LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—Oil market $1.16. —Hopkins sells the clothing and shoes. —Bottom prices on top at Miles & Armstrong's. —See those shoes that Hopkins is just about giving away. —Miles & Armstrong sell so as to keep on selling. See prices. —There are grips and grips, but the worst of all grips is la grippe. —The open season for fish spearing in Chautauque lake begins February 6th. —Not "bargain" goods, but goods at bargain prices. Miles & Armstrong's. —It is rumored that Tylersburg will soon have a new gas company operating in that town. —A good house and lot on Elm street for sale cheap. For particulars inquire of P. M. Clark. —Amaler's confections, cigars, tobaccos, etc., are of the finest quality, and sold at the lowest prices. —A farmer once said, "when they fool me the second time I'm the fool." Deal at Miles & Armstrong's and you won't be fooled. —It frequently happens when a girl imagines she is wearing a sad and interesting expression, some one will ask her what she is looking so cross about.—Ez. —In Buffalo a boy has just died from the effects of being hit by a snow ball. And still parents will not try to restrain their children from indulging in the practice. —When in want of a nice morsel in the shape of vegetables, fruits and the like, try Amaler. He is always stocked up on such, and of the freshest the market affords. Don't forget it. —A colorless ink, for use in writing on postal cards, etc., is made by mixing together sulphuric acid and water, the writing becoming permanently visible when the paper is heated.—Ez. —Grip has broken out among the prisoners in the Western Penitentiary, at Allegheny, over 200 of them being stricken with the disease. The chaplain and ten officers are also down with it. —James Shoemaker has received a fine supply of wall paper samples, which he will be pleased to exhibit to any who have in contemplation the use of anything in that line the coming season. —Under a Pennsylvania law if a horse is stolen the County Commissioners must offer a reward of $20 for the capture of the thief. No other personal property is protected this way, says an exchange. —The Cuban Spy company from this place report a large and very appreciative audience in attendance at their performance at Kelleville last Saturday evening. The receipts of the evening were $43. —The Republicans of the borough will hold their caucus at the Court House this evening at 7:30 o'clock, Committee man Dr. F. S. Hunter having posted notices to that effect. A full attendance of Republicans is desired. —I. S. Superintendent of Col. Carter's farm at West Hickory, wants to purchase twelve to fifteen heavy weight teams. Those having any they wish to dispose of will do well to consult him. None less than 1400 pounds wanted. —The first anniversary of the destruction of the Maine will soon be here, and already preparations are being made in many places to observe the day in an appropriate manner. One year ago on the 15th of this month was when the terrible deed was perpetrated. —For the second time this winter the river at this point is frozen over, having closed on Monday night. A few of our citizens who failed to get up a supply of ice on the other freeze-up are not slow in taking advantage of present conditions to fill their ice garners. —The Board of County Commissioners were in Ridgway the fore part of this week inspecting Et county's new poor house which has just been completed, and is said to be a very fine building. The Forest county home will be a less pretentious affair, yet of sufficient size and beauty as to reflect credit on the county. —Bargains in shoes. Miles & Armstrong. —To-morrow the ground hog comes forth to take observations. If he sees his shadow that settles it for the next six weeks for a snug winter weather, otherwise it will continue to freeze and thaw, freeze and thaw, just as it has in the past. For the past two seasons the woodchuck has done about as well in his weather prognostics as the best of them. —Forest county will have a county poor farm, for which a majority of the citizens voted at the November election. The site selected is a beautiful spot on the Allegheny about four miles north of Tionesta. The building to be erected is a handsome and modern one, and in keeping with the policy of the commissioners regarding public works, which led them a short time ago to erect one of the finest county jails in this section. In this matter they certainly have set the pace for Venango.—Spectator. —Hopkins sells the clothing and shoes

...insisted the following ticket last Saturday...

...The Democrats of Hickory twp. have nominated the following ticket: Road commissioner, Judson Clark; school directors, T. J. Bowman, George Warden; justice of the peace, W. J. Foreman; inspector, A. E. Southworth; auditor, W. H. Stiles; constable, K. L. Whitton; overseer of the poor, W. E. Withersall; road commissioner, George Patch; treasurer, G. W. Warden; clerk, M. E. Abbott; school directors, G. W. Warden, R. O. Whitton.

Death of John G. Carpenter, John G. Carpenter, father of jury commissioner Judson B. Carpenter of Newtown Mills, died at his home in North Bergen, N. Y., on Monday of this week of pneumonia.

Had His Back Broken. John Carlson, a section employe on the Hickory Valley railroad, met with a serious accident last Sunday about noon. In company with one or two friends he was crossing the railroad bridge at Hickory, and when on the trestle he started and fell, and although he caught on the ties, was unable to regain the top of the trestle and dropped to the ground, a distance of about 18 feet.

ARMSTRONGS.

Some persons apparently make promises just to be agreeable. —Buy your overcoats now of Hopkins and save one-half. —Why is it we always have such a good memory for disagreeable things? —Ladies—wear 21c a garment at Miles & Armstrong's. —It is much harder to acquire a good habit than to break off a bad one. —The large, old-fashioned shell comb, as broad as one's palm, is again in vogue. —Start in to compare trouble with someone else, and you won't think that you have any. —Is there a woman living who did not determine in her youth that she would marry rich?

In how many houses the overtideness of the mistress makes the occupants absolutely uncomfortable. —Most merchants figure to get all they can. Miles & Armstrong figure to sell as cheap as they can. —Superintendent Murdoch reports that there were 499 inmates at the Feeble Minded Institute, at Polk, on December 31, 1898, a decrease of two compared with the previous month.

Justice of the Peace Meitz, of Armstrong county, raised some home-grown coffee on his farm last summer. It was an experiment, but it turned out quite successful. When roasted the coffee has a delicious flavor. Mr. Meitz says he can produce the coffee at the cost of four cents a pound.—Emulton News.

The voters of Brockwayville borough will vote at the coming election on the question of increasing the indebtedness of that municipality in the sum of $3,000 for the purpose of macadamizing the main street of that place.

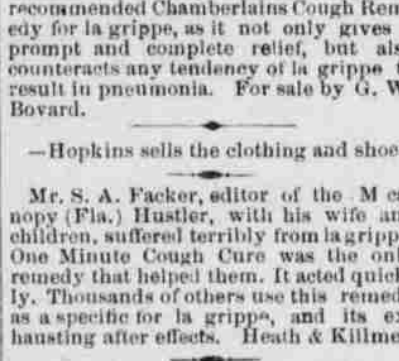

Some things for nothing. We have heard of the boy who wanted to eat his cake and keep it too, but never before of a business man who sold his goods and then gave the purchaser credit for the amount paid. To learn about this send to James Vicks Sons, of Rochester, N. Y., who agree to do this in their Guide. The Golden Wedding edition of Vicks Garden and Floral Guide is certainly an artistic work, with its twenty-four pages lithographed in colors, and nearly one hundred more pages filled with handsome half-tone illustrations, photographed from flowers, fruits, vegetables and homes. While the Guide is really too expensive to give away, they give it with a due bill for 25 cents worth of seeds for only 15 cents.
