Sized Up the Situation.

In a recent issue of the Phila, Inquirer, Representative Towler gives an excelof our member: "There is no more brilliant and able Representative on the floor of the House of Representatives than Dr. S. S. Tewler, of Forest county. The Doctor is not only a man of exceptional attainments in his Plate Road. THE Governor has signed the bill providing for the payment of school directors for attending the triennial convention for the election of County Superintendents and for the punishment of candidates who pay directors' expenses.

THE country is anxiously awaiting news of the condition of ex-Secretary of State John Sherman, who was attacked by pneumonia while on a cruise with the party now sailing in the West India waters on the steamer Paris. He was last reported as in a most critical condition, his Killmer. physicians having little hope of his re-counties held their primaries on Saturday last, the principal interest in the former county centering on the election of delegates to the State convention, the issue being squarely against the candidates friendly to Senator Quay. The antis were backed up by insurgents Flinn, Koontz and other blattant kickers, but the Quay delegates won hands down. Blair was one of the strongest anti-Quay conuties in the State last fall, but the people there seem to have wakened up to the fact that the kickers have no other metive than the breaking up of the party and are refusing to follow them to that extent. The Warren delegates are also staunch friends of Senator Quay.

Among the bills recently introduced at Harrisburg is one by E. W. Parshall of Warren county, which legalizes the killing of grouse, quail, woodcock and other game birds from October 15th to December 15th, and rabits from October 1st to February let. The bill it is thought will February 1st. The bill, it is thought will be antogonized by sportsmen generally as to birds - Titusville Courier

"As to birds," the bill makes no change in the season, and we cannot see why it will be antagonized on that score, although the ideal season would be from Oct. 1 to Dec. 15, for game birds of all We are authorized to aunounce Wm.A. kinds. The rabbit season should be extended a couple of months farther into date for County Commissioner, subject to the winter. But why worry? No changes in the game season are at all likely this session.

> So MUCH has been said about Dr. Towler's reply to the statement in several papers as to his being asked to preside in Speaker Farr's absence for a purpose that we give the little speech as it occurred:

The Doctor rose on a "question of privlege" and sa d: "Mr. Speaker, It is well known that the wrath of members by counties.
