LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—Oil market $1.15.
—Chestnutting parties are now the fad.
—Hopkins sells the clothing and shoes.
—The F. M. church is to be papered and refurnished.
—"Never Rip" shoes for boys at Miles & Armstrong's.
—Don't buy a cape or jacket until you see what Hopkins has in that line. It —On an average every woman carries 40 to 60 miles of hair upon her head.
—Chestnuts are selling at 90 cents to $1 per bushel, with a sluggish market at that.
—The stores that will do the largest fall business are the ones which will do the most advertising.

—Hallow'en is the next big event on the calendar, and occurs a week from next Monday night.
—Go to Amsler for fruit and vegetables.
The best are always found at his stand, and sold at the lowest figure. It —The prohibitionists in Mercer county have a candidate for Sheriff whose name is Lager. He ought to win.
—Pension claims based on service in the United States in the war with Spain are being filed rapidly in Washington.
—L. Agnew has made some decided improvements in his dwelling house on Hiland street, adding materially to its size and convenience.
—After all, winter apples are not going to be as scarce as was at first thought they would be, and a very excellent quality of picked fruit is being offered at 60 cents a bushel.
—Street cars will soon commence running between Titusville and Hydrotown, the Traction Company having completed its tracks to John Ridgway's property.
—There is not a preacher residing in the township of Knox, and yet it is the strongest Democratic township in the county. This is a sad reflection.—Clearfield Republican.

—Messrs. Jamieson, Stroup and Birtch have started the drill in their second well at Henry's Bend, and expect to finish this week. Their first well will make a five-barrel producer.
—There has been a sufficient rise in the river to allow the big barges moored at the river bridge for some time past to start for the Pittsburgh market, which they did Monday morning.
—Pears as though our beautiful fall weather is going aglimmering. But we can hardly complain, since the past weeks have been so delightfully mellow, though a month or more of just such weather would "hickle us all to pieces." —S. C. Johnson has gotten his new cottage on Vine street well under way. It is located near the Catholic church lot, on the East side of the street, and our old friend S. C. will have a pleasant home when he gets settled in his new domicile.
—The annual meeting of the State Grand Lodge, A. O. U. W., convened yesterday in Pittsburgh. The membership in Pennsylvania was 14,054 September 1. Total in the order, 352,722. J. P.
Huling is in attendance as the representative of Forest Lodge of this place.
—Oil is climbing right up the ladder these days, the latest quotation being $1.15, with the prospect of a still higher figure. This calculated to make not only the producers but the whole country happy, and will stimulate operations and business of all kinds in this section.
—Lawyer A. B. Richmond of Meadville has been retained as one of the counsel to defend Walter Wheaton, the accused murderer of George Carter, in the Venango county courts. This will make the 106th murder trial in which Mr.
Richmond has been engaged either for or against the accused.
—On Saturday evening Mrs. B. R.
Shawkey received a telegram from Gov.
Hastings stating that her son, Harry, who has been very ill with fever in Porto Rico, has arrived at Fortress Monroe on the hospital ship Relief, and is now at Josiel Simpson hospital, is doing nicely and will be furloughed home as soon as his condition will permit the journey.— Warren Mirror.

—Mary Anderson, who is now Mrs. de Navarro, and lives in England, has allowed herself, her new English home and her two-year-old baby to be photographed for the first time for publication.
Some twenty pictures have been made, and the best of these will appear in an early issue of The Ladies' Home Journal.
The baby's picture is, of course, the central one of interest.
—A second crop of fruit, berries, etc., for this season, is an occurrence we have noticed from various parts of the country, but this section is not behind even in this matter. Miss Mary Wege yesterday brought down a stem of fine ripe red raspberries, as nice as any we have seen this season, and the day previous E. G.
Bader brought in a well loaded stem of ripe blackberries. This season is all right.—Pleasantville Record.

—A good house and lot on Elm street for sale cheap. For particulars inquire of P. M. Clark.

—The sudden climatic changes we are now experiencing are not without their evil effects on the health of many, for about five out of every ten persons meet have colds or other ailments attributable to the caprice of the weather. Just now one cannot be too careful of his health, for the air is laden with malaria and other poisons incident to the natural decay of the dying year. The water as well as the air is impure, and should be used with care.
—Do your shoes rip? See "never rip" shoes, at Miles & Armstrong's. It —Argument court was held yesterday, Judge Lindsey and Associates Nash and McCray being present. In the matter of an application for a new trial in the case of Chas. Russel, convicted at last session of receiving hides stolen from the Hickory tannery, argument was heard and decision will be rendered Nov. 10th. The case between Kingsley and Green townships was argued, and the Court took the papers with him and decision will be rendered in a short time.
—Miss Nannie Morrow has a well organized Kindergarten school in successful operation, occupying, for the present, rooms at the residence of her father, where a goodly party of little folks, between the ages of three and six years, congregate daily and enjoy the pleasant as well as profitable instruction of such institutions. Miss Morrow is well adapted by experience and training for the delicate task of teaching these little in-nocents and preparing their minds for the primary work of the school room.
—Heavy all-wool suits at Hopkins', any size. Only $6.00.
—Wm. L. Thompson of Nebraska fell off the top of a barge Monday evening, while at work coupling up a fleet near the river bridge. The distance to the bottom of these huge boats is eight feet, and "Billey" struck with his back across one of the stringers, inflicting a very painful if not serious injury to his spinal column, and possibly breaking one or two of his ribs from the backbone. He was conveyed to the Central House, where he is under the care of Dr. Dunn, who has made him as comfortable as possible under the circumstances, but it is likely to be some time before he is able to be about.
—If you can't find it at Amsler's it isn't worth having, that is, anything in vegetable, fruit or grocery line.
—Pennsylvania has made a good beginning toward the system of forest reservation, approved by the last session of the legislature. Since June the Forest Commissioner, acting under the provisions of the Act of March 30, 1897, has purchased for the State over 39,000 acres of Treasurer's sales of unseated lands, at a price not exceeding taxes and costs. These lands are located as follows: Clinton county, 14,089; Clearfield Co., 15,000; Lycoming Co., 1,525; Monroe Co., 1,244; Pike Co., 7,406. In addition there is as much more land in immediate prospect of purchase on very reasonable terms.
As yet no attempt has been made to secure lands in this section of the State.

—The 16th regiment, which embraces about all of the oil region boys, and has companies from Venango, Warren, Mc-Kean, Erie, and Elk counties, is expected to reach home to-day, the boys having arrived in New York from Porto Rico on Monday evening, from which point they were to start for their several homes yesterday over the Pennsylvania railroad. Every town which has a company of this now famous regiment has made extensive arrangements to give the heroes of Porto Rico a most royal welcome home.
Oil City will be ablaze with enthusiasm on the arrival of the train which conveys the gallant soldier boys to their loved ones, as will also be the other towns which have boys in the 16th. Let the boys know that their services were appreciated.
—James Church of East Hickory had the misfortune to lose a valuable horse on Tuesday of last week. He was working on the new road up Hickory creek near the mouth of Queen. A severe and sudden, but short-lived wind and rain storm occurred about the middle of the afternoon and Mr. Church hitched his team to the wagon to go to the barn out of the storm. Just as he was ready to start a tree fell on one of his horses killing it. He saw the tree coming and struck his horses hoping to escape the tree. One horse, the one that was killed, sprang forward, but the other did not, with the result above stated. Had both horses started up the probabilities are that Mr. Church himself would have been caught by the tree instead of the horse.
—While driving down from Nebraska yesterday J. R. Ault had a little experience which will be of some benefit to Messrs. Scowden & Clark, if it is a little hard on Ralph's pocket-book. Meeting a friend along the way, he had asked him to fix the blind of the horse's bridle. In doing so the bit came out of its mouth and the animal started to run away. Discovering the situation at once, Mr.
Ault made a hurried exit from the buggy, knowing that sooner or later he would be split anyway. This was about a mile below Nebraska. The horse ran to this place and at the lower end of town the buggy collided with a lamp post, and a badly demolished buggy was the result. The rig belonged to Mrs. D.
Thompson of Nebraska. Ralph and the horse escaped without injury.

Planing Mill Burned.
The Wheeler & Dusenbury planing mill at Endeavor, Pa., caught fire last evening about 7 o'clock, and was soon a mass of smouldering ruins. When discovered, and before a stream of water could be brought to bear on the flames, almost the entire building was enveloped, everything about the mill being dry as tinder. The building contained rather an extra amount of dressed lumber at the time, which made the loss somewhat greater than it otherwise would have been. No cause can be assigned for the fire. The loss is between $3,000 and $4, 000, with slight insurance on the machinery, but how much we were unable to learn. The new water works showed up well, saving other property about the mill, but the saving of the mill itself was out of the question.
P. S.—We learn that there was an insurance of $1,000 on the property, through the agency of Arner & Son.

ville yesterday on business.

man of Oil City, died last Friday.

was a visitor to town Monday.

—Moses Hepler, during the past summer residing near Newmansville, has moved back to Tionesta.
—Frank K. Brown, of Mayburg, Forest county, was in Brookville on Saturday and Sunday last.—Brookville Democrat.

—Joseph Adamson of Philadelphia, President of the Salmon Creek Lumber Co., was a business visitor to this section last week.
—Uncle John R. Stroup is home again from an extended visit with old friends and relatives in Rockland township, Venango county.
—W. S. Gillespie, who about two years ago, moved to Johnstown, Pa., returned from there a short time ago to his former home at Whig Hill.
—The Recorder of Jefferson county last week issued a marriage permit to Joseph F. Warner of Marienville and Mary E.
DeSmit of Brookville.
—Mrs. Cornawath, of Victoria, B. C., arrived last Thursday and will be a guest at the home of her uncle, Lyman Cook, Nebraska, for a few weeks.
—Rev. J. T. Brennan, who as a pastor had won many friends here and at Stewarts Run, as well as at Tionesta, his late home, is moving his family to Warren, Pa.—Pleasantville Record.

—Miss Emma Klinefelter, whose illness with fever was noted a couple of weeks ago, has so far recovered as to be able to be out again, and will soon resume teaching in the Nebraska school.
—Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Whitman of Findley, Ohio, who were in attendance at the Knights Templar convalee in Pittsburg, took advantage of the occasion to visit Mr. Whitman's parents while in this section.
—Grant Erb of West Hickory is with his father at Elkins, West Va., who is quite ill with typhoid fever. Mr. Erb's many old Forest county friends will be anxious to learn of his improvement and ultimate recovery.
—Rev. T. J. Stone, who for the last three years has filled the F. M. pulpit on the East Hickory charge, and has been appointed to Youngsville, Pa., charge, will move with his family from Whig Hill to his new home this week.
—Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Bowman have been in attendance at the General Conference of the Free Methodist church at Chicago, during the past week. Mr.
Bowman is one of the lay delegates of the Pittsburgh conference of this State.
—George Frampton, who went to Kansas in the early summer, has returned to this section, satisfied that, while the windy state is good for many purposes, the old Keystone caps them all yet as an up-to-date, all-round State to live and die in.
—H. G. McKnight of the Oil City Biz-ness was up Saturday to help open the gaming season. Though wet and tired when he came in from the day's outing he was still able to lug home the fine string of game which he succeeded in bagging.
—Hon. P. M. Speer was up from Oil City last Wednesday on business for a few hours. Mr. Speer is one of Venango county's members of the legislature, having served in the last session, his colleague being Hon. Thos. McGough of Franklin. Both were attentive to business, always at their post of duty, and their work to themselves and the people who elected them. Not a single county in the State was better or more ably represented, and few as well, and if the people of old Venango don't return them by handsome majorities it will be because they don't appreciate good work, faithfully and honestly performed, by men who came home to them after the close of the session as pure and unscullled in character as they went away. We would be very sorry indeed to learn that a single Republican in Venango county had so far forgotten his sense of right and justice as to cast a vote against either of these faithful representatives.

The Late E. S. Rudy.
Mr. Eminger S. Rudy of Tylersburg died in Pittsburgh on Monday morning, Oct. 10, 1898. Deceased went to Pittsburg on Tuesday, Oct. 4th, accompanied by his wife, to have an operation performed. The operation took place on Friday, Oct. 7th and he died as above stated. Mr. Rudy was born in Huntingdon, Pa., Nov. 14, 1842. He married Julia C. Pettigrew, of Hickory, Pa., in 1877, and in 1882 settled in Forest Co. He served almost continually in the war of the rebellion, first in Co. A, 83d, P. V., second in Co. B, 13th, P. V. cavalry. He was wounded in the head, also in the side at the battle of Gettysburg; taken prisoner near Weidon R. R., and held at Savanna, then transferred to Andersonville, from where he made his escape, and was afterwards picked up by Sherman's army.
The disease for which the operation was performed was the result of one of his wounds. Comrade Rudy was an expert flier, and mill man. He was followed to his grave by a large concourse of people. On the left of the pulpit, in the church, sat a small group of comrades, a remnant of that Grand Army, with which comrade Rudy marched into many a bloody battle. The coffin was draped with the stars and stripes that our comrade loved so well. The funeral was conducted by the writer (one of the boys in blue), the text was Psalm 90:12.

He advertised in papers throughout the West, promising to send for from 25 cents of $1 a pamphlet with instructions about "how to get rich easy," further promising to send a sample of his "green goods" for inspection before purchases were made. Those who bit got a confederate bill or a piece of old confederate money and Rodgers kept the fee. He did a big business and had a special issue of "confidentials" struck off by a local lithographer to supply the demand for "green goods."

Pensioners heretofore are receiving circulars setting forth reasons why it would be much to their individual advantage to have laws passed by Congress next winter to do away entirely with the payment of pensions by the monthly installment and instead to pay them off in one lump ranging from $3,000 to $10,000.
The object to be obtained is this, it is claimed, is the benefit of both the government and the pensioner, as the recipient would thereby be enabled to go into business or make a good investment of the money so received, while the government would save an enormous sum in clerk hire and pension department employes, as after some time the whole department would be done away with. The object of these circulars is to find out the wishes of the pensioners in this matter.—

They left a note on the outside of the headed for the Klondike.

There was a time when the professional scandal monger was regarded with contempt. It was once the general opinion of good people that a man who would go about attempting to blacken the character of another by loudly proclaiming his misdeeds was a sort of human hyena or scavenger bird, unworthy of the respect of his fellows. Things have apparently changed, especially as to politics. It now appears that the man who calls his neighbor a thief and a scoundrel, a moral leper and a traitor, the oftener and with the most emphasis is looked upon as the most courageous and spotless man. It is hardly the thing. Take the best man in any community and let his enemies make out a character for him as they see him through the jaundiced eyes of malice and revenge, and he can be made to appear hideous. Take all his little faults and idiosyncrasies, magnify them a thousand fold, carefully suppress all his virtues and generous traits, and you have a very ugly caricature. That is what the mud-slinging politician does. He does it in the sacred name of patriotism and honesty. But justice, humanity and charity demand better things of us.
They demand that we shall be fair—that we shall weigh the good against the bad and set down the items to a man's credit, as well as those that are not to his credit, and strike a balance. We have no more right to assault a man's character and rob him of his good name than we have to break into his house and rob him of his goods.—Punzey Spirit.
