THE WAR.

KINGSTON, Jamaica, June 7.—News has been received here confirming the report from Port Antonio yesterday of the sinking of the Spanish torpedo boat destroyer Terror, (Furor) by the United States battleship Oregon. It appears that the battleship Oregon saw a long craft sneaking close to the shore heading toward the harbor. She signalled the craft to turn to and the signals were improperly answered, whereupon the Oregon opened fire upon her. A thirteen-inch shell struck the torpedo boat amidships and she sunk with all hands. The vessel is supposed to have been the Spanish torpedo boat destroyer Terror, trying to make her way from Porto Rico into the harbor of Santiago De Cuba.

NEW YORK, June 7.—A special from Kingston, Jamaica, reports that 5,000 United States troops have landed near Punta Cabrea, a little to the west of Santiago De Cuba, where a junction was effected with General Calixto Garcia's army of 3,000 insurgents. It is added that the landing was effected under cover of a fire from Admiral Sampson's fleet. With the troops were several heavy siege guns.

CAPE HAITIEN, Hayti, June 7.—At 8 o'clock this morning strong cannonading was heard before Port Agudores. A quarter of an hour later the noise of the cannonading was greatly increased, the firing evidently proceeding from guns of the largest calibre.

BOTTLED AND CORKED.

That is the condition into which Admiral Cervera has gotten his fleet in the harbor of Santiago De Cuba. For some time it has been definitely known to the navy department that the Spanish fleet was in this bottle-shaped harbor, and the American squadrons, under Admiral's Sampson and Schley, have kept a close watch that the Spaniard did not escape. The plan of filling the channel to the harbor entrance with debris of some kind or other has been under consideration for several days, and sinking of worthless vessels was finally decided upon. The question as to how this hazardous task should be performed was finally solved, when Admiral Sampson called for volunteers to guide a boat into the channel and sink it. Over 4,000 brave boys immediately asked to be assigned to that daring feat. Seven men were chosen, and under command of Lieut. Hobson, the merchant vessel Merrimac steamed into the very face of the land batteries and the guns of the Spanish fleet. When the vessel had reached the proper point the gallant crew of seven coolly turned her cross-wise of the channel and blew her up, leaping themselves into the water to save their lives.

The men were all picked up, Cervera going himself for that purpose, and made prisoners of war, only two being slightly injured. The Spanish Admiral being struck by the audacity and cool bravery of the men, immediately sent word, under a flag of truce, to Sampson to assure him that the American boys were alive and well. The annals of ancient or modern warfare do not furnish a more striking example of patriotic bravery than is here exhibited.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

The Republican State Convention which met at Harrisburg last Thursday did its work promptly, orderly and harmoniously, nominating a ticket whose personnel could not be excelled if the State were raked with a fine tooth comb. This does not mean that it is the unanimous choice of the party which it represents, for that could not be—never has been—but it does mean that better, cleaner or more able men are not to be found in the State. We of the northwest would gladly have seen our neighbor, Charles W. Stone make the nomination, but that does not hinder a cheerful and cordial endorsement of Col. W. A. Stone of Allegheny, who was the successful candidate, and who, like his principal competitor, Charles W. Stone, made an honorable, open and fair contest for the nomination. Col. Stone has very many warm personal friends and admirers in Forest county, where he has on different occasions spoken for the cause of Republicanism and its candidates, and the party in this county will to a man give him loyal support in the fall.

General J. P. S. Gobin, Commander-in-Chief of the Grand Army of the Republic of this Nation, was unanimously named for Lieutenant Governor; General James W. Latta, another of the gallant defenders of the Union, was unopposed for Secretary of Internal Affairs, and the venerable Republican war-horse, Galusha A. Grow, and the Hon. Samuel A. Davenport, of Erie, were re-nominated Congress-at-large. Judge William W. Porter was nominated for Superior Court Judge by acclamation, thus completing a ticket composed of men whose Republicanism, honesty, capability, and loyalty has never been questioned.

Congressman W. C. Arnold of this district made a gamey fight for Congress at-Large, and received the handsome complement of 148 votes in the convention, only lacking 38 votes to nominate him. Mr. Arnold, as have all the others who were before the convention and failed, has expressed his determination to give his loyal and hearty support to the ticket nominated, and an old-time victory is predicted for it in the fall.

TOLESTOI speaks of patriotism as one of the "dreadful evils." He must have been making a study of what passes under the name of Spain.

In the year 1897 only twenty-four American vessels arrived at Manila. The prospect for a large increase in 1898 is excellent, without counting Dewey.

The Spanish people seem to be tired of the war. It is plain that they expected it to open with some great feat of Spanish arms instead of a succession of disasters.

The Oregon made one continuous run of 4500 knots without stopping her engines. If it becomes necessary to attack Spanish ports the Oregon can be depended on to do her share.

ENGLAND'S new battleship Implacable will cost $20,000,000 of which $2,000,000 is for her guns. The navies of the year 1900 will be a striking contrast with those of a century before.

ADMIRAL DEWEY'S fleet is larger by three captured gunboats than it was when it entered Manila Bay. After the Monterey and the Charleston reach him he will be ready to defy the whole navy of Spain.

A SON of Gen Grant is a Brigadier General, his grandson is an aid to Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, his widow has accepted the presidency of the Women's National War Relief Association, and his daughter has resumed her American citizenship. The patriotism of the Grant family can be relied on.

PRESIDENT MCKINLEY expresses himself well in his note to the Gettysburg memorial day committee. He dwells upon the reunited sentiment of the country and on the living principles that "abide forever and guide us to a nobler destiny and still greater achievements as a nation." The American people are knit together more closely than ever before, and the President understands and reflects their high spirit and patriotism.

THE Republicans of Clearfield county will have an opportunity at their coming primaries to reward a faithful, honest, fearless and able official by re-nominating Hon. Frank G. Harris, a member of the last Assembly. Mr. Harris was a new member, but ability and fairness rapidly brought him to the front as one of the leaders in that body. He looked after the interests of his people with scrupulous care and was always found at his post of duty. The party will do itself great credit by honoring him with a re-election to the legislature.

THE wheat crop is reported in fine condition, and the golden fields never deserved the adjective more than at present quotations.

The Platform.

Following is the platform adopted by the Republican State Convention at Harrisburg last week:

"First—The republican party of Pennsylvania, in convention assembled, ratifies and reaffirms the doctrine enunciated in the Republican national platform adopted at St. Louis in 1860 and approved by the people at the last presidential election. "Second—We declare our emphatic approval of the wise and patriotic course of the President and congress in the present war. We appreciate the high statesmanship which led the President to resort to every honorable means to avert the necessity of war with Spain. We demand a vigorous prosecution of the war to a successful conclusion, and we pledge our earnest support to the President in whatever measures he may deem necessary.

"Third—We rejoice with the people of the nation upon the brilliant record which the American navy has made in the present war. The splendid victory of the American fleet under Commodore Dewey at Manila has not been rivaled in the history of naval warfare; and our people have such confidence in the officers and men of our navy that they confidently look forward to equally brilliant victories in Cuban waters. We demand that the national government shall, as rapidly as possible, increase and build up our navy so that we shall be at all times prepared to meet the necessities of our national defense, to protect our merchant marine and our growing foreign commerce, and with the same object in view we demand that the national government shall provide adequate coast defenses upon our seaboard of the Atlantic and Pacific oceans. We congratulate the state upon the promptness with which Pennsylvania filled the quota required by the national government with trained and efficient volunteer soldiers.

"Fourth—The Republicans of Pennsylvania reaffirm their adherence to the doctrine of protection to American industries. Two years ago our mills were closed and our manufacturing, commercial, agricultural and business interests were prostrated. To-day our mills are opened, labor is given full employment and a general revival of industrial activity promises renewed prosperity in our state. We affirm the declaration made in the last Republican national platform in favor of the construction of the Nicaragua canal, and we call on congress to push this work as speedily as possible. We express our gratitude to our senators and to the congressmen of this state for their efforts in securing such appropriations from the national government as will insure the final completion of the improvements upon the Ohio, the Allegheny and the Monongahela rivers. Recognizing that Western Pennsylvania is destined to become the manufacturing center of the world, we demand that congress shall make adequate provision for the construction of a water-way between the slack-water navigation of the Ohio and its tributaries and the great Lakes, and we express our cordial approval and pledge our earnest support, of the proposed canal connecting the Great Lakes with the seaboard.

"We reaffirm the declaration in this platform of the Republican party in this state in 1867 in favor of the law restricting immigration of cheap foreign laborers who are unwilling and unqualified to assume the duties of American citizenship, but who enter into competition with our own workmen.

"We heartily and cordially endorse the administration of President McKinley; the people of Pennsylvania appreciate his patriotism and statesmanship and have implicit confidence in his ability to guide the nation at this time. "We commend the wise, careful and efficient administration of the state government in its various departments, and heartily approve of the fidelity with which our state officials have discharged their duties."

NEWS NOTES.

The borough of Kittanning is carrying a debt of $40,000.

Says the Chicago Times-Herald: "Byron made 'Cadiz' rhyme with 'ladies,' but if Sampson ever crosses the Atlantic he will make it rhyme with 'hades.'"

We see it stated that a valuable deposit of ferro-manganese has been discovered on the Horner farm near Heathville, Jefferson county. The mineral is used in the manufacture of rolled steel and is worth $50 a ton.

The present war brings the solution of the tramp question. It is not proposed to enlist all the tramps into regiments by themselves and they will have to fight to earn their bread or stop some of the Spanish bullets.

The Spanish papers are well posted on American history. El Diario, published at Madrid, says: "It will no doubt surprise our readers to learn that the Yankee President Marginey is a naturalized Chinaman, having been born in Canton.

A southerner and a soldier of the Confederacy, now living in Iowa, expressed the sentiment of the South very plainly and tersely the other day when he said: "We couldn't lick the Yankees in 1861, and d—d if we'll let any one else lick 'em now."—Connell Blues Nonpariel.

The sending of hardtack through the mails home, has become quite a fad. Some quaint inscriptions are written on the army bread and the recipients are preserving them as mementoes. The young ladies are decorating them and hanging them in the parlors much to the chagrin of the lovers that remain at home.

A lady asked if etiquette required her to knock at the door of an editor's sanctum? If you are coming to pay your subscription or bring a nice juicy item of news don't stop to knock but walk right in as if you owned the place. If on the other hand you are on a collecting tour you should make the fact known through the window and then knock at the door until the editor opens it. If he does not open it in an hour call again.

Perhaps the funniest features of war illustrations is furnished in the stirring pictures of naval battles, as given in the pictorial papers. These thrilling pictures represent the opposing fleets as ranging up close together and banging away with their monster guns, while the intervening 100 feet or so is dense with the cloud of powder smoke. About the nearest that opposing battle ships get to each other is about two miles. Dewey bombarded Cavite at double that distance. If modern naval vessels were to get much closer than that, they would simply be a matter of the first shot. One big shell delivered at close range, says the Washington Star, would leave only the debris of the struck ship floating on the water.

Mr. Isaac Horner, proprietor of the Burton House, Burton, W. Va., and one of the most widely known men in the State was cured of rheumatism after three years of suffering. He says: "I have not sufficient command of language to convey any idea of what I suffered, my physicians told me that nothing could be done for me and my friends were fully convinced that nothing but death would relieve me of my suffering. In June, 1884, Mr. Evans, then salesman for the Wheeling Drug Co., recommended Chamberlain's Pain Balm. At this time my feet and limbs were swollen to more than double their normal size and it seemed to me my leg would burst, but soon after I began using the Pain Balm the swelling began to decrease, the pain to leave, and now I feel that I am entirely cured.
