Forest County Election Results.

The result of the election in Forest county is one over which every loyal Republican can feel a just pride. Never in its history has the party been so assailed from all sides as in the campaign just closed. Every element which could be brought to resorted to by the enemies of Repubbear against the candidates on the licanism, though persistently urged Republicau ticket was brought into requisition, the meanest of all being the foes within the ranks who seemed bent on wrecking the party and at sylvania or any other Commonwealth. any cost, and were ready to go a Those engaged in the warfare against quarter length than the com- the Republican condidates, and won enemy would do. To these the against those conspicuous in the counresult is a stunner and a disappointment. But against all this the loyal contest was a man-hunt, pure and sim-Republicans stood solid and firm, and ple. Villification and misrepresentathe consequences are a splendid victory all along the line as is shown by the official table published this week. Col. Stone has a plurality of 269. Mr. Arnold has 335, or a clear majority of 183, and carried the largest vote next to Judge Lindsey of any candidate, 1063. Major Brown carries the county by 389 majority, and Dr. Towler, against whom nearly the whole fight was waged, and whose friends had to fight against a fusion of Democrats, Prohibitionists and Populists, comes out with a nice majority of 70. Sam. Henry ran "like a steer in a corn patch," cleaning up with 436 majority.

Some Campaign Echoes.

There are a few campaign echoes which deserve to be .ecorded:

Dr. Swallow has been going about the state repeating day after day and night after night old charges and acpeople have placed little confidence in his campaign and have plainly notified him that they have bad enough.

urged on by personal spite and a desire for revenge to attack Republicanhave heard Mr. Wanamaker before. States Senatorship and was beaten. He made a personal canvass of Pennago and was overwhelmingly over- re-election. thrown by the popular vote. Those The gage of battle is accepted. who have been conversant with Mr. Wanamaker's political career have deliberately decided that his campaign was intended, not for the good of the Republican party, but for the good of Mr. Wanamaker or his friends. They have heard him talk; they have voted against his cause. and they have completely repudiated him in every shape and form.

The splendid victory for Colonel Stone is evidence that the people of Pennsylvania believe in principles and policies, and that these principles and policies are not to be scattered to the four winds because self seakers desire it. Dr. Swallow and Mr. Wanamaker must know, if they are capable of understanding the signs of the times, that their personal animosities are of little account beyond the narrow circle of their immediate friends. The great State of Pennsylvania requires something better than personal ambitions. The truth indeed is mighty and must prevail .- Phill'a Inquirer.

CONGRESS will be safely Republian, though the clean majority over all has been cut down to thirteen On the face of the returns the next Pennsylvania delegation will stand 20 to 10 in favor of the Republicans, the present delegation being 27 to 3. The Republican losses in Congressmen are mainly in the eastern States, the western section having made some substantial gains. In Pennsylvania the losses are due al most solely to the effect of the campaign of slander and vilification of disappointed malcontents, creating local dissentions and injuring no part of the ticket materially except that relating to national politics. The loss in Congressmen is made up in the strengthening of the Republican majority in the U. S. Senate, which will now have a clear majority of three or four over all, and several Democrats and Populists will be retired, among them Allen of Nebraska and Stewart of Nevada. On the whole the country is to be congratulated on the splendid results, it being the first time in many years that the country has not returned an adverse majority in Congress after a Presidential campaign.

Even in an intermediate year us ually favorable to the opposition the Democrats made no gains that encourage them to hope for success in 1900.

Senator Quay Announces His Candidacy.

Senator Quay gave out the following statement just before leaving for Florida on Thursday last, announcing his candidacy to succeed himself as U. S. Senator. The Senator does not mince matters in speaking of the methods employed to defeat the Republican party at the late election. His statement in full is as follows :

"Throughout the remarkable campaign just closed I declined to give expression to any opinion regarding the issues involved, or the methods to speak. It may not be out of place to briefly do so, now that the battle is over and the victory won. There has never been such a contest in Pennprinciples to the four winds, and the tion took the place of argument and logic, and the passion of man was appealed to rather than his reason, Never in the history of American politics did personal abuse reach such a high tide of development, not even in the days of Alexandar Hamilton, who was hounded by malicious ene-
