Although but one -whose name was on the program, was any of the exercises of that sessio". The tee on resolutions reported through their music was good, and the lecture, "Victorious Endeavor," by Rev. B. Canfield Jones, of Erie, and the address by Rev. McCormick were excellent. Some one in the audience was heard to remark that all the speakers were young men this time, This is a young people's movement and one of the most hopeful signs of the future. The young people of today are not satisfied with any "new-fang led" ideas and issues advanced by some, and .othing but the old gospel story will stand the test with them. Mr. G. W. Ludwig of Titusville, president of the society, presided over the evening meeting, introducing the speakers and conducting the business meeting with ease and dignity. Mr. O. F. Miles of Tionesta was chosen delegate to the state convention to be held in Harrisburg in October. It was decided to hold the next convention in Second Presbyterian church of Oil City. At the close of the evening session, lunch was served by the Tionesta society in the S. S. room, to all visitors, and a happy social hour closed this
