PAY your taxes at once if you care to vote this fall.

A CHANGE of parties is bound to do good, because any party, no matter how pure in the beginning, is sure to become corrupt with a long lease of power. Turn the rascals out—Vindicator.

Aye, aye; and turn the soup-house propagators in? "Turn the rascals out," and let in the hungry Democratic horde. The gall of some people is truly appalling.

THE nomination for governor of Col. Roosevelt, of Rough Riders fame, insures York State to the Republicans in the coming election. But the Democrats have turned their mud batteries on him just the same. The fact that Roosevelt is one of the cleanest men in politics and personal character that the country has does not make him "immune" against Democratic slander.

WE haven't any charges to make, but we want to urge upon every voter in Clarion county that he investigate the character of the Republican candidate for Congress and see if he is worthy of your votes.—Clarion Democrat.

To be sure, and at the same time investigate the character of the Democratic candidate and see if he is half as worthy of your votes as the Republican candidate.

It affords us pleasure to note the renomination of Hon. H. H. Mullin by the Republicans of Cameron county as their candidate for Assembly. Harry was one of the useful members of the session of '95, keeping a close watch of legislation affecting his county, and his return to the House will mean that Cameron has a representative that is of much value to the county. The Republicans of his county should leave no stone unturned to send him back to Harrisburg.

TAKE no stock in wild rumors as to what this or that township is going to do at the coming election in Forest county. It has been discovered that our enemies are going about from place to place declaring that in such and such townships there's going to be a big slump from the Republican column. In every instance these rumors have been found to be lies made out of the whole cloth, and started for effect. Every precinct in this county will show up its usual Republican vote for the straight ticket this fall, and all the falsehoods that can be manufactured by the enemy will not change the result. Stick a pin there.

THE advance in the wages of the employed of the Oil City Tube mills, some 700 in all, went into effect yesterday. When the men came to work in the morning, they were informed by the time keeper of the rate of the increase. The advance was a liberal one of from 10 to 12 per cent, and it was a treat to see the manner in which the men conducted themselves, and in the good feeling that prevailed among them.—Derrick.

This is altogether different reading matter than that which greeted us almost daily two and three years ago, when our Democratic friends were running things. The laboring man took a hand then in "turning the rascals out," and he will see to it now that the "rascals shall be kept out."

ONE of the amusing things of the campaign—and it would be really laughable if not quite so ridiculous—is the attempt to impress the people with the idea that the Ridgway Evening Star is a Republican or independent paper, when the fact is that it is printed in the office of the Ridgway Democrat, from the same type, under the same proprietorship, and contains almost identically the same reading matter and editorials. Such flim-flam rackets are too stale to catch the voters of the 28th Congressional district, who will see to it that Mr. Arnold is returned to Congress by an increased majority. Every Republican paper in the district is giving him the most loyal and hearty support, and no amount of lying nor boodle will turn the Republican voters one iota from their patriotic duty this year. And this may as well be understood first as last.

Mr. Arnold Will Be Re-elected.

Speaking of the late Republican Congressional conference held in Ridgway the Advocate says in conclusion:

S. S. Crissman, of Centre county, in a short but very neat speech placed the name of Hon. W. C. Arnold in nomination, which was seconded by J. H. McEwen, of Clearfield county. Henry A. Parsons, Jr., presented the name of Delos Doliver as Elk's choice and made a lengthy plea for his candidate. This nomination was seconded by H. H. Wensel. Hon. Chas. A. Randall then presented the name of A. Wayne Cook as Forest county's favorite son and the nomination was seconded by Gus B. Evans. The voting then began, the counties being called in alphabetical order. Centre, Clarion and Clearfield each cast three votes for Mr. Arnold and Elk three votes for Mr. Doliver. At this point Mr. Randall asked leave to withdraw the name of Mr. Cook, which was granted, and then the three Forest county conferees voted solidly for Mr. Arnold, giving him 12 out of the 15 votes. Chairman Dale promptly declared Hon. W. C. Arnold duly nominated as the Republican candidate for Congress in the Twenty-eighth district. J. H. McEwen then moved to adjourn, but the conference wouldn't have it till they had a formal acceptance from the victor. Mr. Arnold was called for and he responded with emphasis that as he had done twice in the past, so he would again lead this district to a glorious Republican victory.

The conference then adjourned, and congratulations were in order. Mr. Cook and his Forest county delegation came in for a good share of credit for the happy and graceful manner in which they bowed to the will of the majority.

Major Brown, Our Next State Senator.

The Ridgway Advocate of last week has this interesting piece of news in connection with its report of the Republican Senatorial conference held in that place on the 22d ult.:

After the nomination had been made, H. H. Mullin, of Cameron, who had been spoken of as a leading candidate for the nomination, arose and made an eloquent and enthusiastic speech in favor of the nominee, and he emphatically declared the Thirty-eighth was rightfully a Republican district as shown by the vote on State tickets on several occasions in recent years. He urged a hearty support of Major Brown and expressed confidence in his election. The nominee was not present, but there was much enthusiasm over his nomination, and when Mr. Mullen spoke of the candidate's brilliant war record and the fact that this is a great year for soldier tickets, his words were heartily applauded.

There being no other business the conference then adjourned.

The following is from Bates' history of Company K, 14th Regiment Pennsylvania Volunteers:

Jeremiah Z. Brown entered the service Sept. 7, 1862, promoted from 1st Sergeant to 1st Lieutenant Nov. 15, 1863, to Captain July 31, 1864, Brevet Major Oct. 27, 1864. Mustered out with company June 1, 1865. In front of Petersburg on the 27th of Oct. or General Nelson A. Miles, who commanded the division, ordered a detachment of 100 men from the regiment under Captain J. Z. Brown to assault a portion of the enemy's lines on his front. Having formed the men for the desperate work just at dusk, he dashed forward, thrust aside the dense abatis, drove in the opposing pickets and scaled the ramparts, carrying the strong work, capturing four commissioned officers and more men than he had led to the encounter. For his gallant conduct, Captain Brown was highly commended and breveted Major. In recognition of his bravery in this desperate assault, Congress voted him a medal suitably engraved which was presented to him.

Following is an exact copy of the recommendation submitted by Gen. Miles in 1864:

Headquarters 1st Division, 2d Army Corps, October 31, 1864. MAJ. JESSE CARNCROSS, Asst. Adj. Gen., 2d Army Corps:

In compliance with instructions contained in a circular of this date I have the honor to submit the following recommendation:

That Captain Jeremiah Z. Brown, 148 Pa. V., receive the brevet rank of Major. Captain Brown on the 27th of Oct., led a party of 100 men through chevaux de frise and abatis of the enemy's line, opposite Fort Morton, capturing one of his works with several prisoners among whom were officers of rank.

Very respectfully, NELSON A. MILES, Brig. Gen. Commanding. It gives candidate Jenks a pain under the apron to see the Republican party honor the American flag. He is more touchy on that subject than he was during the war, when he was known as one of the most bitter opponents of the Government in this part of the State.—Indiana Messenger.

A Tried and True Congressman.

Speaking of the re-nomination of Hon. W. C. Arnold, the brilliant Congressman from this district, the Clearfield Journal very truthfully says:

It is hardly necessary to even refer to the record of Mr. Arnold in his past official life, as that is known to every voter in this large Congressional district. The old soldier, for whom he has spoken and for whom he has labored incessantly for the past four years as a member of the lower House of Congress, know him and will vote for him; the lumbermen, who know how he spoke and labored for the Dingley bill, to get $2 duty on both hemlock and pine lumber, will not forget him; neither will the coal dealers for his efforts to secure a greater duty on coal, and the woodsman and the miner, directly benefited, will not forget him.

The believers in a sound currency will recall that positive declaration of Mr. Arnold in his famous speech on silver coinage and sound money, Feb. 6th, 1896: "I am for a protective tariff and sound money as against free trade and free silver," and will vote for him in November. Those who believe the late war was right from a humane standpoint, have not forgotten his marvelous speech on "Free Cuba," March 2, 1896, and his earnest appeal for the suffering thousands on that island, and will support him for his stand in that critical hour. Citizens who have watched his career and have heard his voice on public questions, and have felt his influence in their behalf, stand ready to support him for a third term. The people of the 28th Congressional district should follow the rule laid down by the people of the Eastern States: Elect good men to Congress and then keep them there. This is why no Democrats are elected from Maine, New Hampshire and Vermont, and why the present incumbents have been there from the time the memory of man runneth not to the contrary. Do this with Mr. Arnold; keep him there so long as he proves a faithful servant of the people, and let his past record be a guarantee of the future. His opponent is an untried man, of large business interests that will require his time. Mr. Arnold is a professional man, specially adapted to the work of a Congressman, and never forgets a duty to a constituent, whether a Democrat or a Republican, therefore, elect him to Congress.
