ALL QUIET IN WAR CIRCLES.

Dispatches from Washington dated yesterday state that at the Navy Department to-day at the close of office hours no dispatchee of any kind relating to the movements of the fleets or the prospect of an engagement had been received during the day, and that the only dispatch received related to an inconsequential prize case. As to the ships, which are now at sea there is no expectation of reports until a decisive engagement occurs and a dispatch boat gets to a port, or it is found Cervera has eluded our search In the meantime there is a complete lack of official data by which to forecast the coming engagement.

persons writing to soldiers to put the full name and address of the sender either upon the envelope or the enclosure. The rank, company and regiment of a soldier should be included in the address to insure prompt delivery. Thus: "Private John Smith, Company B, Fifth Regiment, New York Volunteers, Washington, D. " would be the proper way to address a letter to a member of the New York

National Cuard in camp at Washington. But should the location of the regiment be unknown to the writer, the remainder of the address will insure safe delivery. The department will appoint at once postoffice inspectors for the purpose of troops. They will constantly be in touch with the troops, and provide ways and means for delivering the mail.

The Best Remedy for Rheumatism.

From the Fairhaven (N. Y.) Register-Mr. James Rowland of this village, states that for twenty-one years his wife has been a sufferer from rheumatism. A few nights ago she was in such pain that she was nearly crazy. She sent Mr. Rowland for the doctor, but he had read of Cham-berlain's Pain Balm and instead of going for the physician he went to the store and secured a bottle of it. His wife did not approve of Mr. Rowland's purchase at first, but nevertheless applied the Balm thoroughly and in an hour's time was able to go to sleep. She now applies it whenever she feels an ache or a pain and finds that it always gives relief. He says no medicine which she had used ever did her as much good.
