To-morrow this usually wild and woolly old month Marches out. Talk as you like, but the old spring terror has been on his good behavior this year, and we all take back much that we've said about him in the past.

The Cochranton Times says common sheep were sold at a public sale in Wayne township, a few days ago, for $5 per head, and the cows offered each sold for $10 or over. And yet we continue to hear that nothing the farmer raises brings a fair price.

New vegetables and tropical fruits arriving at Anslers' every day and fine variety they are, too. A stock of nice groceries, canned goods, etc., always fresh and wholesome, and sold at lowest prices. Call or phone for what you want.

KILL THE FIRES, AND SAVE THE GAME.

The Franklin Sportsmen's Club will make an attempt to break up the practice of starting fires in forests about this section, and in a few days will offer a reward of $50 for the arrest and conviction of any persons guilty of this offence.

This is the most sensible move yet undertaken by any body of sportsmen. One sweeping fire through a wooded strip of country in the spring time or early summer will destroy more feathered game than all the hunters can possibly do in a season, and if the sportsmen will devote the time and money spent in spying out an occasional pot-hunter, all well enough in its way.

Speaking of forest fires, the commissioners of this county have done a very commendable thing in having printed two of the laws passed by the last legislature relating to forest fires, and will send them out to the several Constables and fire detectives of the county for their guidance, and will exact a strict compliance with the duties therein imposed.

Mrs. Alice H. Siggins, county president of the W. C. T. U., has appointed Miss Nannie Morrow agent for the county to secure subscriptions for the new book, "The Beautiful Life of Frances E. Willard," written by her private secretary, Miss Anna A. Gordon.

John Slocum, a young man aged about 22 years, employed by Collins & Watson, at Golonsa, met with a very painful accident yesterday forenoon. While unloading a car of logs, and when the last log was rolling off, the bunk, or bolster, tipped up and in dropping back to its place, struck the young man on the right leg breaking both bones near the ankle.

It is Judge Lindsey now. The Governor made the appointment on Wednesday last and Mr. Lindsey took the oath of office on the following day. His first business in Forest county will be to hold an argument or special court two weeks from next Tuesday, April 13th, at which time the license applications of this county will be acted upon.

That is how long a generation. That is how long Adolph Fisher, of Zanesville, O., suffered from piles. He was cured by using DeWitt's Little Early Risers. Health & Killmer's Witch Hazel Salve.

The teachers of Kingsley township will hold a final local institute at Kellettville, April 10th, rendering the following program: Forenoon session, 10 o'clock. School-room courtesy, Miss Lohmeyer; Children and good English, Miss Kiser; Essay, Miss Davis; Teaching pupils to think, Mr. Gehring.

It is a great leap from the old fashioned doses of salinaries and nauseous physics to the pleasant little pills known as DeWitt's Little Early Risers. They cure constipation, sickheadache and biliousness. Health & Killmer.

Children like it. It saves their lives. We need One Minute Cough Cure, the infallible remedy for coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, grippe and all throat and lung troubles. Health & Killmer.

The Allegheny conference of the Wesleyan Methodist Connection of America will convene for its fifty-fifth annual session in the W. M. church at Stewart's Run, Wednesday, March 30th, at 9 o'clock a. m., and continue over Sabbath.

Notice is hereby given that the annual meeting of the stockholders of the Tionesta Gas Company will be held in its office at Tionesta, Pa., on the 5th day of April, 1898, at 2 o'clock, p. m., being the first Monday of the month.

The farmer, the mechanic, and the bicycle rider are liable to unexpected cuts and bruises. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is the best thing to keep on hand. It heals quickly and is a well known cure for piles. Health & Killmer.

The undersigned offers for sale his farm of 129 acres, on Church Hill, two and a half miles from East Hickory, Pa. Forty acres cleared, good house, barn and out-buildings. Running water with every convenience. Also young orchard growing. J. C. CHURCH, East Hickory, Pa.

A little boy asked for a bottle of "Tea" up in the morning as fast as you can, "the doctor" recognized a household name for "DeWitt's Little Early Risers," and gave him a bottle of those famous little pills for constipation, sickheadache, liver and stomach troubles. Health & Killmer.

On the morning of Feb. 20, 1895, I was sick with rheumatism, and lay in bed until May 2nd, when I got a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. The first application of it relieved me almost entirely from the pain and the second afforded complete relief. In a short time I was able to be up and about again.—A. F. Moreaux, Livermore, Minn. Sold by G. W. Bovard.

M. L. Yocum, Cameron, Pa., says, "I was a sufferer for ten years, trying most all kinds of pile remedies, but without success. DeWitt's Little Early Risers were recommended to me. I used one box. It has effected a permanent cure. As a permanent cure for piles DeWitt's Little Early Risers has no equal. Health & Killmer.

Trying to Save Her Son.

The Ridgway Democrat says: Mrs. C. B. DeRock, the mother of Fred K. Rockwell, has met with success in her canvass for funds to take her son's case to Supreme Court, and has the necessary amount almost raised. It is not likely that the governor would grant a reprieve until the case could be argued, unless very strong arguments were made and a testimony adduced, which in the opinion of Daniel warranted that action on his part.

Mrs. DeRock has canvassed the county thoroughly and is still engaged in her labor of love. As the Supreme Court will not meet again until after the date set for Rockwell's execution, a reprieve would be necessary from the governor. In the event of his being granted, Ridgway would not have the double execution looked for, and Patsy Banya, the other murderer, confined in the county jail, would have to go to the scaffold alone.

The people of this place would not like such an exigency. In the minds of a majority of the citizens the question of Rockwell's execution is simply a question of time, and the governor or Supreme Court will not save him, although either may prolong his life for a short time. One hangman's day with two victims is laid enough for any town, but two is too much to stand without protesting. The people of Ridgway have shown their good sense so far by not trying to defeat the ends of justice and indulging in senseless sentimentalism, but they would protest against having hangings on two separate days and disturbing the equilibrium of the nervous system necessary. If Rockwell is to be reprieved, give Banya an equal chance and change the date of both, so that in the event of the Supreme Court sustaining the Circuit Court the execution of both can be held at the same time.

Hangings at the best are not edifying spectacles, and the less Ridgway has of them the better the citizens will be satisfied. Rockwell and Banya undoubtedly both deserve the death penalty, but there is no sense or reason in hanging them on two separate days, with a doubling of the attendant excitement and gruesome details.
