Beauty --In harmony with the patriotic spirit that inspires every American citizen today the members of the G. A. R., in connection with the newly organized miliitary company, have initiated the movement for an old-fashioned Fourth of July celebration this year in Tionesta, such as has never been witnessed in this section before.

Fourth of July Celebration at Tionesta.

A pole-raising at the armory will undoubtedly be the principal feature of the forenoon, followed by a bicycle parade in which 300 bikes are expected to be in line all guily decorated.

The afternoon exercises will include the reading of the Declaration of Independence, and addresss by a speaker of national reputation. Exercises by 46 young ladies representing the different states of the union (Cuba will not be forgotten) and the review of the military compauy.

Arrangements are being made for the grandest display of fire works in the evening that has ever been witnessed in this part of the country.

The military company are making special arrangements for the grand ball at their Armory for afternoon and evening, in fact the people of Tienesta are determined nothing shall be left undone to entertain all who come to help them in celebrating our Declaration of Independonce in 1776 as well as the Declaration o

Independence of Cuba in 1898. Fuil and complete program will be published next week.

The committee of the G. A. R. and military company have begun work in dead earnest to make the coming Fourth of July celebration o e to be long remembered in this locality. Committees will visit Pleasantville, Neiltown, Hickory, Kellettville, Nebraska, Marienville and other towns to invite them to come

At a meeting held last evening a committee was appointed to co-operate with the G. A. R. and new military company, as a general committee of arrangements. A meeting of these committees will be held next Friday evening at the Central House parlors, at which time final arrangements will be made.

of state school funds, which was devised by the last legislature, goes into effect on June 6. It discriminates against the cities and other populous centers in favor of the country districts. Instead of dividing the state appropriations on the basis of the number taxables in each district, to the number of teachers, taxables and children. Under this plan the districts will receive $66.07 for each teacher, $1.97 for each taxable and $1.62 for each child of school age, 6 to 16 years. The funds for this year become available when the new system goes into effect. Treasurer Beacom will make the distribution at the rate of $200,000 a week, preference being given to the small districts which rely largely upon the money they receive from the state to run the schools. -The law providing for the protection of black bass in the streams of this Comconwealth does not fully meet the purpose for which it is intended, or in other words the season when bass may not be caught does not extend over that period of time when bass are spawning and most need protection and are the easiest caught. The law provides that no bass shall be caught between the first day of January and the first day of June, and the spawnmiddle of the month. During spawning season the fish are easily found and may he approached without much liklihood of their swimming away, and as a matter of protection to their spawn will bite almost on an empty hook. An amendment of the Act relating to the catching of bass, salmon, pike, etc., making the opening day about one month later, be of more practical value than the whole five months for which the law now pro-
