OBITUARY.

MRS. SARAH LYTLE. Brief mention was made of the death of Mrs. Lytle, mother of our townsman, S. J. Grove, in last week's issue.

Died, Thursday, Oct. 20, 1898, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Walter Courson, Mrs. Sarah Lytle, who was born near Polk, Venango county, Pa., June 4, 1829.

She was converted and identified herself with the M. E. church in 1835, under the ministry of Rev. Ahab Keller, of the Erie Conference; was married Oct. 4, 1842, to Rev. Samuel Grove, whose death occurred March 10, 1874.

As a result of this union ten children were born, four of whom, Mrs. W. R. Andrews, Mrs. Walter Courson, Samuel J. Grove, and Mrs. S. R. Edgerton, are still living.

March 15, 1880, she was again united in marriage to Rev. C. E. Lytle, of Polk, Pa., who died at Franklin, Pa., Sept. 13, 1894.

Mrs. Lytle was held in high esteem by all who knew her. With perfect trust in Him who doeth all things well, she performed the duties of life as "to His glory."

It was her delight to meet with God's people. Being in constant, close communion with the Master, her life reflected His in words of cheer and comfort to those around.

Touching funeral services were conducted at the M. E. church Saturday at 10 o'clock, a. m., by the pastor, Rev. H. M. Burns, assisted by Rev. R. A. Buzza, of Tionesta.

The remains were taken to Tionesta for interment in Riverside Cemetery, Rev. Buzza reading the beautiful and impressive burial service for the dead.

Friends from a distance were, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Grove and family, Mr. Wilbur Grove, Mr. Park Grove, Tionesta; Mrs. Stone, Polk, Pa.; Mrs. S. R. Edgerton, Cleveland, O.; Mrs. Walker, Akron, O., and Mrs. John Lytle, Oil City, Pa.

JOSEPH CORRALL. Dr. and Mrs. Morrow attended the funeral of their brother-in-law, Joseph Correll, Esq., at Pleasantville on Monday.

Having come of a good sturdy race of people, this venerable gentleman attained "a full age" and, "like as a shock of corn cometh in his season," he was gathered to his fathers in his eighty-first year.

Without an enemy and at peace with his fellowmen. He was of Presbyterian parentage and a man of great honor and integrity.

He began life for himself as a mill-right in Westmoreland county. During the civil war he enlisted as a cavalryman under the leadership of Gen. Phil Sheridan and served till the close of the war, after which he came with his family into the oil regions where he had lived ever since.

In 1849 he was married to Miss Anna Unepcher, of Indiana Co., and for over 49 years these excellent people lived together in the love and confidence of each other.

Rev. Mr. Cunningham, pastor of the Presbyterian church of Pleasantville, conducted the funeral services at the late residence of Mr. Correll, after which the body was taken in charge by the members of Aaron Benedict Post and buried with military honors.

MRS. JOHN HUNTER. Mrs. Hunter, wife of John Hunter, who resides near the mouth of Ross Run, Kings township, died on Sunday the 30th ult.

She had been in feeble health for the past three or four years. Mrs. Hunter was the daughter of the late Daniel Harrington, and had been a life-long resident of the county.

She was a woman greatly beloved by all her neighbors and acquaintances, her many acts of benevolence and kindly disposition having endeared her to all surrounding friends.

She was aged 62 years, and leaves the husband, two sons, Wilbur and Wallace, several brothers and sisters, besides a large circle of friends to mourn the loss of a devoted wife, a fond mother and sister and a true friend.

Funeral services were held yesterday, the interment being in the Zuendel church yard on German Hill, attended by a large concourse of sympathizing friends.

Thanksgiving Day. President McKinley issued the following Thanksgiving proclamation on the 27th ult.

"The approaching November brings to mind the custom of our ancestors, hallowed by time, and rooted in our most sacred traditions of giving thanks to Almighty God for all the blessings He has vouchsafed to us during the past year.
