The rag carpet, after many years, has returned. It is once again fairly popular and the rags that for a quarter of a century have been going to the rag man are now being treasured up, since if they are all wool, they are almost worth their weight in gold. Why the rag carpet ever did go out of style it is hard to determine, and its reappearance in society is not difficult to understand. Properly put together and made of a good assortment of rags, it is exceedingly pretty, and withal easy to manufacture, all the knack needed being the skill necessary to cut the rags into strips, sew these together in lengths and wind them into a ball. For a small sum the rag carpet weaver does the rest. Bathroom and study rugs are the chief uses of the rag carpet of today. It is not so much rag carpets, in fact, as it is rag carpet rugs. The rag carpet rug is not large, as a rule. Six feet by three would be quite an extraordinary size. The idea is to have quite a number of
