Basket Social.

A basket social was held at Porky, Pa., on Saturday night, Oct. 15, under the auspices of Union Society of that place.

In spite of rainy weather and muddy roads the house was filled from stage to threshold.

The crowd waited in suspense until the time came for the baskets to be sold.

The gentlemen then gave vent to their feelings by the bids they made, which came fast and high until the last basket was gone.

"Postoffice" in connection proved a complete success. While eager fishermen were at work, the post mistresses were busily engaged in giving out the mail.

During the latter portion of the evening, a lull might be seen in every corner pondering over a fond message from some lassie.

Hon. W. A. T. Andrews is one of the Republican candidates on the Crawford county legislative ticket this year and his election should follow by a large majority, if the people of that county wish a representative who will always be found faithful to his trust. Mr. Andrews was a member of the session of '95 and did his duty well and intelligently. He was ever found at his post when a good piece of legislation was up for consideration, and was never absent when his vote was needed to kill a bad measure. The people of Crawford county should not fail to return W. A. T. Andrews. He is all right, and cannot be swerved from the right by friend or foe.

S. C. Johnston and Mrs. Rachel Noble of this place, James Johnston of German Hill, and Mrs. Henry Grubbs of Ross Run, attended a reunion of the survivors of the family of John and Anna Johnston, deceased, on the farm of their brother, Isaac Johnston, about nine miles from New Castle, on Oct. 14. Besides those of the brothers and sisters already mentioned there were present Joseph Johnston of Bakerstown, Allegheny Co., and Mrs. Martha Coeger, of Brownsdale, Butler Co. This was the first time in fifty years that they all had met at one time in one place, and the occasion was a time of gladness and enjoyment. About forty people, other than the family relatives, were present and feasted on the good things that were served at dinner.

REPUBLICAN MASS MEETINGS.

The Republican meeting at the court house last evening, (Wednesday), was a splendid success in every particular. Mr. T. E. Armstrong presided very gracefully, and in well chosen language accepted, on the part of the Republican party of Forest county, the magnificent flag presented by the State Committee, in whose behalf Mr. Arnold made the presentation in a brief little speech. The speeches were all fine, Mr. MacGregar's being an eloquent, scholarly address; Mr. Arnold's was clear, logical and pointed, captivating the audience. John W. Blake, the oratorical blacksmith, had his audience in the best of humor from start to finish. Dr. Towler presented the local contest with frankness, fairness and honesty, which is characteristic of the man, and left his hearers in an excellent good humor. The Court House was comfortably filled, but had the night not been one of the most disagreeable of the season in point of weather, there would not have been room to contain the crowd.

OTIHER MEETINGS. This, Thursday, evening the same speakers are billed for Marienville, and Friday night at Clarifying.

Welcome to George Birtell.

The 10th regiment arrived home last Wednesday, and as was anticipated met with a most glorious welcome everywhere, not a member of the gallant regiment being overlooked. The evening train brought down our own George Birtell, a member of Co. I, of Warren, who was with the boys from start to finish in the late war. If George ever had any doubts as to the esteem in which he was held by our citizens they must have vanished when the train pulled into the station and he viewed the throng that was shouting itself hoarse over his return. We guess every man, woman and child was there, and George's feet scarcely touched the ground. A large delegation assembled at Odd Fellows hall to give him a fitting welcome, the procession being headed by West Hickory's fine cornet band which had been especially engaged for the occasion. At the hall an organization was effected by the election of Rev. J. V. McAninch as toast-master of the evening. The Divine blessing was invoked by Rev. Mr. Buzza, and then the toast-master, who was exceedingly happy in his conduct of the meeting, called upon about every one in sight for a response to some toast appropriate to the occasion. Most of the responses were excellent, and all breathed a most hearty welcome to Tionesta's gallant representative in the war with Spain. About 10:30 the meeting was dismissed with the benediction, and most of those present found their way to the Hotel Agnew dining room, where they gathered about the banquet tables and devoured a most delicious lunch, gotten up on short notice by Mine Host Weaver.

It was certainly a royal welcome home to one who showed the metal he was made of by enlisting at the earliest opportunity for a war which meant much privation to all and broken health and death to very many. Glad you're back again, George.

Three Doctors in Consultation. From Benjamin Franklin.

"When you are sick what you like best is to be chosen for a medicine in the first place; what experience tells you is best, to be chosen in the second place; what reason (i. e. Theory) says is best is to be chosen in the last place. But if you can get Dr. Inclination, Dr. Experience and Dr. Reason to hold a consultation together, they will give you the best advice that can be taken."

When you have a cold Dr. Inclination would recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy because it is pleasant and safe to take. Dr. Experience would recommend it because it never fails to effect a speedy and permanent cure. Dr. Reason would recommend it because it is prepared on scientific principles, and acts on nature's plan in relieving the lungs, opening the secretions and restoring the system to a natural and healthy condition.
