Of course Admiral Dewey favors keeping the flag up at Manila. As to the rest of the Philippines his position may be inferred from his advice that the fleet be re-enforced.

A Democratic tremor is perceptible throughout Missouri. The Bourbons must meet a united Republican party this year, and the Populists are more disposed to hit than to help them.

GEN. BLANCO'S last proclamation to the people of Havana sounds like the wail of a man who has loaned money to a stranger on a railway train and accepted a bogus check as security.

The Spanish Cortes can hardly be called a representative body. Two parties have already given notice that they will not attend because the program of legislation is prepared in advance.

DR. ANDREW'S, the new Supt. of Chicago schools, advocates the teaching of Spanish in the public schools, for the reason that some of our boys may want to do business in our new possessions.

WHEN Abraham Lincoln ran for re-election in 1864 the Democratic platform pronounced the war a failure. There have been later indications that the Democratic party is a poor judge of war.

The lugubrious sensationalist is the meanest of his class. His business is to exaggerate the number and condition of the army sick, to make the well soldiers sick if he can and their relatives miserable.

WITH imports decreasing and exports increasing, there is none left to criticize the beneficial results of the Dingley bill, which Democracy conceded would decrease our imports, but claimed would destroy our foreign markets.

THE organ of the German Agrarians wants to know why a "spirited tariff war" is not begun against the United States, since this country, after concluding a reciprocity treaty with France, refuses Germany the rights of a most favored nation. One reason is that Germany could make the same sort of reciprocity arrangement with the United States as France made, if it wished to do so.

THOSE people who are counting upon a great Republican dissatisfaction this fall, who think that there is a good chance to elect the Democratic candidates, will certainly be gravely disappointed. It is true many people are easily convinced that the best way to save the country is to desert their party, and that the masses are inclined to rush from one extreme to the other. But the fact that the Republican party has managed matters with consummate skill and wisdom, has brought us out of prosperity and glory, ought to have more influence upon the minds of the voters than the bugaboo stories of a lot of disgruntled, ambitious and unscrupulous politicians posing as reformers.—Kittanning Free-Press.

THE gold in the treasury and in the country at large is piling up to unprecedented figures, farm products bring high prices, business is better than it has been at any previous time in seven or eight years, and the country is prosperous and happy. This is what the people get for putting the Republican party in power. Of course, part of the big stock of gold in the treasury is due to the war loan and is, therefore, borrowed money. But the amount of gold in the country at large is greater than ever before, and this is not borrowed. Nor is there anything fictitious about the business activity and the general prosperity. No sane person supposes that we would have this prosperity now if the election two years ago had gone the other way. The people did a grand day's work on November 3, 1896, when they smashed Bryanism.—St. Louis Globe Democrat.

Fake Reformers.

In every political campaign that has been fought in Pennsylvania for the past century the battle cry of the party that was outside and wanted in has been Reform. "Elect us to office," they have said, "and we will give you an exhibition of honesty and disinterested patriotism such as you have never dreamed of. Your taxes will be merely nominal. Everything will be beautiful. Briars will cease to grow in your fence corners, peach trees will not be troubled with the yellows, and the cut-worms will not bother your cabbages. Elect us to office, and instantly rogues will be transformed into honest men and fools will become wise." That is the sort of half upon which the people are fed every time their votes are wanted. It is our duty to exercise discernment, to put honest, competent men into office everywhere, and to honor them, thus putting a premium upon honesty and faithful service. But if we permit ourselves to be deceived by vituperation and venality we put a premium on lying and deceit, shame and scandal. If elections can be won in this way the most accomplished and unscrupulous blackguard will soon become the most important man in the State. If we are to jump on a man and kick him out of office in disgrace simply because the man who wants his place is a spine-taking liar, what is to become of the State?

The old men of Pennsylvania who have tried to vote in the millennium many times when called upon to do so by the "reformers" who were desperately hungry for office, will realize that they are still living in a wicked world. Those who turned a deaf ear to the howlers and voted their party ticket excepting when they knew that a mistake had been made, feel that, if they have not transformed the world into a Paradise by their ballots, they have at least not been the dupes of political fakirs, and have the consolation that they have been loyal to their party.—Punxsy Spirit.

A Nightmare of the Past.

The Honolulu Bulletin, in describing the official transfer of the Republic of Hawaii to the United States, says: "The flag that 'Paramount' Blount had lowered from the judiciary building—then executive headquarters—on April 1, 1893, was hoisted at noon upon the identical flagstaff from which it was then hauled down."

From April 1, 1893, to August 12, 1897, was a long time to wait. "Paramount" Blount and all the special agents of Grover Cleveland, both great and small, reported that the republic could not exist without the support of the United States; but in spite of the conspiracy of President Cleveland to overthrow the republic and replace Liliuokalani upon the throne it has existed for more than five years, and the islands are now a territory of the United States. What a "nightmare of the past" that Cleveland administration was in all things!—Phil A. Inquirer.

Tariff Receipts.

The receipts for the Dingley revenue act for the last five months are $9,500,000 in excess of the ordinary expenses of the country. That would have given us in a time of peace a surplus of over $20,000,000 a year, which is ample for all ordinary contingencies.

The whole nation knows without being told what it has done for the industries of the country. It has amply vindicated the wisdom, patriotism and business sense of the party that framed and passed it. Let the electors next November bear in mind the pains and penalties of a Popocratic administration and endorse the economic success of the Republican party at the polls. No matter what the petty provocation may be to kick out of the traces and displace the old party from power, it costs too much.

SECRETARY GAGE announces there will be no further issue of war bonds. Persons who have money to lend will have to seek other borrowers.

It would be well to remember that if you want to vote you must pay your own poll tax or authorize some one else to do it in writing. Those who neglect this duty, with the idea that party organization will attend to it, will find themselves disqualified to perform the act of suffrage when the time comes. The last Legislature passed a law to that effect, and violation of it is punishable by fine and imprisonment.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve has the largest sale of any other salve in the world. This fact and its merits has led dishonest people to attempt to counterfeit it. NEWSY NOTES.

In Limestone, Me., the proud monarch of a poultry yard was struck by lightning and deprived of all but two tail feathers. The rooster still survives and his owner has christened him Cervera.

Hopkins sells the clothing and shoes. It is reported that a maiden lady just a trifle too thin in flesh to please herself, recently sent a quarter to an eastern advertiser who promised for that sum to impart trustworthy information as to "How to get fat," and received the information on a postal card: "Buy it off the butcher."

—New shoes at low prices. Miles & Armstrong.

At Sistersville the police force have purchased a number of dark lanterns to enable the conservators of law and order to ferret out wickedness by the search light process. But the whole bundle of lanterns was stolen by a party of young thieves on the day following its arrival in the Oil Babylon of the Southwest. There is a town that needs reforming.

Hopkins sells the clothing and shoes. People who think to save the stamp tax on legal papers by not having them recorded run a great risk in doing so, as they are practically worthless in law without the stamp. Better be safe—stamp your papers and enter them in the proper manner. Every patriotic citizen ought to cheerfully bear that small proportion of the expense of a war that has been so remarkably successful.

At this season of the year napkins, tablecloths and even children's clothes are very apt to become stained with fruit. One of the simplest methods to remove these stains from linen or cambric is to place the stained part over a bowl and continue to pour boiling water through until the stain disappears. If this is done after the article is stained, there will be no trouble in most cases. The water must be boiling hot.

A county superintendent in a neighboring county asked every teacher at the county institute who took their local or county paper to hold up their hands, and only six responded. The superintendent expressed great surprise and said: "You don't spend a dollar a year with these papers, yet you expect them to print free of charge notices of all institutes, insert long programs, expect them to advertise you, thus assisting you to climb the ladder to better positions and salaries, without paying a cent in return."

After you get angry and stop your paper, just poke your finger into water, pull it out and look at the hole. Then you will know how sadly you are missed. A man who thinks a paper cannot thrive without his support ought to go off and stay awhile. When he comes back, half his friends will not know he has gone and the other half will not care, while the world at large keeps no account of his movements. You will find things you cannot endure in every paper. The "Book of Books" is often very plain and hits some hard raps, but if you were to get mad and burn your Bible, the hundreds of presses would still go on printing it. So when you stop your paper and call the editor names, the paper will still be published, and what is more, you will read it on the sly.—Cycle.

A CRITICAL TIME.

During the Battle of Santiago, Sick or Well, a Rush Night and Day. The Packers at the Battle of Santiago de Cuba were all Heroes. Their Heroic Efforts in Getting Ammunition and Rations to the Front Saved the Day.

P. E. Butler, of pack train No. 3, writing from Santiago de Cuba, on July 23d, says: "We all had diarrhoea in more or less violent form, and when we landed we had no time to see a doctor, for it was a case of rush and rush night and day to keep the troops supplied with ammunition and rations, but thanks to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, we were able to keep at work and keep our health in fact, I sincerely believe that at one critical time this medicine was the direct saviour of our army, for if the packers had been unable to work there would have been no way of getting supplies to the front. There were no roads that a wagon train could take, my comrade and myself had the good fortune to lay in a supply of this medicine for our pack train before we left Tampa, and I know in four cases it absolutely saved life."

The above letter was written to the manufacturers of this medicine, the Chamberlain Medicine Co., Des Moines, Iowa. For sale by G. W. Howard.

The Dewey Entertainment.

On Friday evening the Dewey Club of Kellektiville, consisting of about 35 members, gave an elegant entertainment in Andrews' hall. The program consisted of dialogues, recitations, singing, and tableaux. One feature of the evening's enjoyment was a tableau representing the King of Spain surrendering to Uncle Sam. The training of the club has always been under the personal management of Miss Sarah Amsler, one of the charter members, and the one person who has been instrumental in forming the Dewey Club. All the members of the club feel very grateful to Miss Amsler, whose every thought was for the advancement of the club's interests.

The following names comprised the officers of the club: President, A. C. Beeson; V. P., Jacob Ray; Sec'y, Harry P. Frazier; G. P., P. C. ... The president of the club sent written invitations to the members of Schley Club of Mayburg, who kindly accepted and were present at the evening amusement. Reserved seats were furnished the visiting club, and the only serious difficulty the Dewey club had to contend with was the limited amount of space set aside, thus causing them to huddle together like dried apples on a string. The Dewey Club will meet again in the same hall and elect such officers as they deem necessary on Thursday evening. If possible it will be a permanent organization, giving entertainments at short intervals from time to time. The next amusement will be given in three or four weeks.

Bizarre Designs in Wall Paper. are very effective when used in large rooms. In the average room, a rich design of solid color, with maybe a sprinkling of little figures in contrasting color, is the proper thing.
