THE amount paid out in wages for 1898 will be in round numbers $380,000,000 more than the total paid out in 1895 under the Wilson law.

It is proper to remind the Spanish that if the war is renewed it will end next time, not with a protocol, but with the single word "Enough."

THE world has produced no one more fit than Dewey to be a full Admiral, and Congress ought to revive the grade early in the coming session.

NEBRASKA'S corn crop this year is worth $37,500,000. The only calamity connected with it, in the Populist mind, is the necessity of selling it for 100c dollars.

SPAIN'S income on a peace footing is estimated at $160,000,000 and expenditures at over $200,000,000. The problem is quite difficult enough without any further indulgence in war.

SENATOR SIMON, just elected in Oregon, is for keeping all the Philippines and for a larger army and navy. He is also inflexibly for a 100c dollar, which shows progress in that state.

MR. ALTGELD says the nomination of Roosevelt is a good thing for the New York Democrats. They enjoyed it so much when it happened, by the way, that the cold perspiration stood out in beads.

"PROTECTION to American industries, sound money for American people and the preservation of American honor"—this is the Republican platform in a nutshell, and it is good enough for anybody.

MAJOR J. Z. BROWN, of Clarion county, the Republican nominee for State Senator, from this district will carry an immense vote among the old soldiers. His army record is a brilliant one, and everybody admires a brave soldier. Hence his vote in the district will be something hitherto unheard of, and his election is practically settled.

CANDIDATE Jenks, who is making a hopeless canvass for Governor, is of the opinion that candidate William A. Stone is a bad man. Col. Stone was a pretty good sort of a man back in 1864-5, when he shouldered a musket and went to fight the battles of his country. By the way, where did Mr. Candidate Jenks fight during the war?—Harrisburg Telegraph.

COL. ROOSEVELT said in a speech in New York that the election of a Democratic Congress in November would "strengthen the hands of every hostile power which views with jealousy our victories in the Antilles and the Philippines." This is precisely true. The nations in Europe that dislike us most would be glad to hear that President McKinley's policy had been blocked.

THERE is no question about the reelection of Mr. Arnold to Congress from this district by a splendid majority, though the enemy is fighting him with might and main. The Democratic candidate, Hall, has no elements of popularity anywhere in the district, and the past treachery to the candidates of his party for this same office is telling fearfully against him in Clearfield and Centre counties. Even in his own county of Elk his votes will come from those who dare not go against him, but who would like to see him laid out colder than a wedge. On the other hand Mr. Arnold's most brilliant record in Congress, where he has achieved a national reputation as a man of brains and a leader of great power, is bringing staunchest support to him from all parties. W. C. Arnold is a poor man, financially speaking, and has not a barrel of money to spend in a campaign, but he is rich in intellect and sympathy for the laboring man, whose earnest, devoted champion he has ever been and they will see to it that he is kept where he can be of still greater use to them. Arnold is a winner.

Dr. S. S. Towler as a Legislator.

It goes without saying that Dr. Towler, the present candidate of the Republicans of Forest county for member of the Assembly, made a most creditable record as a legislator in 1891, and was one of the best representatives this county has ever had in Harrisburg. During the session of the legislature of 1891, the staff correspondent of the Pittsburg Commercial Gazette gave this estimate of the Doctor, who always sizes up to the situation:

"A principal feature of the proceedings of a bill in the House last week was the manner in which Dr. Towler, the member from Forest county, came to the front as leader of the country forces. When Mr. Lytle was referring to Mr. Brooks, and generally rubbing it in on the Philadelphia members, for, as he said, tricking the country members into voting for a certain bill, it was then that Dr. Towler, with calm good judgment restored the fast disappearing harmony by declaring that it was not the purpose of the country members to do any injustice to the two big counties, but to give them just such a law as their press and people have been demanding. On a number of occasions after the bill had been recalled from the Senate Dr. Towler prevented the House losing sight of the main question and descending to mere recrimination between city and country. The doctor is not nearly so large physically as mentally. He has made few speeches and no long speeches. His wit is keen, but never used for the sake of being witty. When he arises to address the Chair he always has something to say and says it well. His wit is no less keen than that of Mr. Lytle of Huntingdon, though used in a kindlier way. But the tongue of "the little man from little Forest" could be sharper than a rapier, if need be. He is shrewd and farseeing and has a growing influence on his own side of the house and is respected on the other."

A Sample Piece of Mendacity. Every year it is $5,500,000 for the common schools, but the schools do not get the money. It is withheld by Republican officials to the damage of our schools and for the private gain of corrupt politicians. The common schools, the glory of the people, must be saved from the Republican machine despoilers.—Brookville Democrat.

Can we excuse the editor of the Democrat for making so outrageously false a charge as this on the ground of ignorance? Can it be possible that he has so little acquaintance with affairs as to believe this, or is it wilful and malicious misrepresentation? Is it not born of hatred, diabolical in its bitterness, toward the party of sound money and protection? "The schools do not get the money," he says. He knows, and every other intelligent man knows, that there is not a single school in Pennsylvania that ever received one cent less than its proper share of the school appropriation. The payments are sometimes delayed on account of delay in securing the corporation tax, but it is always paid. The assertion that this delay was ever for the "private gain of the corrupt politicians," is the very imbecile of absurdity. The public schools have been the special wards of the Republican party of this State, and have been better taken care of than the schools of any other State or nation on earth. But this is a sample of the hyperbole and nauseating charlatanism that is being imposed upon the people in the name of "reform."—Punzy's Spirit.

THOSE who begin to howl about a surplus should remember that it is easier to manage than a deficit.

THE irresponsible growler is hard to find since the war inquiry board invited him to come forward and give particulars.

GEN. WHEELER says the Santiago campaign was well managed, and his opinion carries more weight than that of the entire copperhead fraternity.

Not only an influential portion of the press throughout the country, but what is of paramount importance, the individual expression of business men in every part of the State, as well as over a wide extent of the continent, is indignantly given in opposition to the methods employed by Senator Quay's enemies. Bankers and prominent men of affairs in every city of the Union are daily heard making the statement that in their honest belief there was not only no criminal intent in the transactions now being exploited, but no possible excuse for the charges. It is not necessary for Mr. Quay's friends to make apologies in business circles and among just thinkers that it is not a case for apologetical remarks, but for earnest protest.—Scranton Tribune

The Great Issue.

There is ample food for thought for all Pennsylvania Republicans in the great meeting held at Carnegie Hall in New York on Wednesday night to ratify the nomination of Colonel Roosevelt for Governor. Among the speakers was General Woodford, our Minister to Spain previous to the war. Said he:

Republican victory in the State of New York seems to be a national affair to-day. I know as no other man can know how William McKinley, during all the long hard months of last winter, stood for protection to American interests in Cuba, stood for justice to this long suffering people, stood for humanity to the starving and dying, and yet he stood for peace so long as peace was possible.

And then Colonel Roosevelt appealed to the multitude to stand by the administration. Defeat at the polls, he said, would be "interpreted abroad as meaning on the part of America a repudiation of the war from which we have emerged triumphantly."

The same kind of a campaign is waging in New York as is waging in Pennsylvania. Every effort is being made to break down Republicanism in the interests of the opposition to the great policies of the Republican administration. Here in Pennsylvania Democrats, Prohibitionists and men once Republicans have united in a campaign of vituperation, scandal and preposterous exaggeration. They have charged against the Republican party almost every crime in the category, and from every stump they are continually bearing false witness. All the foes of Republicanism are united in fusion movements to send Guffy, the Democratic leader, or some other foe of Republicanism, to the United States Senate, thus destroying Republican control of that body. They are trying to defeat Stone for Governorship and to cut Pennsylvania loose from its support of McKinley.

In the face of the great issues that confront us it is farcical to declare that this campaign is not of national importance and that the conduct of a dead and buried Legislature or some local issue of the past must alone be debated. The Republican party has placed honorable, honest and manly candidates in the field. Then why, merely to please a Jenks, or a Swallow, or a League engaged in venting its personal spite, should the Republican voters be turned away from their ticket.—Phila. Inquirer.

THE Dingy Tariff has in all truth been working out its purpose "with the precision and effectiveness of a machine." It is unquestionably the most comprehensive and the most scientific revenue law which was ever enacted by an American Congress. The time will come when the men who were once its bitterest enemies will have to acknowledge this—for the record of experience is unanswerable.

Three Doctors in Consultation. From Benjamin Franklin. "When you are sick what you like best is to be chosen for a medicine in the first place; what experience tells you is best, to be chosen in the second place; what reason (i. e. Theory) says is best is to be chosen in the last place. But if you can get Dr. Inclination, Dr. Experience and Dr. Reason to hold a consultation together, they will give you the best advice that can be taken."

When you have a bad cold Dr. Inclination would recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy because it is pleasant and safe to take. Dr. Experience would recommend it because it never fails to effect a speedy and permanent cure. Dr. Reason would recommend it because it is prepared on scientific principles, and acts on nature's plan in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions and restoring the system to a natural and healthy condition.
