LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Oil market $8.80. Strawberries at Amblers. 11. You can get it at Hopkins' store. 11. I. X. L. ice cream at Heath & Killmer's. 11.

Another lot ladies' wrappers at Hopkins'. 11. The war tax goes into effect on June 1. 11.

All the freshest fruits and vegetables at Amblers'. 11. Newest reasonable goods at Miles & Armstrong's. 11.

A Free Methodist camp-meeting will be held in Franklin July 27 to Aug. 3. 11. Still they come, and still they go. Those Strootman shoes, at Hopkins' store. 11.

Sampson does not seek the Spanish fleet more than Miles & Armstrong seek for bargains. 11. Hopkins sells the Slater flannel soldier blue suits, and they are warranted never to fade. 11.

Sires studio, Tionesta, Pa., will be open every Friday and Saturday. 11. T. J. O'SHEA, Manager. 11. The military company will drill to-night and Saturday night. A good attendance is desired. 11.

The national flag now costs more than twice as much as it did one month ago, and it is almost impossible to get them at that price. 11. List of letters remaining uncalled for in the Tionesta, Pa., post office, for the week ending May 23, 1898: Mr. Jas. Whyte, Mrs. H. Reese. D. S. Knox, P. M. 11.

Don't forget the patriotic entertainment to be given at the court house next Monday evening under the auspices of the Woman's Relief Corps. Turn out and give your support to a most worthy cause, and at the same time be agreeably entertained. 11.

The district quarterly meeting of the Oil City district, Free Methodist church, will be held at Oil City, beginning Thursday evening, May 23, and continuing over Sunday. Ministers, workers, and others from all over the district are expected to be in attendance. 11.

Amesler can now furnish you with every variety of vegetable the market affords. Lettuce, onions, tomatoes, cucumbers, radishes, peas, beans, asparagus, etc., and all from the best gardens. Strawberries galore. And his stock of confectionery, cigars and tobacco is so varied you never can go amiss. 21.

Rev. Wm. Richards will preach the G. A. R. memorial sermon on Sabbath next, in the Presbyterian church, at 11 a. m. This will be a union service and it is desired that all who can will attend. Every person invited. All soldiers are requested to assemble in front of G. A. R. hall, and enter church in a body. 11.

On Thursday last a 12 year old son of J. P. Nelson, a stillman, was drowned in the Tionesta creek near Clarendon, Warren county. He was crossing the stream on a small bridge and in some manner threw into the water. The body was recovered in a short time and taken to a physician's office, but life was extinct. 11.

The ladies of the W. R. C., No. 137, of Tionesta, is accepting the invitation of our Post to assist in observing Memorial Day, voluntarily said they will give a lunch in their hall at 12 o'clock on that day for all soldiers and their wives, and we desire that comrades will honor the ladies by having their better half along. G. W. ROBINSON, Com. Stow Post. 11.

The new military company's armory has been put in the best of condition, and we doubt if a finer drill hall in all respects can be found in the State. Incandescent lights have been placed and the large building is splendidly lighted. The drill was quite largely attended by out-of-town members last Saturday night. The company will be a success, whether the boys ever have a chance to fight the Spaniards or not. 11.

The National Oil Co. having purchased the Patterson lease on Cropp hill, will begin the work of rejuvenating the same at once. The production of this lease is already quite good, but the new owners expect to double it in a short time. Wolcott & Son have begun a new well on the Veckroth place, in that same vicinity. Grove Bros. have begun drilling on the deep well on the Collins territory, near Fox creek, Green township. The well will be sunk 3,000 feet or more if oil is paying quantities is not found at a less depth. 11.

R. M. Herman is putting a stock of groceries in his store building, corner of Elm and Bridge streets, which has been vacant for several weeks. He will exercise general supervision over the store, but has placed Jay Bandhead, one of Tionesta's bright and pleasant mannered young men, in charge, who will conduct the establishment in a way that will give satisfaction to its patrons. Mr. Herman will stock his store with the freshest and best in the line of groceries, and in soliciting a share of the public patronage, will strive to please his customers. 11.

YOU AND YOUR FRIENDS.

Mrs. Jas. Haelet visited friends in Oil City over Sunday. Born to Mr. and Mrs. Will Ball, May 21, 1898, a daughter.

Grandison Grove is the guest of his friend Judge Proper this week. Sheriff Burns of Jefferson county is attending court here this week.

Mrs. Burhann of German Hill is paying her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Killmer, a visit. Misses Georgia and Maude Watson of Golenzia are guests of Mrs. Dr. Bowman.

Will Patterson, of Pottsville, Pa., is the guest of his uncle, Prothonotary Robertson. Bro. Shick of the Marienville Express is serving his country as a juror at court this week.

John T. Carson has purchased the interest of Truman Hill in the Hill & Noyon meat market. Mrs. Martin Amann, of Warren, was a welcome guest of her son, Chas. Amann, of this place over Sunday.

Veteran J. A. Small of Nebraska, we are pleased to note, has been granted a pension of $8 per month. Misses Ethel and Fern Bowman have gone to visit McKean county friends for the next two or three weeks.

Leonard Blum, who is learning the machinist trade in Oil City, was up to see his parents over Sunday. Mrs. J. N. Davies of Warren was with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Brennan a few days of the past week.

Dr. and Mrs. C. Y. Detar and young son, of Kelleysville, visited Tionesta last Thursday as the guests of Dr. and Mrs. L. D. Bowman. J. no. D. Edminston of Newmansville, and Barbara Forbes, of Piney township, were granted a license to wed in Clarion county last week.

J. F. Proper left again on Monday to look after his mining interests at Cripple Creek, Col. He expects to remain a greater portion of the summer. Miss Minnie Watson of Golenzia was a guest of the Misses Randall over last Sabbath. She was accompanied home by Miss Ruth Clark, who will visit there for a few days.

Henry Borchert, one of Jenks township's worthy veterans, has been allowed an increase in his pension of $3 per month, and he will receive $17 in the future, instead of $14. Recorder Robertson issued the following marriage licenses recently: Chas. A. Cole and Ida Mealy, both of Farmington township, Clarion county. James Moore and Mary J. Johnson, both of Barnett township, Forest county.

Mrs. Jas. Carson, Mrs. W. G. Morrow, Mrs. Will Elder and Mrs. F. E. Sutley of West Hickory, Mrs. E. L. DeWoody of Fox creek, and Miss Martha Morrow of Tionesta, were passengers on the big barges that left here for Pittsburg yesterday morning. They will undoubtedly have a very pleasant voyage.

Wm. Blocher passed his examination at the Brooklyn navy yard qualifying as a machinist. He was placed on the receiving ship Vermont and is liable to be drafted out for sea service at any moment. Tidouite News. Mr. Blocher's mother resides in Tionesta township, this county, being the widow of the late Peter Blocher, whose memory is still cherished by a large circle of friends here.

Dr. S. S. Towler and wife and daughter were in Kane for a short time this morning while enroute for their home at Marienville from Lancaster, where the Doctor has been in attendance at the State Medical Association. The Republican acknowledges a very pleasant call from this agreeable gentleman.—Kane Republican. Dr. Towler is Chairman of the Committee on Scientific Business, of the State Medical Society, and delivered the annual address before that body at its recent meeting, which is considered quite an honor by the profession.

Daniel T. Baylor, one of Forest county's highly respected citizens, who has lived at Redclyffe for the past few years, died very suddenly of heart disease, on Thursday evening of last week. He was employed as clerk in the store of W. A. Crossman at that place, and had just returned to the store from supper, and was apparently in his usual health, having made no complaint of feeling ill. While walking through the store he sank to the floor and expired almost instantly. Mr. Baylor was aged about 54 years, and leaves a wife and several daughters, all grown to young womanhood. He was an honored veteran of the late war, and a member of Wray Post, Marienville. His remains were taken for burial to his former home in Indiana county.

Memorial Day, which occurs next Monday, will be duly and appropriately observed in this place. Stow Post has all the details in charge and will see that every soldier's and sailor's grave is tastefully decorated, both here and on German Hill, where details will be sent in the morning. The post will be most ably assisted by that other noble order, the W. R. C., and children of the Sabbath schools. The program at the court house will be carried out as published last week. The new military company will be in line on that day, and have secured the services of the Hickory martial band for the occasion. Altogether the day promises to be one of much more than usual interest, in view of the stirring epoch through which our nation is now passing.

The two largest boats ever built on the upper Allegheny were launched at the Lawrence & Smearbaugh boat yards at Hickory last week, and are now on their way to Pittsburg in charge of Pilot Harry Dotterer. They were built by James G. Carson and his crew, and are twins, each measuring 230 feet in length by 20 feet wide. They are designed for the Pittsburg and Cincinnati Packet Line and will be used for wharf boats, or freight house. When coupled together and in use they will have an immense storing capacity, the building to be erected on them being 54x230 feet, 15 feet high. The lumber in these boats is the product of the Wheeler & Dusenbury plant, at Endeavor, and is of the finest quality white pine, while the workmanship is of the most substantial character, and the mere launching of such craft is quite a feat in itself, showing that the facilities for turning out work of great magnitude are practically unlimited with our people.

Presbyterian General Assembly.

WINONA, Ind., May 21.—The 110th General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church met at Winona Lake Assembly grounds on Thursday, the 19th. The elements seemed to have been turned loose in torrents. Everybody was wet, but good-naturedly said nothing about it. The westerners have got so used to wet weather this spring that they do not mind anything short of a cyclone. The gravel walks all through the grounds took up the water freely and made travel there less disagreeable than it otherwise might have been.

Winona is the Chautauqua of the middle west and is under Presbyterian control. The summer assemblies are similar to those at Northfield, Mass., and are under the direction of Rev. J. Wilbur Chapman of evangelistic fame. The auditorium is a commodious and well ventilated structure with a seating capacity of about 2500. It is octagonal in form and well adapted for such a meeting as this. The decorations for the assembly's session are decidedly patriotic, suited to the times through which we are now passing. From the center hangs a large ball covered with the national colors and stretching from this to the different angles are strips of bunting. All around the building flags are hung.

At the left of the platform in large figures we read "1648" and on the right "1898," and over the platform, "110th General Assembly." A vase of huge red roses was all the flowers in sight, although last night the platform was filled with flowers, palms, etc., beautifully arranged. The commissioners are seated by Synods and Presbyteries. Pennsylvania is well to the front among the Synods, and Clarion among the Presbyteries, so we have an opportunity to catch all that goes on. The assembly convened at 11 a. m., Thursday, with a sermon by the retiring moderator, Rev. Seldon Jackson, D. D., L. L. D. Dr. Jackson has a reputation as the great Home Missionary, especially as connected with Alaska. His discourse was largely historical and was well received. At 3 p. m. the first regular business session was held, when the roll of delegates was made out. These represent a church membership of nearly a million scattered in all parts of the world, divided into 32 Synods and 228 Presbyteries. About 600 delegates are present. Many of these are personal college and seminary friends whom I have not seen since leaving school. Several returned missionaries are here and when they speak are earnestly listened to.

After the roll call came the election of moderator for the ensuing year. Two names only were presented and doubtless both felt good during the time their friends were rehearsing their good qualities, abilities and fitness, from the platform. I doubt if either knew before just how great a good they were. The election resulted in the choice of Dr. Wallace Radcliffe of Washington, D. C. over Dr. H. C. McCook of Philadelphia. Both of these are W. & J. College men so I had not much choice in the matter.

Governor Mount, of Indiana, an Elder in the Presbyterian church, was appointed vice-moderator. The Governor delivered the address of welcome which was a very happy affair. He is a very enthusiastic man and spoke in a way to catch the audience both in civil and ecclesiastical affairs. He said Ohio, Indiana and Illinois had furnished all the Presidents of the U. S., except one, for the last 39 years, and most of the vice presidents.

The gospel presented by Dr. Lee of Cincinnati was of English oak inlaid with a piece of granite from Westminster Abbey. On Thursday evening the Lord's supper was celebrated. On Friday committees were appointed and reports on special subjects read and referred to special times. A meeting in the interest of Sabbath school work was held on Friday evening was large and enthusiastic. So far the greatest speech delivered was by Dr. Agnew of Philadelphia, secretary of the Board of Ministerial Relief on the needs and work of this board.

At 2 p. m. to-day there will be a patriotic service, which promises to be a large and enthusiastic meeting, judging from applause which the slightest reference to our present conflict arouses. Next week I may be able to give you something more, when the Assembly will have gotten down to solid business. J. V. MCASINCH.

$4,000 Extra For Forest County. Financial Clerk Glenn of the Department of Public Instruction, has given out his estimate of the amount of State appropriation each county will receive under the new division, which goes into effect the first of June. According to his estimate the schools of Forest county will receive an increase of more than $4,000 over the amount received the past year. This is one law in particular that the people of the country districts should thank the members of the last legislature for passing. There are likely others, but this is one of the best.—Marienville Express.

These give Forest county a little more than one-half more money than it has gotten in the past. In fact, we are not sure but our county gets a larger percentage of increase than any other in the State, and when it is understood that this piece of law and justice was placed upon the statute books against the combined efforts of the larger cities, the country members do deserve much credit for their excellent work in this direction. And this is only one of the many good acts passed at the last session, which will become apparent as time goes by. The mercantile license tax bill, which the Governor vetoed, was another of the excellent and eminently fair measures, but it was doomed when the great mercantile kings threatened to take their avenging from the city dailies if they failed to turn their batteries on the new enactment.

S. S. Convention. The Forest county Sabbath School Convention will meet in the M. E. church of Marienville, June 6, and 7. Each S. S. in the county is urged to send a full representation. A committee will be at the church by eleven o'clock, June 6, to assign delegates and visitors to places of entertainment. Also a committee will be at the depot. Members of committee will have on white ribbons, and delegates and visitors are requested to make themselves known. DR. S. S. TOWLER, Pres. MRS. M. V. PATTERSON, Cor. Secy.

Court Minutes.

Court convened on Monday at 2 o'clock p. m. with President Judge W. M. Lindsay and Associates Nash and McCray on the bench. After the usual routine of receiving constables' returns, the grand jury was sworn and charged by Judge Lindsay.

All but two of the cases on the civil list were either continued or settled, the two being the ejectment cases against the Tionesta Gas Co., which will be tried this week if the criminal list is disposed of in time.

The grand jury had acted on the following bills and finished its work last evening: Commonwealth vs. Wesley D. Zuck; charge, first count, entering dwelling with intent to commit a felony; second count, larceny. A true bill. August Wagner, prosecutor.

Com. vs. Ovid Swanson, wantonly pointing fire arms with intent to kill. True bill. M. E. Grabbill, prosecutor. Defendant plead guilty.

Com. vs. Charles S. Murphy; charge, receiving stolen goods. True bill. John W. Walters, prosecutor.

Com. vs. Robert Bean; f. and b. True bill. Henrietta Keiffer, prosecutrix.

Com. vs. G. B. Scott and A. B. Hill; keeping gambling house. Tried and found not guilty and county to pay the costs.

Com. vs. Charles Butler, Jacob Hiesel and Jacob Briggs; charge, breaking into and damaging school house property. Hickory school directors, prosecutors. True bill found, and Hiesel and Briggs plead guilty. Butler's trial now going on.

Com. vs. same defendants; charge, larceny of honey, Walter Dawson, prosecutor. True bill.

Com. vs. C. Russell, charge, public drunkenness. True bill. The petition of the Overseers of the Poor of Forest County for the establishment of a County Poor House and Farm was presented, and the Court made an order that the question be submitted to the qualified electors of the county at the general election in November next.

A petition of citizens of Forest county for the erection of a soldiers' monument in the court house grounds was presented to the grand jury, which recommended the erection of a monument not to exceed a cost of $1,000.

J. C. Confer Instantly Killed. J. C. Confer, one of Marienville's best known and popular citizens, was instantly killed by a falling tree on Friday last. Mr. Confer had taken a contract for the erection of a shingle mill near Highland, in Elk county, and it was while assisting in clearing off a spot of wooded land for this purpose that the accident happened. Two others were at work with him, and as they were busily engaged a fair sized tree fell out of root, apparently without cause, there being no sign of wind at the time—striking Mr. Confer on the back of the head, crushing his skull and causing instant death. Both the other men were knocked down, but neither badly injured.

The remains were conveyed to his home in Marienville, and the interment was held on Monday. This accident is one of a peculiarly sad and distressing nature, the unfortunate man leaving a family of wife and seven small children, to whom the shock is a terrible one indeed.

Mr. Confer was aged about 38 years. The funeral took place at Marienville on Monday and was attended by an immense concourse of sympathizing friends.

Company Order No. 1. The following officers and non-commissioned officers are hereby appointed, and to hold office until an election is ordered.

Chief of 1st Platoon, Geo. Robinson, Jr. Chief of 2nd Platoon, T. F. Ritchey. Chief of 3rd Platoon, H. H. Shoemaker. Chief of 4th Platoon, Stephen King. First Sergeant, W. G. Wyman. Quartermaster Sergeant, Jas. D. Davis. Second Sergt. and Left Guide, K. C. Heath.

This company will assemble at the armory in Tionesta, Pa., Monday, May 30, 1898, at 9 o'clock a. m., neatly dressed, white collars, clean shoes, white gloves. The company will drill for two hours, dismiss for dinner, re-assemble at 1 p. m., and parade as escort of honor to the G. A. R. By order of J. H. SWANSEN, Captain, W. G. WYMAN, Acting 1st Ser. Tionesta, Pa., May 20, 1898.

A Grand Army General Order. With the hostilities with Spain comes a change in the Grand Army memorial service. A general order has been issued advising posts to omit those sentences in the chaplain's prayer which speak of peace as prevailing instead of war, and which rejoice that the sound of the cannon and the gleam of the bayonet and the saber are of the past.

Since its organization the Grand Army of the Republic has known no days but days of peace, says the Pittsburg Times, and the memorial services are prepared keeping in mind a sorrow for the dead and the joy that peace has smiled upon the country. This year for the first time since the society was organized conditions are different. Another 100,000 men have become possible candidates for membership in the ranks of the honored body, and war has added to the number of graves that will call for the kindly offices of the grizzled veterans. War, whose terrible travail brought forth the Grand Army, is in labor again. Instead of the requiem, and a prayer for the continuation of peace, the cannon thunders again and the saber flashes as in the days of the civil war. Memorial day this year will be different from any ever known in the country. This time it will come home to the hearts of more of the living—to the younger generation. The Grand Army of to-day is the army of which 35 years ago included the boys of our country just as the army that is passing from all sections includes them now. It is the army into which they will be mustered later, and Memorial day and the Grand Army this year will be far more impressive than we have been the habit of regarding of late. The day is prophetic. The Grand Army tells the past. With the cannon waking the nation they meet—the past and future—and it is the present, with all its hopes and fears.
