, but few if any have been bagged by our local sports. They're of the rank, fishy variety, anyway, and not worth the ammunition it takes to get them. T. E. Armstrong has begun excavating for the foundation of his new dwelling in the north ward, which he will push along to completion as fast as the weather will permit, and will have a very commodious and pretty home when finished.

YOU AND YOUR FRIENDS.

Jerry Adams went to New Castle on business yesterday. Miss Clara Dunkle spent Sunday with Oil City friends. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Proper visited Titusville relatives last week. Theo. Anderson, of Tionesta, is the guest of Lynn Hodges, Youngsville Citizen. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Amson spent Sunday with Mrs. A.'s parents at North Warren. Mrs. Chas. Hunter returned last evening from a short visit with relatives in Franklin. Miss Lizzie Wortzkey returned to Warren Monday, after a week's visit with Tionesta friends. A Mr. Drake of Book Mills has moved into one of the Koper buildings next to Scowden & Clark's factory. Mrs. J. C. Duggan and daughter, Lizzie, of South Oil City were guests of Judge Proper and family over Sunday. R. J. Thompson has secured the position of manager of the Watson Land Lumber Co.'s general store at Mayburg. J. A. Hart has returned from Williamsport, where he attended the funeral of his sister, whose death occurred recently. Relatives here have received word from Will H. May of Louisville, Ky., who has been quite seriously ill, that he is improving and in a fair way to recovery. A. B. Menley of Tionesta township, who has been troubled for the past year and a half with a cancerous affection of the face, has gone to consult a specialist at Cincinnati. F. E. King, well known in this county, was recently elected justice of the peace in Farmington township, Clarion county. "Dick" will have his office and hold court in Tylersburg. A. E. Eakin, for some time past living at Stewart's Run postoffice, died last night, of diabetes, after several months' suffering. His remains were taken to his former home in Venango county to-day for interment. Jake Siggins has returned from Chautauqua lake where he spent a few days spearing the sportive muscalonge, through the ice. The sport is said to be very fine, and Jake brought a few 'longers home with him to prove it. "Uncle" John Stroup, who spent the past six or eight months with relatives in Clarion and Venango counties, is again with Tionesta friends. Time deals gently with our old friend, and he often seems as chipper as a young robin. Our former townspeople, Dr. and Mrs. M. B. Cook, of Buffalo, were recently called upon to mourn the death of their only daughter, Mary Elizabeth, which occurred on the 10th inst., the burial taking place in Fairview, Erie Co., Pa., cemetery. Dr. and Mrs. Cook have the sympathy of their many Tionesta friends in their affliction. Simeon Hovis of Venango county has been placed under $2,500 bail to await trial for counterfeiting. Unable to secure the required bail he now languishes in Erie jail, having had a hearing before U. S. Commissioner Chase at Titusville recently. A very handsome new flag now floats from the staff on the borough high school building. The proceeds of the recent entertainment given by the school were devoted to the purchase of this new beauty by Prof. Spoor and it is of the regulation pattern and size. List of letters remaining uncalled for in Tionesta, Pa., postoffice, for the week ending March 16, 1898: Mr. Maxwell, photographer, J. S. Marsh, Mr. John A. Noe, Mr. Frank Phillips, Mrs. Jno. Berkheimer, Miss Blanche McMalon. D. S. Knox, P. M.

Sudden Death of Jacob Wagner.

Jacob Wagner, Sr. died of heart failure yesterday at 1:30 p. m., at his home in Tionesta township. Mr. Wagner had been about as usual during the forenoon, apparently in good health, eating a hearty dinner but a short time before his death. He came into the house a little before the hour above indicated and said he felt badly. Dr. Morrow was immediately summoned, but before his arrival Mr. Wagner had breathed his last. Mr. Wagner was born in Lamburg, Province of Rhenish-Pfalz, Prussia, Germany, June 18, 1829, and was therefore in his 72d year. March, 1852, he was united in marriage with Elizabeth Salzman, and in May of the same year he arrived in America. For some time he stopped with relatives in Jefferson county, after which coming to this section, where he cleared up a fine farm and afterwards made his home. His industry and perseverance knew no bounds, and by frugality and economy he became one of our well-to-do citizens. He is survived by five sons and two daughters, besides the aged wife. It was upon his household that the desperate raid and attempted robbery was made nearly eleven years ago by the Hagerty and Wilson gang. Mr. Wagner was a kind neighbor, a good and law-abiding citizen, and his death will be greatly regretted by his entire neighborhood.

Fire at Tylersburg.

The large general store of Kerr & Bowman, at Tylersburg, was totally destroyed by fire about 1 o'clock, yesterday morning. Nothing but a mail bag—the post-office was in the building—was rescued from the building. The fire is supposed to have caught from a gas jet in the feed room. The goods were the property of Willis Kerr and Chas. Bowman, and were valued at $5,000, which loss is said to be covered by insurance. The building was owned by Mr. Bowman. It was valued at $2,500, on which there was an insurance of $2,000. Yokohama Lodge, I. O. O. F., occupied the upper story of the building as a lodge room, and lost its furniture, regalia, etc., entire.

Resolutions of Respect.

At a regular meeting of Forest Lodge, No. 184, A. O. U. W., on Friday evening last, the following resolutions on the death of Wm. Thomson were adopted: WHEREAS, God in His infinite wisdom has called to Himself from our midst Brother William Thomson, an esteemed member of this Lodge, therefore, Resolved, That, while submissively bowing to His will, we will deeply feel the loss which this Lodge has sustained in the death of a most worthy, honorable and upright member, and that we extend to his stricken wife and children our kindest sympathy in their great affliction. Resolved, That, as a slight token of the esteem in which our late brother was held, our Charter be draped in mourning for the period of 30 days, that a copy of these resolutions be presented to Bro. Thomson's family, and that the same be made a part of the minutes of this Lodge. Also, that they be published in the papers of this place.

RECENT DEATHS.

MRS. J. B. CHADWICK. Death has made great inroads in our town of late. One of the last to receive the summons was Mrs. Julia C. Chadwick. She was born in Bristol, Conn., April 27, 1837. She "fell asleep" while visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. F. Walker, at Erie, Pa., on March 5, 1898. Mrs. Chadwick had been married twice. Her first husband was James W. Beeman, having married him in Crawford county, Pa., in 1860. As a result of this union one son was born—who died at the age of 17. This husband died while serving his country in the war of the rebellion. On July 2, 1865 she was again married to J. B. Chadwick. To them five children were born. Her husband and two children, Elbert W. Chadwick, and Berdenia May Walker, survive. All the other children are buried in the M. E. cemetery at this place. Mrs. Chadwick had lived in Tionesta since 1874. Had been a member of the M. E. church since 1872. Although for a number of years she had been a great sufferer, yet she endured her affliction bravely and patiently. Her faith in God was strong and hence her strength. When death came she was ready. Her funeral, which was conducted by her pastor, Rev. Buzza, assisted by Revs. Brennan and Rhodes, took place at the M. E. church, Monday, Mar. 7, at 2 p. m., at which there was a large concourse of sympathizing friends. The floral offerings were unique and beautiful. Her remains were interred in Riverside cemetery where they await "the resurrection morn." The sympathy of the community goes out to the grief-stricken husband and children in their sad bereavement. R. A. B.
