LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—Oil market $1.10.
—Read Heath & Killmer's new ad.
—You can get it at Hopkins' store.
—Cash bargains at Miles & Armstrong's.
—See what a little cash will buy at Heath & Killmer's.
—Don't forget that Amsler handles a select line of groceries.
—Friday and Saturday—fall millinery opening—F. Walters & Co.
—The hills are fast taking on the autumnal hue; the serene and the yellow, so to speak.
—Some men contribute according to their means and others according to their meanness.

—A good house and lot on Elm street for sale cheap. For particulars inquire of P. M. Clark.
—Nothing but low prices and reliable goods could account for the growth of the trade at Miles & Armstrong's.
—Heath & Killmer sell for cash and from ten to twenty per cent. lower than other grocers. Try them and see.
—The annual convention of the County Commissioners of Pennsylvania will be held in Clearfield, October 19th and 20th.
—File your order with Amsler for all varieties of fruit, and do it quickly if you wish the best. The season's fast waning.

—The building up of a business by advertising depends just as much upon the way new customers are treated as it does upon inducing them to come for the first time.—Ez.
—Men's clothes made to order, as they should be made, for one-third less than inferior goods are purchased for elsewhere. Coats tried on before finishing.
J. G. BROONV, Agent,
Tionesta, Pa.

—A large number of bargains from both the Lawrence & Smearbaugh yards at Hickory, and the Collins & Co. yards at Nebraska, are anchored near the river bridge awaiting a sufficient rise in the river to float them to Pittsburg.

—Amsler has the best in fruits; likewise in the canned goods, grocery, cigar and tobacco line, and with a stock of confectionery always in to which no others are to be compared. Prompt attention to customers who call in person or by phone.
—The gunning season opens on the 15th inst. for a 60-day seige. Squirrels are almost an unknown quantity in this section. Pheasants are fairly plentiful, while rabbits are, as usual, a pest, though the season for their lawful slaughter does not open till Nov. 1st.

—The day is cold, and dark, and dreary.
It rains, and the wind is never weary, but you needn't care, when Robinson is selling umbrellas from 50c. up, and can supply you with the celebrated Wright's health underwear, and all seasonable goods at reasonable prices.
—At the closing session of the Free Methodist Conference held at New Castle it was decided to hold the Oil City Conference at Oil City next year and the Pittsburg Conference at Apollo. The report of the Committee on Reforms denounces secret societies, intemperance, Sunday desecration, gambling and pride, particularly as the latter is manifested in the wearing of mustaches.—Bis-zard.

—Another new industry for Tionesta.
Merchant F. R. Lanson has the foundation well under way for the erection of a grist mill, on Bridge street, just below the Brennan building. The new structure will be 35x46 in size, and fitted out with the latest appliances for turning out all kinds of feed and meal. There is no question about the new enterprise being a success from the start as it should be.

—Repairs to the river bridge are being made, the work having been commenced last week. Every span is being very materially strengthened, and when completed the bridge will be practically as good as new. The short span at the east end is to be replaced by a new superstructure entire, which will be a substantial one. This work has long been needed as the bridge was actually in an unsafe state.

—Reports to the effect that wild pigeons are gathering in this section are frequently heard, and some of them from reliable sources. The crop of beechnuts is said to be immense this year—greater than for 18 years past, the date of the last appearance of pigeons in this county—and it would not be surprising if this fall should see a large body of these fine game birds back in this section, although they are said to be, like the buffalo of the plains, practically extinct.

—The town was full of music Saturday evening as the result of a treat from Landlords Weaver of Hotel Agnew, and Hornor of the Central House. West Hickory's excellent junior cornet band discoursed some very fine pieces from the balcony of Hotel Agnew, and had a fine audience. A Tidoute orchestra spellbound a large crowd with sweet strains from stringed instruments at the Central House parlors, and on the whole the city was regaled with the delightful and charming music.

YOU AND YOUR FRIENDS.

—Mrs. C. K. Bradbury had the misfortune to fall and hurt her wrist quite severely the other day.
—Corn husking bees are in season, and those who are lucky enough to find red ears are tickled without parley.
—List of letters remaining uncalled for in the Tionesta, Pa., post office, for the week ending October 12, 1898:
Mrs. S. D. Davis, Mr. Mill Warner.
D. S. Knox, P. M.

—The cutting of bee trees forms a pleasant as well as profitable pastime with some of our citizens these lovely October days. Some of the trees are fairly "loaded" with the sweet product of this busiest of all busy toilers.

—F. Walters & Co. will hold their grand opening of fall millinery Friday and Saturday of this week, and the display of hats will surpass anything ever attempted in Tionesta before. All are cordially invited to come and see the display whether they wish to purchase or not.
—J. J. Maxwell says on this day, September 27, fifty-four years ago the ground was covered by eighteen inches of snow.
He says he well remembers the time, as he was, on the night of the 26th, three miles from home and in his bare feet, hence the clinching of the time.—Clarion Rep.-Gaz.

—It is now definitely understood that the 16th regiment, Penna. Vols., will return home, orders to that effect having been issued at the war department. The several towns in this section which sent companies are making extensive preparations to fittingly celebrate the home coming of their brave soldier boys.

—H. C. Mealy, son of Farmer Moses Mealy of near Newmansville, had the large bone of his left leg broken below the knee on Wednesday last. He was working on the mill at Golena and was running out a load of lumber on a car when he was caught between the load and lumber pile with the result indicated. His injury was attended to by Dr.
Phillips of Tylersburg, and the young man is getting along very well.

—A couple of young chaps, who were evidently from the oil fields of Clarion county, and out for a "high old lonesome," paid their respects to Tionesta on Friday last for a short time. They were driving a rig with a pair of bay horses, and raced wildly up and down the streets several times, leaving finally for up the river. At West Hickory they ran a-ruck, being pulled in by the constable, after demolishing the large front windows in the Forest Hotel, kept by Jacob Bender. Before they got through with the authorities they were obliged to disgorge a fine of $25 each and costs. Their rig was badly demolished, and next day as they drove back on their way home they weren't quite so gay, but had learned a heap.

—Miss Louisa Killmer of Tionesta is visiting Mrs. A. McKinney and other friends in town this week.—Youngville Citizen.

—J. T. Dale and ex-Sheriff Sawyer are among the Tionestians in attendance at the Knights Templar convolve, Pittsburg, this week.

—Mrs. George F. Watson has gone to Reading as the delegate of the Forest County Union to the State convention of the W. C. T. U.

—Alfa Dunkle, who is now employed in the Superintendent's office of the W. N.
Y. & P. at Oil City, spent Sunday with his parents here.

—Misses Anna Anderson and Rose Hunter, teachers at Buck Mills and Mayburg, respectively, were home over last Sabbath with their parents.

—J. F. Proper returned Saturday from Cripple Creek, Col., where he has been looking after his mining interests. He expects to remain home for some time.

—Mrs. W. B. Harlan and daughter, of Conshohocken, near Philadelphia, are guests of her sister, Mrs. S. C. Johnson, and other relatives in this section. They were former residents of this place.

—Mr. and Mrs. A. Wayne Cook will move to Brookville, about the first of November, having secured a lease of the residence of Col. W. W. Corbett, West Main street.—Brookville Republican.

—Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Linds, Wm. Hopkins and Chas. Swartzfager, are down from Elk county visiting friends in this vicinity, and are guests at present at the home of their sister, Mrs. Joseph Clark.

—F. F. Whittekin, for the past three years engaged in railroad surveying in Columbia, South America, was in Tionesta last Saturday evening for a short stay. He will return to the south in a short time.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Blum and Marguerite, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Robertson, Mrs. C. M. Whitman, Mrs. Wm. Smearbaugh and Miss Florence Kiser are visiting Pittsburg friends and will see the great Knights Templar convolve this week.

—Miss Augusta Swanson recently received the sad intelligence of the death of her father, F. E. Swanson, which sad event occurred at his home in Oskars-hanna, Sweden, last month. He was aged about 78 years. Miss Swanson has the sympathy of her many friends here in her bereavement.

—Mrs. H. P. Shoemaker of this place and Mrs. Jacob Cropp, of Green township, left for Mercer yesterday, taking with them their two little children, upon whom operations will be performed at the hospital at that place, for slight deformities in their limbs.

—Jay Bankhead received a letter from John Joyce last week, the first that has been heard from him for many months.
John left Tionesta two years ago last May, and has seen a heap of country since, principally in the southern States.
He is at Solomon, Kansas, but had lately come from the Arizona gold fields, and expects to return there later.

—E. S. Rudy, one of the best known sawyers in this section of the county, died in the hospital at Pittsburg, on the 10th inst., where he had been to have an operation performed, he having been a sufferer for some time past. The deceased was about 52 years of age and a veteran of the civil war, having gone to the front when but 16 years of age. His trade was in the lumber mill, and as a manipulator of saws he had few superiors. His wife, one son and a daughter survive him, their residence being at Tylersburg, Pa., at which place the funeral will be held tomorrow Alexander Pettigrew and son John, of East Hickory, father and brother, respectively, of Mrs. Rada, passed through town yesterday on their way to attend the funeral.

—Trunks and valises, cheap, at Miles & Armstrong's.

—And it came to pass that after he had advertised his goods there came unto him great multitudes from all the region round about, and did buy of him. And when his competitors saw it, they marveled among themselves, saying: "How be it that this man is busy, while we loaf about our doors?" And he spake unto them saying: "Verily, verily, I say unto you, in this fast age of push and rustle, it is easier for a camel to enter the eye of a needle than for a business man to flourish without advertising."

—No more trust at Heath & Killmer's.
But they have reduced prices on all goods so that it makes an object for you to pay cash. Try them.

The Salamanca News tells a story of the passing through that place of the soldiers' last week. The train stopped at the coal chutes, just above the town, there was a general alighting from the cars and a scurrying for pockets full of gravel by some, while others cut off splinters from the posts of the coal shed. The trainmen made inquiry and received the following answer: "We've heard of Salamanca and don't you think we're going to be shy of souvenirs for the girls at that place.
We're out of buttons and nearly without ammunition, but when we pull into Salamanca, we'll have plenty of pebbles from the Santiago battle field and chips from the San Juan blockhouses galore."

—New hats and caps at Miles & Armstrong's.

—Hopkins sells the clothing and shoes.

Farm For Sale.
The farm located on the Balltown road about two miles from Tionesta, containing 50 acres of land, more or less, is for sale. About 30 acres are cleared, and there is a large house and barn thereon.
Good well of water, a fine orchard and all necessary outbuildings. Can be bought on easy terms. For further particulars address Mrs. A. E. LEPPER, 7-20-4f 1759 Summit St., Toledo, O.

How to Prevent Croup.
We have two children who are subject to attacks of croup. Whenever an attack is coming on my wife gives them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it always prevents the attack. It is a household necessity in this county and no matter what else we run out of it would not do to be without Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. More of it is sold here than all other cough medicines combined.—J. M.
Nickle, of Nickle Bros., merchants, Nickleville, Pa. For sale by G. W. Bovard.

Old fashions in dress may be revived, but no old-fashioned medicine can replace Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. For sale by G. W.
Bovard.

MARRIED.
KAHLE-McELRAVEY—At Tionesta, Pa., Oct. 8, 1898, by Rev. J. C. Bowman, Mr. C. W. Kahle of Bowmanville and Miss Nannie McElravy of Vowinckle, Forest Co., Pa.

the roll while you wait, at Miles & Armstrong's.

The town of Meriden, Miss., has passed a curfew ordinance for adults, prohibiting them from being upon the streets after 8 p. m., excepting on Saturday, when they are conditionally allowed to remain two hours later, under a penalty of $25 for every violation.

meeting a friend sold him the pawn ticket calling for 75 for 50 cents. He thus Gillespie & Pettit, of Greenville, was in the city yesterday consulting his client, Walter Wheaton, whom he expects to defend when the latter is put on trial for the murder of George Carter next month.

Mr. Gillespie will have the assistance of an attorney of this city, not yet chosen, in the trial of the case. He stated that Wheaton bore a good reputation in Greenville, and that they expected to prove the young man's innocence.—
